Day 2 Bangkok's Royal Heritage & River Life

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car, Long-tail boat

Your morning begins with a deep dive into Bangkok's most significant cultural and historical sites. The first stop is the magnificent Grand Palace, a revered symbol of Thailand's royal legacy and an architectural marvel. Within its expansive grounds, you'll discover Wat Phra Kaew, home to the sacred Emerald Buddha, alongside other stunning structures like the Golden Chedi and the Pantheon of the Chakri Kings. Each element within the palace complex offers a glimpse into the nation's rich past and artistic traditions.

Following this, proceed to Wat Pho, one of Bangkok's oldest and most important temples. This site is renowned not only for its impressive Reclining Buddha but also as the birthplace of traditional Thai massage. Here, you'll have the opportunity to experience a rejuvenating 30-minute traditional Thai massage, a perfect way to relax amidst your explorations. The temple's intricate murals and statues further enhance its historical significance.

In the afternoon, embark on a scenic journey aboard a traditional long-tail boat along the Chao Phraya River and through the historic Khlongs (canals) of Thonburi. This river cruise offers a unique perspective of Bangkok, showcasing riverside communities and traditional wooden houses that contrast sharply with the modern skyline. The boat tour includes a stop at Wat Arun, the iconic Temple of Dawn, famous for its elegant spires and riverside beauty. Conclude your day with a visit to Bangkok’s lively Flower and Vegetable Market, where a riot of colors and fragrances from orchids, fresh blooms, and handcrafted garlands provides a sensory delight, highlighting local customs and daily life.

Activities:
- Visit the Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew
- Explore Wat Pho and receive a traditional Thai massage
- Take a long-tail boat tour on the Chao Phraya River
- Stop at Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn)
- Browse the Bangkok Flower and Vegetable Market

Day 3 Ayutthaya Ancient Kingdom Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car

After breakfast, you will meet your guide and depart Bangkok for an enriching excursion to Ayutthaya, the former capital of the Kingdom of Siam and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Your journey begins with a visit to the elegant Bang Pa-In Summer Palace, a royal retreat showcasing a captivating blend of Thai, Chinese, and European architectural styles. This palace has served as a significant historical site for various royal functions and offers beautiful grounds for exploration.

Upon arrival in Ayutthaya, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant, preparing you for an afternoon filled with historical discoveries. The exploration of Ayutthaya's ancient city commences at Wat Phra Mahathat, one of the kingdom's most crucial royal temples. This site is particularly famous for the iconic Buddha head gracefully entwined within the roots of a banyan tree, a truly mesmerizing sight.

Next, you will visit Wat Mongkhon Bophit, which houses one of Thailand’s largest bronze seated Buddha images, serving as an important pilgrimage site for local Buddhists. The tour continues to Wat Phra Si Sanphet, the former royal temple of the Ayutthaya Kingdom, recognized for its three distinctive bell-shaped chedis that once enshrined the ashes of Siamese kings. Your historical exploration concludes at Wat Lokayasutharam, home to an impressive reclining Buddha statue, a striking and

Day 6 Banteay Srei & Tonle Sap Lake Experience

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Car, Boat

After breakfast, your morning excursion takes you through the picturesque Cambodian countryside to Banteay Srei, often referred to as the "Citadel of Women." This remarkable temple is celebrated as one of the finest examples of Khmer art, distinguished by its intricate pink sandstone carvings and exceptional craftsmanship that truly stands out among the Angkor temples. Following this, you will visit Banteay Samre, a well-preserved 12th-century temple complex that features a central sanctuary, elegant libraries, and impressive architectural details, reflecting the grandeur of the Angkor period. A delicious lunch will be provided at a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, you will transfer to Tonle Sap Lake, Southeast Asia's largest freshwater lake, situated approximately 16 kilometers from Siem Reap. Here, you will board a local boat for a cruise through a traditional floating village. This fascinating experience offers a unique glimpse into the daily lives and distinctive culture of communities whose homes, schools, and shops adapt to the lake's seasonal water level changes. It provides valuable insight into their unique way of life and dependence on the lake.

If time permits, your tour will include a stop at the Old Market (Psar Chas) in Siem Reap. This bustling market is an excellent place to browse for local handicrafts, exquisite silk products, unique jewelry, intricate wood carvings, and other traditional souvenirs. Afterward, you will return to your hotel in Siem Reap, with the remainder of the evening free for your relaxation and personal enjoyment.

Day 9 Lao Culinary Class & Kuang Si Falls

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Luang Prabang | Transport: Car

Your morning begins with an engaging, hands-on cooking experience at Tamarind Restaurant, one of Luang Prabang's most celebrated culinary establishments. The session commences with a guided visit to a bustling local food market, where you'll discover a variety of fresh ingredients, aromatic herbs, and traditional Lao produce. This market tour provides valuable insights into how these elements are integral to everyday Lao cooking and culture.

Returning to Tamarind Garden, you'll participate in a practical cooking session where you'll learn to prepare and enjoy signature Lao dishes. These often include traditional dipping sauces known as jeow, Mok Pa (herbed fish steamed in banana leaves), and other specialty dishes that highlight local herbs and distinctive flavors. Lunch will be served as part of your cooking experience, concluding around 14:30, allowing you to savor the fruits of your labor.

After a brief rest, the afternoon continues with a visit to the breathtaking Kuang Si waterfalls, one of Laos' most beautiful natural wonders. These multi-tiered falls cascade into stunning turquoise pools, surrounded by lush forest, creating a serene and picturesque setting perfect for walking, photography, or even a refreshing swim. Nearby, you will visit the Bear Rescue Centre, which provides a safe haven for rescued Asiatic black bears protected from illegal wildlife trade. On the return journey, make a stop at the Ock Pop Tok Living Craft Centre along the Mekong River. This cultural hub showcases traditional Lao textiles and weaving techniques through free demonstrations, offering insights into local craftsmanship. You will then return to your hotel in Luang Prabang for the evening.
