DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 Bangkok Arrival & Leisure Time

Meals: NA | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car

Upon your arrival at Bangkok Airport, a representative will be waiting at the designated meeting point on the 2nd floor of the arrivals hall. Look for a sign with your name for easy identification. You will then be transferred directly to your hotel for check-in. The standard check-in time is 14:00, allowing you to settle in and unwind after your journey.
The remainder of your first day in Thailand’s vibrant capital is free for you to relax at your accommodation or begin a gentle exploration of the surrounding area at your own pace. Take this opportunity to acclimate to the local time and prepare for the exciting adventures ahead.

Day 2 Bangkok's Sacred Sites & Canal Life

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car, Canal boat

Your day begins with a breakfast featuring both Thai and Western options, preparing you for an extensive exploration of Bangkok's most revered temples. The first stop is Wat Traimit, home to an impressive solid gold Buddha statue. Continue through the historic heart of the city to Wat Pho, where you will admire the colossal reclining Buddha.
The journey then leads to the Grand Palace, a magnificent example of Thai Buddhist architecture. Within its expansive grounds, you'll discover glittering structures and beautiful gardens, including Wat Phra Kaew, which houses the revered Emerald Buddha from the 14th century. Following a delightful lunch at a local restaurant, you will embark on a classic 'longtail' boat trip.
This afternoon excursion takes you through the charming canals of Thonburi, offering a glimpse into a quieter, traditional way of life along the riverbanks. The canal tour culminates with a visit to the iconic Wat Arun, the Temple of Dawn, whose spectacular 79-meter pagoda stands majestically overlooking the Chao Phraya River. After disembarking, a car will transport you back to your hotel, allowing you to relax or venture out to experience Bangkok's lively evening atmosphere.

Day 3 Bangkok Exploration Day

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: NA

Today is dedicated to personal exploration of Bangkok, giving you the freedom to discover the city at your leisure. You might choose to indulge in some retail therapy at one of the world-class shopping malls, renowned for their vast selection of international and local brands, or simply relax at your hotel.
For those seeking further adventure, optional tours are available (at an additional cost). Consider a Bangkok Street Food Tour by Tuk Tuk to sample local delicacies, a half-day trip to the famous Damnoen Saduak Floating Market for a unique cultural experience, or a full-day excursion to the historic River Kwai and Hell Fire Pass. This evening presents an ideal opportunity to create lasting memories on your final night in Bangkok.

Day 4 Journey to Chiang Mai & Northern City Tour

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Chaing Mai | Transport: Car, Airplane

Following breakfast, a private transfer will take you from your Bangkok hotel to the airport for a flight to Chiang Mai. After approximately an hour in the air, you will arrive at Chiang Mai International Airport, where your tour guide will meet you and facilitate your transfer to the hotel for check-in.

Your half-day city tour commences with a visit to Wat Phrathat Doi Suthep, considered one of Thailand's most sacred temples, perched high above the city. After descending the mountain, your next destination is Wat Chedi Luang, an impressive Lanna-style chedi that once stood as one of ancient Chiang Mai's tallest structures. Continue to Wat Phra Singh, also known as the Temple of the Lion Buddha, to admire its collection of classic Lanna art and explore an ancient library.

The tour also includes a stroll through the serene gardens of Wat Suan Dok, the Flower Garden Temple, where you can view a 500-year-old bronze Buddha statue, one of the largest in Thailand. The afternoon is then free for you to pursue your own interests, whether it's further exploration or relaxation.

Day 5 Chiang Mai Elephant Jungle Sanctuary Experience

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Chiang Mai | Transport: Car

Your day begins with a hotel pick-up in Chiang Mai between 08:00 and 08:30. A scenic 1.5-hour drive south of the city will take you through rolling hills, lush forests, and tranquil farming villages, leading to the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary. Upon arrival, you'll meet your guide and enjoy a short 10-15 minute trek through the jungle to reach the main sanctuary area.

Once at the sanctuary, you'll change into traditional Karen clothing and participate in an informative session about elephant anatomy, behavior, and history. This is followed by an opportunity to meet the elephants up close, feeding them, interacting, and observing them in their natural habitat while capturing memorable photographs. A delicious lunch featuring authentic Thai cuisine and fresh seasonal fruits will be served.

In the afternoon, engage in a hands-on session to prepare herbal medicine balls, which you will then feed to the elephants. Enjoy a walk with these gentle giants to a nearby river, where you can join them for a refreshing bath. Conclude your interactive experience with a fun and therapeutic mud spa session alongside the elephants, followed by another swim in the river. After changing into dry clothes and bidding farewell, you'll embark on the 1.5-hour drive back to Chiang Mai, arriving at your hotel between 17:00 and 17:30, with the evening free to reflect on your day.

Day 6 Chiang Mai to Hanoi & Old Quarter Food Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Car, Airplane, Walking

After breakfast, you will be transferred from your hotel to Chiang Mai Airport for your flight to Hanoi, Vietnam's capital. Upon arrival at Hanoi Airport, your local tour guide will greet you and provide a comfortable transfer to your hotel for check-in. Please note that the standard check-in time for hotels in Hanoi is 14:00; early check-in may be arranged for an additional fee.

In the evening, around 17:30, your local guide will meet you at Shinhan Bank on Le Thai To Street. From this central point, you will embark on an immersive culinary walking tour through the historic and energetic Hanoi Old Quarter. This district is renowned for its diverse and beloved local dishes, offering a true taste of Vietnamese street food culture.
As you navigate the bustling alleyways and lantern-lit streets, you'll have the opportunity to sample a variety of authentic dishes. Typical tastings may include the fragrant Pho Bo (Vietnamese beef noodle soup), the delicate Bun Thang (rice vermicelli with shredded chicken and egg), the spicy Bun Bo Hue (Central Vietnamese noodle soup), and the iconic Banh Mi sandwich. You might also try Nom Bo Kho (green papaya salad with dried beef) and Nem Chua Ran (deep-fried fermented pork rolls). The tour concludes with a traditional Ca Phe Trung (Egg Coffee), a unique Hanoi specialty, before you return to your hotel.

Day 7 Hanoi to Halong Bay Overnight Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Halong Bay Cruise | Transport: Car, Cruise boat

Following breakfast, you will depart from Hanoi for a scenic 2.5 to 3-hour drive to Halong Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site celebrated for its emerald waters and dramatic limestone karsts. Upon reaching the pier around midday, you will board your chosen cruise and receive a warm welcome from the crew. After settling into your cabin, a freshly prepared lunch will be served as the cruise begins its journey, gracefully navigating past stunning limestone islets and secluded coves.
The afternoon is filled with engaging activities designed to showcase the bay's natural beauty. You may visit a majestic limestone cave, explore a charming floating fishing village, or participate in kayaking or swimming in the serene waters. Alternatively, you can simply relax on the sundeck, taking in the panoramic views of this extraordinary landscape.
As evening approaches, return to the cruise to witness a beautiful sunset, followed by a delicious Vietnamese dinner served onboard. The rest of the evening is at your leisure; you might join a cooking demonstration, try your hand at squid fishing, or simply unwind under the starlit sky. You will spend the night aboard the cruise in Halong Bay, surrounded by its tranquil beauty.

Day 8 Halong Bay Sunrise & Return to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Cruise boat, Car

Awake early to experience the breathtaking tranquility of Halong Bay at sunrise. Begin your morning with a refreshing Tai Chi session on the sundeck, or simply enjoy a cup of coffee while soaking in the peaceful atmosphere as the sun paints the sky. After a light breakfast, the cruise will continue its journey through the bay, offering further opportunities to explore its hidden corners.
Depending on the specific cruise itinerary, you might visit another impressive limestone cave, a serene floating village, or take a final swim in the bay's inviting emerald waters. A brunch buffet will be served as the boat slowly makes its way back to the harbor, allowing you to enjoy a final meal amidst the stunning scenery.
Around noon, you will disembark from the cruise and meet your driver for the return journey to Hanoi. The drive back will take you through the picturesque countryside landscapes of northern Vietnam. You are expected to arrive back in Hanoi by late afternoon, with the remainder of the evening free for you to relax at your hotel or explore the city at your own pace.

Day 9 Hanoi City Tour: History & Heritage

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Car

Gather in your hotel lobby at the scheduled time to meet your tour guide, who will provide an introduction before commencing a day of exploration in Vietnam's capital. Your cultural journey begins with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the revered resting place of Vietnam's iconic leader. Continue to his modest stilt house, where he resided and worked, and stroll through the serene grounds of the Presidential Palace. These sites offer profound insights into Ho Chi Minh's life and enduring legacy. Next, admire the unique architectural beauty of the One Pillar Pagoda, a distinctive wooden structure built atop a single stone pillar. Rich in historical and spiritual symbolism, this iconic pagoda showcases centuries of Vietnamese artistry through its intricate design. The tour then proceeds to the Temple of Literature, recognized as Vietnam's First University. Originally established during the Ly Dynasty, this Confucian sanctuary is dedicated to scholars and sages. Wander through its ancient courtyards and pavilions, capturing memorable photos in this peaceful and historically significant setting, a testament to Hanoi's intellectual and cultural heritage.

Following the tour, relax and enjoy a flavorful meal at a local restaurant, featuring authentic Vietnamese cuisine, providing a perfect conclusion to your day of discovering the capital's timeless charm.

Day 10 Ninh Binh: Hoa Lu, Tam Coc & Hang Mua Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Car, Boat, Walking

After breakfast, depart from Hanoi for a scenic drive to Ninh Binh Province, often referred to as "the Halong Bay on land" due to its spectacular limestone landscapes. Your first destination is Hoa Lu, the ancient capital of Vietnam during the Dinh and early Le Dynasties in the 10th century. Here, you will visit the historic temples dedicated to King Dinh Tien Hoang and King Le Dai Hanh, gaining insights into the rich royal heritage and political importance of this former capital nestled amidst dramatic karst hills. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant, savoring regional specialties.

In the afternoon, continue to Tam Coc, where you will board a traditional sampan boat for a serene journey along the Ngo Dong River. As you glide through lush rice paddies and beneath towering limestone cliffs and natural cave passages, you will be immersed in some of Vietnam's most picturesque countryside views. This tranquil experience offers a unique perspective of the landscape.

The final stop is Hang Mua (Mua Cave). Challenge yourself by climbing over 400 stone steps to the mountaintop. From the summit, you will be rewarded with breathtaking panoramic views of the entire Tam Coc Valley, the winding river, and endless rice fields, making it one of the best photographic spots in Ninh Binh. After a full day of exploration, you will return to Hanoi in the late afternoon.

Day 11 Hanoi to Hue: Imperial City Arrival

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hue | Transport: Car, Airplane

Enjoy a relaxed morning in Hanoi. Depending on your flight schedule, you might have some free time for last-minute souvenir shopping or a leisurely walk through the charming Old Quarter. Your driver will then provide a comfortable transfer to the airport for your domestic flight to Hue, the former imperial capital of Vietnam.

Upon your arrival in Hue, you will be warmly greeted by your local guide and transferred directly to your hotel for check-in. The rest of the day is yours to unwind and acclimate to the serene atmosphere of Hue. Take the opportunity to explore the peaceful surroundings of your accommodation or simply relax after your journey, anticipating the historical discoveries of the coming days.

Day 12 Hue Imperial City & Pagoda Tour

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hue | Transport: Car

Begin your morning at 8:00 with a half-day tour exploring the tranquil ancient capital of Vietnam. Your first visit is to Thien Mu Pagoda, an iconic seven-story pagoda gracefully situated on a hill overlooking the picturesque Perfume River. This spiritual site offers stunning views and a sense of historical serenity.

Next, you will explore the Imperial Citadel, the former capital of Vietnam during the Nguyen dynasty. Wander through its majestic gates, palaces, and temples, gaining insight into the country's royal past and intricate architecture. The Citadel is a sprawling complex that tells tales of emperors and ancient court life.

Conclude your morning with a visit to Dong Ba Market, Hue's largest commercial center. Here, you can experience the vibrant local life, browse a wide array of local products, from fresh produce to handicrafts, and perhaps find a unique souvenir to take home. After a morning rich in history and culture, you will return to your hotel for the afternoon.

Day 13 Hue to Hoi An Scenic Transfer

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An | Transport: Car

After enjoying breakfast at your hotel, you will complete the check-out process. Around 8:00 AM, a comfortable shuttle bus or private car will transfer you from Hue to Da Nang. This scenic drive offers glimpses of Vietnam's central coast and lush landscapes.

Upon arrival in Da Nang City Center, the journey continues directly to Hoi An, a charming ancient town recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once in Hoi An, you will proceed to your hotel for check-in. The remainder of the day is free for you to settle in, relax, and perhaps take a preliminary stroll through the atmospheric streets of Hoi An at your leisure, preparing for a deeper exploration tomorrow.

Day 14 Hoi An Ancient Town Exploration

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An | Transport: Walking

Your time in Hoi An includes a comprehensive visit to its most significant sites. Begin at Hoi An Market, a bustling hub where locals gather for fresh produce, snacks, and daily necessities. This offers a genuine insight into the daily life and culinary traditions of the town. Next, explore the Phuc Kien Chinese Assembly Hall, a vital religious site where residents pray for prosperity and safe travels, remaining an active center for community ceremonies.

Continue to the Phung Hung Ancient House and Tan Ky Ancient House, both meticulously preserved to showcase the lifestyle of merchant families during Hoi An’s trading peak. These homes retain their original interiors and family collections, reflecting the town’s rich commercial history. Another highlight is the Museum of Folk Culture, featuring straightforward exhibits on traditional crafts, farming tools, and items related to daily life in the old town.

Nearby, the Hoi An Traditional Performing Arts House offers brief shows introducing visitors to local music and folk performances. The itinerary also features the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, a well-known landmark symbolizing Hoi An's multicultural connections throughout history. To conclude your visit, you'll have time to browse handicraft shops and art galleries, and wander through smaller lanes where daily activities continue to follow long-standing routines.

Day 15 Hoi An to Ho Chi Minh City & Southern City Tour

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh | Transport: Car, Airplane

After a refreshing breakfast, you will check out from your hotel in Hoi An. Your driver will then transfer you to Da Nang Airport to catch your flight to Ho Chi Minh City, the bustling metropolis of southern Vietnam. Upon arrival at Tan Son Nhat Airport, a transfer will take you to your hotel for check-in and a brief period of refreshment before your afternoon city sightseeing begins.
In the afternoon, your guide will meet you in the lobby to commence a tour of Ho Chi Minh City's historical landmarks. The first stop is the Reunification Palace, formerly the official residence of the President of the Republic of Vietnam, showcasing impressive French colonial architecture. Next, visit the War Remnants Museum, the city's oldest museum, housing poignant artifacts that recount the brutality of the Vietnam War.
Continue to the Saigon Central Post Office and Notre Dame Cathedral, both renowned for their iconic French colonial architecture (note: Notre Dame Cathedral is under renovation until 2027). Find a moment of peace at the Jade Emperor Pagoda, a historic Chinese temple adorned with brightly colored decorative designs. Conclude your tour by exploring a local market, where you can practice your bargaining skills while shopping for souvenirs. You will return to your hotel around 12:30, bidding farewell to your guide after an exciting morning.

Day 16 Mekong Delta River Life Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh | Transport: Car, Boat, Xe Loi (motorized rickshaw)

After breakfast at your hotel, your guide will meet you in the lobby around 08:00 for a full-day discovery of the Mekong Delta. You will drive to Ben Tre Province, where you will board a cruise along the Ham Luong River, which flows entirely through Ben Tre. On the river, you'll have the opportunity to admire the lush mangrove forests and observe the daily life of locals along the riverbanks.
Following the river cruise, you will visit a coconut processing workshop, gaining insight into this important local industry. Afterward, enjoy tasty fresh fruit and tea at a traditional mat-weaving house. The journey continues with an experience on a "xe loi," a motorized rickshaw, which will take you through vibrant fruit orchards and agricultural landscapes, providing a close-up view of the region's produce. A specialty meal will be served for lunch at a charming riverside restaurant.
In the afternoon, prepare your camera for the next adventure: a sampan boat trip to explore the narrow canals. You will spend 10-15 minutes sailing through magnificent mangroves, experiencing the tranquil beauty of the delta's smaller waterways.
Around 17:00, you will be transferred back to your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City for relaxation after a day filled with unique cultural experiences.

Day 17 Ho Chi Minh City to Siem Reap Transfer

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Car, Airplane

At 8:00 AM, after enjoying breakfast at your hotel, your driver will pick you up and transfer you to the airport for your flight to Siem Reap, Cambodia. This marks your transition from the vibrant cities of Vietnam to the ancient wonders of Cambodia. Upon your arrival at Siem Reap airport, you will be met by a local representative who will provide a comfortable transfer directly to your hotel. After checking in, the rest of the day is free for you to relax and unwind. Take this opportunity to settle into your new surroundings and prepare for the awe-inspiring temple explorations that await you in the coming days.

Day 18 Angkor Temple Complex Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Car

After a nourishing breakfast, your guide will meet you at 8:00 AM, ready to begin your exploration of the magnificent Angkor Temple complex. Your first stop is Ta Prohm Temple, uniquely embraced by the massive roots of ancient fig trees and gigantic creepers, offering incredible photo opportunities for your travel album.

Next, you will head to the antique capital of Angkor Thom, entering through its impressive South Gate, adorned with giant statues depicting the churning of the ocean of milk. Within Angkor Thom, explore the Bayon Temple, famous for its 54 towers intricately decorated with over 200 smiling faces of Avalokitesvara. You will also see the Phimeanakas, the Royal Enclosure, the Elephants Terrace, and the Terrace of the Leper King. Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant, savoring Cambodian cuisine.

In the afternoon, you will contemplate the World Heritage Site of Angkor Wat, the most famous temple on the plain of Angkor. Learn about authentic ancient Khmer architecture as you explore its five towers, symbolizing Meru's five peaks, its enclosed wall representing the mountains at the edge of the world, and the surrounding moat, the ocean beyond. Conclude your day by ascending Phnom Bakheng mountain to witness a charming sunset as the sun descends over the ancient temples. Afterward, return to your hotel for refreshments.

Day 19 Siem Reap Departure

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: NA | Transport: Car

Enjoy a leisurely morning with breakfast at your hotel, allowing you to relax during your final moments in Siem Reap. After breakfast, you will complete the check-out process at your convenience.

At the appropriate time, a driver will transfer you to the airport for your departure flight, marking the end of your extensive journey through Thailand, Vietnam, and Cambodia. This concludes your memorable travels, filled with treasured experiences and cultural discoveries.
