TOUR OVERVIEW

Overview: Bach Ma National Park Expedition

This full-day tour invites you to explore the natural wonders of Bach Ma National Park, a significant protected area located less than an hour's drive from Hue. Established in 1991, the park spans over 22,000 hectares, safeguarding a vital forest corridor that extends from the South China Sea to the Laotian border. It's a haven for biodiversity and offers a challenging yet rewarding experience for nature enthusiasts.

Highlights of Your Journey

Panoramic views of Lang Co Beach and Phuc Loc Lagoon during the scenic drive.

Trekking through dense tropical evergreen forests, rich in biodiversity.

Navigating five beautiful cascading lakes, including sections requiring ropes on slippery rocks.

Conquering a 200-step ascent to reach the majestic Do Quyen Waterfall.

Admiring expansive views from the waterfall's summit, stretching to Hue and Lang Co Beach.

Experiencing the unique flora and fauna of central Vietnam's protected wilderness.

Your Route Through Nature

The journey begins with a convenient pickup from your hotel in Hue, followed by an hour-long drive along the National Road. As you approach Bach Ma, the winding mountain road reveals stunning vistas of the coastal landscape. Upon arrival at the Do Quyen Bach Ma Villa, your trekking adventure commences, leading you deep into the park's heart. The route focuses on a challenging loop that includes the famous Five Lakes and the impressive Do Quyen Waterfall, before returning to Hue in the late afternoon.

Who This Tour Suits

This expedition is ideal for active travelers and small private groups who enjoy strenuous hiking and are comfortable with challenging terrain. Participants should be prepared for a physically demanding day involving climbs, descents on slippery surfaces, and long periods of walking. It's perfect for those seeking an immersive nature experience away from the city's hustle.

Practical Information for Trekkers

Given the rigorous nature of the trek, it is essential to come prepared. Wear appropriate hiking shoes with good grip, and consider bringing a small backpack with water and snacks. A packed lunch is highly recommended to sustain your energy throughout the day's activities. The tour involves navigating steep and potentially slippery sections, so a good level of physical fitness is required.

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Trekking Expedition to Bach Ma National Park's Lakes and Waterfalls

Meals: Vietnamese lunch | Transport: Private car transfer

Your adventure begins at 7:00 AM with a convenient pickup from your hotel in Hue City. A private car will transport you on an approximately hour-long journey along the National Road towards Bach Ma National Park. As you approach the park, the road becomes winding, revealing spectacular panoramic views of the picturesque Lang Co Beach and the serene Phuc Loc Lagoon, offering a scenic prelude to your day of exploration.

Upon reaching the Do Quyen Bach Ma Villa, your guide will lead you into the heart of the tropical evergreen forest. The trek immediately becomes an immersive experience, guiding you through lush rainforest paths towards a series of five beautiful cascading lakes. Navigating this section involves a thrilling descent alongside waterfalls, requiring careful footing on slippery rocks and tree roots, with ropes provided for assistance. This challenging segment is designed to build an appetite, so a prepared lunch box is highly recommended.

After successfully traversing the five lakes, the journey continues with another kilometer of trekking through the dense forest. The next significant challenge awaits: a climb down and then up a hill featuring 200 steps, leading you to the magnificent Do Quyen (Rhododendron) Waterfall. From the top of the waterfall, you'll be rewarded with breathtaking views, allowing you to relax, breathe in the fresh mountain air, and admire the clouds, sky, and the impressive cascade below. The vista extends far to the north, offering glimpses of Hue, and to the south, revealing Lang Co Beach.

Following your time at the waterfall, you will begin your descent and return journey. The private car will be waiting to transfer you back to your hotel in Hue City, arriving around 6:00 PM, concluding a day filled with natural beauty and exhilarating physical activity.
