Day 3 Ninh Binh's "Halong Bay on Land" & Ancient Capital

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ninh Binh | Transport: Private air-conditioned vehicle

Between 7:30 and 8:00 AM, a pickup from your Hanoi Old Quarter hotel marks the start of your journey to Ninh Binh. The urban landscape gradually transitions into tranquil rural scenery, characterized by expansive rice fields, traditional villages, and the occasional water buffalo. This picturesque drive offers a glimpse into Vietnamese countryside life.

Your first destination is Tam Coc, often likened to "Halong Bay on land" due to its stunning karst formations. Here, you'll embark on a two-hour boat trip along the Ngo Dong River, paddled by local boat operators in traditional sampans. The journey takes you past dramatic limestone cliffs, verdant rice paddies, and through a series of natural caves, creating a serene and memorable experience. Afterward, a local restaurant will serve lunch, featuring regional Vietnamese dishes.

In the afternoon, delve into history at the ancient temples dedicated to King Dinh and King Le, renowned for their intricate wooden and stone artistry. As you walk the grounds, your guide will recount tales of Vietnam's early dynasties. By approximately 6:00 PM, you will arrive at your hotel in Ninh Binh, with the evening reserved for relaxation after a day of exploration.

Activities: Drive from Hanoi to Ninh Binh
Enjoy a two-hour sampan boat ride in Tam Coc
Have lunch at a local restaurant

the ship commences its journey into the bay. This initial sailing provides your first views of Halong Bay's iconic limestone formations emerging from the emerald waters, an impressive introduction to this natural wonder.

During the afternoon and evening, you will have the option to explore a magnificent cave, revealing dramatic rock formations and impressive stalactites, with vantage points offering expansive views of the bay. Back on board, you can participate in a Vietnamese cooking demonstration or simply relax on deck as the sun descends. Dinner, featuring fresh, locally sourced seafood and diverse dishes, will be served. Later, unwind with a drink, try squid fishing, or consider optional spa services available on the cruise. (Note: Cruise itineraries and activities may vary based on the selected vessel).

Activities:
Transfer from Ninh Binh to Halong Bay cruise port
Board luxury cruise and receive welcome drink
Enjoy lunch onboard while sailing into Halong Bay
Visit a stunning cave with dramatic rock formations
Attend a Vietnamese cooking demonstration (optional)
Relax on deck during sunset
Dine on fresh seafood
Try squid fishing or spa services (optional)

Day 5 Halong Bay Sunrise, Tai Chi, and Flight to Hue

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hue | Transport: Luxury cruise, private air-conditioned vehicle, domestic flight

For early risers, a spectacular sunrise over Halong Bay awaits, with soft light illuminating the limestone formations and tranquil waters. Begin your day with a light breakfast, optionally followed by a Tai Chi session on the sundeck, offering a peaceful way to appreciate the surrounding scenery.

Later in the morning, the cruise will visit a notable Halong Bay attraction, such as Titop Island or another renowned cave. You'll have time for relaxation, swimming, or enjoying panoramic vistas across the bay. The vessel then returns to port while you enjoy a leisurely brunch. Afterward, you will prepare for disembarkation.

Around midday, your cruise will dock at the harbor, where a driver will be waiting to transfer you back to Hanoi Airport for your flight to Hue. Upon arrival in Hue, you will be met and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the evening is free for you to unwind or take a casual stroll, absorbing your first impressions of this historic former imperial capital.

Activities:
Witness sunrise over Halong Bay
Enjoy light breakfast and optional Tai Chi session
Visit a Halong Bay attraction (Titop Island or cave)
Return to cruise for brunch
Disembark from cruise
Transfer to Hanoi Airport for flight to Hue
Arrive in Hue and transfer to hotel charm. Your initial stop is the iconic Thien Mu Pagoda, recognized for its seven-story tower and tranquil setting.

Next, visit the impressive Hue Imperial Citadel, which once served as the political and cultural heart of Vietnam's final dynasty. Wander through its grand gates, courtyards, and gardens, areas once reserved exclusively for emperors and their royal families. Continue to Long An Palace, where a collection of royal artifacts provides insights into imperial life. Afterward, experience the lively atmosphere of Dong Ba Market, a bustling hub where locals procure everything from fresh produce to traditional goods. Lunch will be enjoyed at a local restaurant, featuring Hue's celebrated cuisine.
The afternoon and evening are dedicated to exploring two of Hue's most significant royal tombs located outside the city. The Tu Duc Tomb, nestled among peaceful lakes and pine trees, offers a calm and picturesque environment. In contrast, the Khai Dinh Tomb stands out with its distinctive fusion of Vietnamese and European architectural styles. Conclude your day with a memorable royal-style dinner, inspired by dishes once served to emperors, providing an authentic taste of Hue's elegant imperial past.

Activities: Begin Hue city tour with private guide

Your day commences around 8:00 AM at a designated meeting point, where you'll connect with your guide. From there, a minivan will transport you to Tra Que Vegetable Village, a serene farming community just beyond Hoi An. Stroll through the verdant gardens, observing local farmers cultivating herbs and vegetables using traditional methods. This offers a valuable insight into rural life and the origins of Vietnamese ingredients.

Next, visit a local home for a warm welcome and herbal tea. Continue to a nearby market to shop for fresh ingredients. Your guide will introduce you to various local produce and spices, with an opportunity to try bargaining. The highlight of the day is a hands-on cooking class at the Cooking School. Following an introduction, you'll join an experienced chef to prepare several classic Vietnamese dishes from scratch. Learn practical techniques as you chop, season, and cook, then savor the dishes you've created for lunch. At the class's conclusion, you'll receive a certificate as a memento.

In the afternoon, unwind with a relaxing boat ride along the Thu Bon River, returning towards central Hoi An. Afterward, you will be transferred back to your hotel, with the remainder of the day free for further exploration or relaxation.

Activities:

Day 11 Angkor Wat & Angkor Thom Grand Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Private air-conditioned vehicle

Begin your day early with a pickup from your Siem Reap hotel, setting out to explore the legendary Angkor temple complex. Your first stop is Angkor Thom, which you'll enter through the impressive South Gate, adorned with massive stone faces. Inside, visit the iconic Bayon Temple, distinguished by its numerous serene, smiling faces carved into towering stone structures.

Nearby, walk along the historic Terrace of the Elephants, once a venue for royal ceremonies and public gatherings. Continue to Ta Prohm, one of Angkor's most atmospheric temples, where colossal tree roots intertwine with ancient ruins, creating a dramatic and memorable scene, famously featured in the film "Tomb Raider." Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant before resuming your exploration.

In the afternoon, visit the awe-inspiring Angkor Wat, the world's largest religious monument and a masterpiece of Khmer architecture. Take ample time to explore its grand galleries, intricate bas-reliefs, and soaring spires. As the day draws to a close, you might witness the temple glowing in the soft, golden light of late afternoon before returning to your hotel.

Day 12 Banteay Srei & Pradark Village Rural Discovery

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Private air-conditioned vehicle

After breakfast, embark on a picturesque drive approximately 22 miles (35 km) northeast of Siem Reap to visit the remarkably preserved Banteay Srei temple. Often called the "Citadel of Women," this 10th-century site is celebrated for its exquisite carvings and distinctive pink sandstone. Unlike the larger Angkor temples, Banteay Srei offers a more intimate experience, allowing for a closer appreciation of its detailed bas-reliefs depicting Hindu mythology.

On your return journey, make a stop at Pradark Village. Here, you'll observe local residents producing palm sugar using traditional methods. This provides an excellent opportunity to learn about rural Cambodian life and perhaps acquire some palm sugar as a unique souvenir, directly supporting local communities. You will arrive back at your hotel around midday, leaving the rest of the afternoon free for relaxation or independent exploration of Siem Reap's charming streets or markets.

Activities:
Drive to Banteay Srei temple
Explore the intricate carvings of Banteay Srei
Visit Pradark Village to observe palm sugar production
Return to Siem Reap hotel
Relax or explore independently

Day 13 Siem Reap Free Day & Optional Activities

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Today is dedicated to personal exploration and relaxation in Siem Reap. You have the freedom to enjoy a leisurely morning, sleep in, or venture out early to discover more of the city's attractions. A visit to the vibrant Old Market is a popular choice, where you can browse a diverse array of local handicrafts, textiles, and souvenirs, engaging with local vendors.

The surrounding area also features numerous cozy cafés and restaurants, perfect for sampling classic Khmer dishes such as fish amok or beef lok lak, offering a taste of authentic Cambodian cuisine. For those desiring additional activities, optional experiences include a Half-Day Tour to Chong Kneas Floating Village to witness unique lakeside communities, a Sunset Quad Excursion for an adventurous evening, or a Siem Reap Zipline Half Day adventure for an aerial perspective.

Whether you prefer cultural immersion, culinary delights, or adventurous pursuits, Siem Reap offers a variety of options to fill your day. The evening is open for you to enjoy the city's dining and entertainment scene, perhaps at the lively Pub Street.

Activities:
Enjoy a free day in Siem Reap
