DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Siem Reap Arrival and Relaxation

Meals: NA | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Upon your arrival in Siem Reap, the vibrant gateway to Cambodia's ancient wonders, you will be warmly welcomed by a local guide at the airport. After a comfortable transfer, you'll check into your hotel, ready to begin your Cambodian adventure. The remainder of the day is yours to leisurely settle in and recover from your travels. You might choose to unwind by the hotel pool, enjoy a refreshing drink in the tropical garden, or simply relax in the tranquility of your room, preparing for the exciting days ahead.

Activities: Arrive at Siem Reap International Airport; Receive airport transfer to hotel; Complete hotel check-in; Enjoy leisure time to relax.

Day 2 — Exploring Angkor Thom and the Iconic Angkor Wat

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Your journey into the heart of the ancient Khmer Empire begins this morning with an exploration of Angkor Thom, a magnificent walled city that served as the capital. Entering through the impressive South Gate, flanked by towering stone faces, you'll immediately sense the grandeur of this historic site. Inside, the captivating Bayon Temple awaits, famous for its over 200 enigmatic smiling visages carved into its many towers. The intricate bas-reliefs here depict tales of daily life, battles, and mythological figures, offering a vivid window into Khmer civilization.

Next, you'll visit the dramatic Elephant Terrace, a royal viewing platform once used for grand public ceremonies, and the nearby Terrace of the Leper King, with its mysterious carvings and hidden passages. The adventure continues to Ta Prohm, a temple famously embraced by massive tree roots, creating an ethereal atmosphere where nature and ancient architecture intertwine in a breathtaking display. This site provides a poignant reminder of nature's reclaiming power.

The afternoon is dedicated to the crown jewel of Khmer architecture: Angkor Wat. This colossal 12th-century temple, the largest religious monument globally, captivates with its soaring towers and expansive moat. You'll wander through its galleries, adorned with detailed bas-reliefs illustrating Hindu epics, and marvel at its symmetrical design, symbolizing Mount Meru. As the day concludes, the golden light of the late afternoon casts a magical glow over the temple, leaving you with lasting impressions of ancient devotion and architectural genius before returning to your hotel.

Activities: Enter Angkor Thom via the South Gate; Explore Bayon Temple; Walk along the Elephant Terrace; Visit the Terrace of the Leper King; Discover the jungle-embraced Ta Prohm temple; Tour the iconic Angkor Wat; Return to hotel.

Day 3 Banteay Srei Temple and Tonlé Sap Sunset Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Following breakfast at your hotel, you'll embark on a picturesque 35-kilometer drive northeast to Banteay Srei Temple. Known as the “Citadel of Women,” this 10th-century masterpiece is celebrated for its exquisite pink sandstone and remarkably intricate carvings, depicting Hindu myths and delicate floral patterns. Its smaller scale allows for a closer appreciation of the ancient artisans' exceptional skill. On your return journey to Siem Reap, a meaningful stop at Pradark Village offers a glimpse into rural Cambodian life, where villagers traditionally produce palm sugar using methods passed down through generations, providing insight into local culture and livelihoods. You will have some free time at your hotel before the afternoon's activities.

In the afternoon, you will be picked up for an unforgettable journey to Kompong Phluk, a unique community of floating and stilted villages on Tonlé Sap Lake. Boarding a traditional flat-bottomed boat, your local guide will lead you through these picturesque communities. You’ll visit a local township, including a monastic school, gaining firsthand insight into the spiritual and daily life of the villagers. Depending on water levels, you might enjoy a rowboat tour through the enchanting flooded forest or a peaceful walk, offering a close-up encounter with this ecological marvel.

After exploring the village and forest, you'll transfer to a long-tail boat for a scenic crossing to the majestic Queen Tara, the largest riverboat on Tonlé Sap Lake. Onboard, indulge in a lavish buffet dinner accompanied by complimentary drinks, including Champagne, Australian wines, beers, cocktails, and soft drinks. As the sun dips below the horizon, casting vibrant hues across the lake, you can relax in a hammock or enjoy panoramic views from the top deck. The evening concludes with a tranquil cruise back through the floating village, returning you to your Siem Reap hotel by approximately 19:30.

Activities: Visit Banteay Srei Temple; Observe palm sugar production in Pradark Village; Embark on a sunset cruise to Kompong Phluk; Explore floating and stilted villages; Tour a monastic school; Experience the flooded forest (seasonal); Enjoy a buffet dinner on Queen Tara; Return to Siem Reap.

Day 4 Scenic Transfer to Phnom Penh

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Phnom Penh

Today, you will depart from the serene landscapes of Siem Reap and embark on a picturesque road journey to Phnom Penh, Cambodia's bustling capital city. This transfer offers a wonderful opportunity to observe the changing scenery, from tranquil rice paddies and charming rural towns to lively roadside markets. You will be comfortably transferred directly to your hotel, situated in the heart of the city.

Upon arrival and check-in, the rest of your day is free for you to relax and unwind. Whether you choose to settle into the comfort of your room or take a gentle stroll to explore the immediate vicinity of your accommodation, the evening is designed for you to prepare for your upcoming adventures in the vibrant capital.

Activities: Enjoy breakfast at the hotel; Undertake a scenic road transfer to Phnom Penh; Complete hotel check-in; Spend the rest of the day at leisure.

Day 5 Phnom Penh's Royal Heritage and Poignant History

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Phnom Penh

Your day of discovery in Cambodia's capital begins with your local guide meeting you at your hotel for an immersive city tour. The first stop is the iconic Victory Monument, a powerful symbol of Cambodia's independence from French colonial rule, standing tall with elegant Khmer-inspired motifs. Next, you will delve into the rich cultural heritage at the National Museum, a masterpiece of traditional architecture built in 1917. Inside, marvel at centuries-old sculptures, intricate carvings, and sacred relics that narrate Cambodia's artistic and spiritual journey. Continue to the resplendent Royal Palace, an opulent complex built in 1866 that remains the royal residence, its golden roofs gleaming under the sun.

Adjacent to the palace, you will enter the Silver Pagoda, home to the sacred Emerald Buddha and a breathtaking solid gold Buddha statue adorned with nearly 10,000 diamonds, showcasing the kingdom's devotion. The afternoon shifts to a more somber reflection on Cambodia's recent past at the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum. Once a high school, this haunting site became S-21, a notorious Khmer Rouge prison. The preserved classrooms, now filled with photographs and personal stories, offer a deeply moving insight into the tragedies of that dark period. A short drive then brings you to the Killing Fields of Choeung Ek, a serene rural memorial where thousands of victims were laid to rest. Walking through the grounds, you will feel the weight of history and the enduring call for remembrance and peace.

The mood lightens as you arrive at the lively Russian Market (Psah Tuol Tom Pong), a vibrant maze of stalls offering everything from local handicrafts and silk scarves to vintage treasures and delicious street food. This is an excellent opportunity to practice your bargaining skills and experience everyday Cambodian commerce. Your final stop is the iconic Central Market, housed beneath a colossal yellow Art Deco dome. Here, you can soak up the golden hues of the evening light reflecting off the market's bold architecture, observing locals and vendors in their end-of-day routines, a perfect conclusion to a day filled with both reverence and discovery.

Activities: Visit Victory Monument; Explore the National Museum; Tour the Royal Palace complex; See the Silver Pagoda; Reflect at Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum; Visit the Killing Fields of Choeung Ek; Browse Russian Market; Explore Central Market.

Day 6 Evening Tuk-Tuk and Phnom Penh Street Food Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Phnom Penh

As evening descends, you'll meet your local guide and tuk-tuk driver at your hotel for a fun and flavorful exploration of Phnom Penh's vibrant nightlife and authentic Khmer cuisine. Before reaching your culinary destination, enjoy a scenic city ride, passing some of Phnom Penh's most iconic landmarks. You'll begin at Wat Phnom, the historic heart of the city, then cruise along the picturesque riverfront road, passing Tonle Chak Toumouk. Photo opportunities await at the majestic Royal Palace and the impressive Independence Monument, allowing you to capture the city's illuminated beauty.

Your journey then leads you into the bustling Toul Tom Poung Night Market, a popular local hotspot renowned for its incredible array of street food. Here, you'll dive into Phnom Penh's lively street food culture, discovering a wide variety of local dishes. You might find fried noodles, noodle soups, fresh seafood BBQ, and savory grilled meat skewers. Don't miss Cambodian favorites like grilled marinated beef skewers (Sach Ko Aing) served with baguette, or the adventurous baby duck eggs (Pong Tea Kon). You'll enjoy your chosen dishes with one complimentary drink, either a local beer or a fresh fruit smoothie, based on your preference.

After this delicious and culturally rich experience, your tuk-tuk will comfortably return you to your hotel by 20:00, leaving you with a full belly and wonderful memories of Phnom Penh's flavorful street life. Please note that the specific dishes available may vary by season, ensuring a fresh and authentic experience.

Activities: Evening tuk-tuk city tour; Observe Wat Phnom; Cruise riverfront; View Royal Palace and Independence Monument; Explore Toul Tom Poung Night Market; Sample local street food; Enjoy a complimentary drink; Return to hotel.

Day 7 Flight to Luang Prabang via Bangkok

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Luang Prabang

Today begins with breakfast at your Phnom Penh hotel as you prepare for your onward journey to Luang Prabang, Laos. Since there are no direct flights connecting these two cities, your route will include a transit stop in Bangkok, Thailand. You will be transferred to Phnom Penh International Airport for your initial flight.

Upon arrival in Bangkok, you will navigate the transit process before catching your connecting flight to Luang Prabang International Airport. After landing in Luang Prabang, a transfer will be waiting to take you directly to your hotel in the city center, where you can check in and settle comfortably. The evening is then free for you to enjoy at your own pace, perhaps with a relaxed dinner along the serene Mekong River or by exploring the vibrant Luang Prabang night market independently.

Activities: Enjoy breakfast; Transfer to Phnom Penh airport; Fly from Phnom Penh to Luang Prabang (via Bangkok); Receive airport transfer to hotel in Luang Prabang; Complete hotel check-in; Enjoy leisure time.

Day 8 Mekong River Cruise to Pak Ou Caves and City Temples

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Luang Prabang

After breakfast, your day of exploration in Luang Prabang commences with a visit to the Royal Palace Museum. Originally constructed in 1904 during the French colonial era for King Sisavang Vong and his family, this beautifully preserved site offers a captivating glimpse into Laos' royal heritage and history. Following this, you will embark on a tranquil cruise upstream on the Mekong River, enjoying breathtaking views of the peaceful countryside as you journey towards a sacred destination.

Your river cruise leads you to the revered Pak Ou Caves, two interconnected caves nestled in a towering limestone cliff. These spiritual sanctuaries are filled with thousands of gold-lacquered Buddha statues of various shapes and sizes, placed there by pilgrims over many centuries. En route, a stop at the riverside village of Ban Xanghai provides an opportunity to learn about traditional Lao rice wine production and, if you wish, sample the local specialty. Upon returning to Luang Prabang, your cultural immersion continues with visits to significant temples.

You will first visit Wat Sene, recognized as the oldest temple in town, before proceeding to the magnificent Wat Xiengthong. This temple stands as a classic example of Lao temple architecture, notable for its sweeping two-tiered roof and intricate mosaic work, including the famous “Tree of Life” glass montage on its rear wall. Continuing your journey through local heritage, you'll visit Heuan Chan Heritage House, a meticulously restored 19th-century aristocratic residence. Here, engaging exhibitions and a cultural documentary provide insight into traditional Lao ceremonies, textiles, and daily life. Conclude your visit with a cup of authentic Lao coffee or tea in the tranquil garden. In the late afternoon, make a stop at Wat Prabath, a hilltop location offering perfect panoramic views for admiring a stunning sunset over Luang Prabang. Your day culminates with a stroll through the vibrant Luang Prabang Night Market, where you can browse a wide variety of handmade textiles, crafts, and local souvenirs created by nearby hilltribe communities.

Activities: Visit the Royal Palace Museum; Embark on a Mekong River cruise; Explore the sacred Pak Ou Caves; Stop at Ban Xanghai village for rice wine production; Visit Wat Sene; Discover Wat Xiengthong; Tour Heuan Chan Heritage House; Enjoy sunset views from Wat Prabath; Browse the Luang Prabang Night Market.

Day 9 Alms Giving, Mount Phousi, and Kuang Si Waterfalls

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Luang Prabang

Rise early with the sun to participate in Laos’ most sacred tradition: the morning alms-giving ceremony. Dating back to the 14th century, this spiritual ritual sees over 200 saffron-robed monks silently walking the streets to receive offerings from the faithful. It is a profoundly serene and humbling experience, offering a unique window into the soul of Lao Buddhism. Afterward, you'll explore the vibrant morning market near the former Royal Palace, a lively hub brimming with local vendors selling fresh produce, handmade crafts, and colorful textiles, providing a firsthand glimpse into daily life.

Following breakfast at your hotel, you will set out again to ascend 329 steps to the summit of Mount Phousi. From this hilltop vantage point, you'll be rewarded with breathtaking panoramic views of the city and the surrounding rivers and mountains, offering a perfect spot for photography and quiet reflection. Your next stop is the Traditional Arts & Ethnology Center (TAEC), where a 60-minute presentation titled "Ethnic Diversity and Cultural Change in Laos" provides a fascinating overview of the country’s diverse ethnic groups, their traditional crafts, daily life, and customs, enriched by authentic photos, artifacts, and expert storytelling.

Leaving the city behind, you will venture into the lush countryside to discover the breathtaking Kuang Si Waterfalls. Here, you can admire the stunning multi-tiered cascades, take a refreshing swim in the inviting turquoise pools, or enjoy a peaceful walk along shaded forest trails. Before departing Kuang Si, you have the option to visit the Bear Rescue Center, a sanctuary for Asiatic black bears rescued from the illegal wildlife trade, offering an educational and heartwarming look at conservation efforts.

On your return to town, enjoy a peaceful stop at the Ock Pop Tok Living Craft Center, situated by the Mekong River. Learn about traditional Lao weaving techniques, meet skilled artisans, and listen to a complimentary audio guide that shares the cultural significance of textiles in Laos. You will be transferred back to your hotel in the late afternoon.

Activities: Participate in morning alms giving ceremony; Explore local morning market; Ascend Mount Phousi for panoramic views; Visit Traditional Arts & Ethnology Center (TAEC); Discover Kuang Si Waterfalls; Swim in turquoise pools; Visit Bear Rescue Center (optional); Learn about weaving at Ock Pop Tok Living Craft Center; Return to hotel.

Day 10 Rural Immersion and Muang Soune Homestay Experience

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Muang Soune Homestay

Today, you will embark on a scenic countryside drive from Luang Prabang to a peaceful village nestled along the riverbanks, beginning your authentic homestay experience. En route, you'll stop at a local market to pick up fresh, seasonal ingredients, offering an authentic glimpse into daily life and local flavors. By noon, you will arrive at the village and cross the river by local ferry or pirogue, where your host family will extend a warm welcome with smiles and traditional greetings. You'll share a delicious traditional Lao lunch with your hosts, a perfect introduction to village hospitality and home-cooked flavors.

The afternoon offers a chance to relax and soak in the tranquil surroundings. You can choose to rest or take a leisurely stroll around the village. Dive deeper into village life with a range of cultural experiences: visit the local school to meet students and teachers (subject to school hours), interact with artisans and weavers, and observe traditional textile-making techniques. For a special memento, you can even order a custom-made Lao outfit from local tailors. Refresh yourself with a cool river bath or a traditional shower at the house, a relaxing ritual after a fulfilling day.

As evening approaches, join your host, Kham, in preparing a hearty Lao-style dinner. If you prefer to unwind, enjoy a Beer Lao or local rice wine with your hosts while soaking in the village atmosphere. Gather around the dinner table for a traditional home-cooked Lao meal, rich in flavor and stories, typically between 19:30 and 21:00. Wind down the evening with a friendly game of cards, a favorite pastime among the villagers – don't be surprised if they play to win! You will spend the night with your host family in a simple, comfortable village home, truly immersing yourself in Lao village life.

Activities: Scenic drive to Muang Soune village; Visit local market for ingredients; Cross river by ferry/pirogue; Enjoy traditional Lao lunch with host family; Visit local school (seasonal); Interact with artisans/weavers; Take a river bath/traditional shower; Assist with dinner preparation; Share home-cooked Lao dinner; Play card games with villagers; Overnight homestay.

Day 11 Morning Rituals and Return to Luang Prabang

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Luang Prabang

Wake early between 5:00 and 6:00 AM to join your hosts in preparing sticky rice, the traditional offering for monks during the daily almsgiving ritual. You will then participate in this sacred ceremony at the local temple, offering food to Buddhist monks and experiencing one of Laos' most revered spiritual traditions firsthand. Afterward, return home to enjoy a hearty Lao breakfast, prepared with local ingredients and served in the comfort of your host's home, providing a genuine taste of village life.

From 8:00 to 10:00 AM, accompany Kham and her uncle for a traditional fishing trip on the Ou River. Here, you'll learn age-old

Lao fishing techniques passed down through generations, gaining insight into local livelihoods. Following this, set off on a leisurely hike to the nearby rice fields, observing the daily routines of local farmers. Along the way, you'll visit organic home gardens, learning about seasonal crops, sustainable practices, and the rural way of life that sustains these communities. Enjoy a well-earned home-cooked lunch with the host family, featuring fresh ingredients harvested directly from the land and river. Take some time to explore the village at your own pace—visit local shops, chat with villagers, or pick up a few handcrafted souvenirs as keepsakes from your stay. Finally, cross the river one last time via local boat and begin your scenic return journey to Luang Prabang. By approximately 17:00, you will arrive back at your hotel, enriched with a deeper understanding of Lao village life, cherished memories, and meaningful connections, marking a perfect end to your authentic homestay experience.

Activities: Prepare sticky rice for almsgiving; Participate in local alms-giving ceremony; Enjoy Lao breakfast; Go fishing on Ou River; Hike to rice fields; Visit organic home gardens; Share home-cooked lunch with host family; Explore village at leisure; Return transfer to Luang Prabang.

Day 12 Farewell from Luang Prabang

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: NA

As your unforgettable journey through Indochina draws to a close, take a quiet moment to absorb the peaceful rhythm of Luang Prabang. The town's spiritual energy and gentle charm, with saffron-robed monks wandering ancient streets and golden stupas gleaming under the morning light, will undoubtedly linger with you long after you depart. Depending on your flight schedule, you may have some free time for a final stroll through the charming old quarter or to savor a last sip of Laotian coffee along the Mekong River, watching boats drift lazily across the water.

Our dedicated team will then provide a comfortable transfer to Luang Prabang International Airport, ensuring a smooth departure. You will leave with a heart full of cherished memories of vibrant cultures, timeless landscapes, and the warm hospitality of Southeast Asia. We wish you safe travels and hope to welcome you back for another adventure soon!

Activities: Enjoy free time in Luang Prabang; Take a final stroll or enjoy coffee; Receive airport transfer to Luang Prabang International Airport; Depart from Luang Prabang.
