Grand Vietnam & Cambodia Journey: Temples, Bays & Beaches – 20 Days

20D / 19N	Easy	Private	USD 1,960 / pax
Duration	Difficulty	Tour Type	Starting From

Meals: B,L | Stay: Anatole Hotel | Transport: Private vehicle, Cyclo

Today is dedicated to discovering Hanoi's most significant cultural and historical sites. The morning begins with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Complex, which includes the mausoleum where Ho Chi Minh rests, his traditional stilt house, and the Presidential Palace grounds. Nearby, you'll also see the iconic One Pillar Pagoda, a unique architectural marvel.
The tour continues to the tranquil Lake of the Restored Sword (Hoan Kiem Lake) and its picturesque Ngoc Son Temple, accessible via a charming red bridge. You'll then explore the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university, a serene complex of courtyards and pavilions. A drive past the peaceful West Lake, with its scenic Thanh Nien road, leads to the ancient Tran Quoc Pagoda, offering insights into Buddhist heritage.
In the afternoon, experience the bustling Old Quarter from a unique perspective with a one-hour cyclo tour. This allows you to absorb the sights, sounds, and smells of the narrow streets, observing daily life and traditional commerce. The day concludes with a captivating water puppet show, a traditional Vietnamese art form that brings folklore to life on a water stage.

Day 3 Ninh Binh's Ancient Capital & Scenic Waterways

Meals: B,L | Stay: Emeralda Tam Coc Resort | Transport: Private car, Private boat

An early start sees you departing Hanoi at 8:00 AM for a journey to Ninh Binh, a region renowned for its dramatic limestone karsts and historical significance. Your first stop is Hoa Lu Old Citadel, the ancient capital of Vietnam in the 10th century. Here, you'll explore the temples dedicated to King Dinh and King Le, learning about their heroic roles in defending the nation against Chinese invasions.
Following this historical immersion, your guide will lead you to Tuyet Tinh Coc, a hidden gem featuring a serene lake nestled amongst towering mountains. This tranquil spot was once the retreat of Queen Duong Van Nga, who built Am Tien Pagoda here. You can walk around the lake, visit the pagoda, and enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding mountains and lush jungle. The peaceful atmosphere offers a stark contrast to the historical intensity of Hoa Lu.
After a car transfer to Tam Coc for lunch, prepare for a captivating boat trip through the "Dry Ha Long Bay" from 1:30 PM to 4:00 PM. This scenic journey takes you through three natural caves, offering stunning views of rice paddies and limestone formations. After the boat trip, you'll have free time to explore the local village, perhaps enjoying a drink and observing daily life in this picturesque rural setting before settling in for the night.

Day 5 Ha Long Bay Exploration & Return to Hanoi

Meals: B,L | Stay: Anatole Hotel | Transport: Cruise ship, Private vehicle

Wake up to the serene beauty of Ha Long Bay as the sun rises over the limestone karsts. This morning, your cruise continues its exploration of the bay's more secluded areas. Depending on the cruise itinerary, you may have further opportunities for swimming in the calm, emerald waters or kayaking to discover hidden coves and grottoes that are inaccessible to larger vessels.
Enjoy a leisurely breakfast onboard as the boat slowly makes its way back towards the main harbor. Around midday, the cruise will dock, and you will disembark. An awaiting vehicle will then transfer you directly back to Hanoi. The scenic drive provides a chance to reflect on the stunning natural wonders you've experienced.
Upon arrival in Hanoi in the late afternoon, you will check back into your hotel. The evening is free for you to relax, perhaps enjoy a final Vietnamese dinner, or explore more of Hanoi at your own pace after the tranquil bay experience.

Day 6 Flight to Hue & Imperial City Exploration

Meals: B,L | Stay: Eldora Hotel Hue | Transport: Flight, Private boat, Private vehicle

This morning, you will transfer to Hanoi airport for a one-hour flight south to Hue, the former imperial capital of Vietnam. Upon arrival in Hue, you will be met and transferred to a private boat for a relaxing cruise along the romantic Perfume River. This journey takes you into the countryside, offering picturesque views and a sense of tranquility.
Hue is rich with history, particularly its imperial past, and the day's itinerary includes visits to some of the ancient tombs of past emperors. Your first stop on the river cruise will be the charming Thien Mu Pagoda, also known as the Lady Pagoda. This iconic seven-story pagoda is beautifully situated at the convergence of rivers, providing excellent photo opportunities and a peaceful atmosphere overlooking the Perfume River and its surroundings.
In the afternoon, delve into the heart of Hue City with a comprehensive tour. This includes exploring the grand Imperial Citadel, a UNESCO World Heritage site that once housed the Nguyen Dynasty emperors. Within the Citadel, you'll visit the Forbidden Purple City, the Imperial Museum, and gain insights into royal life. The day concludes with a visit to the bustling Dong Ba market, where you can observe local commerce and perhaps find unique souvenirs before returning to your hotel for the night.

Day 7 Hue to Hoi An via Hai Van Pass

Meals: B | Stay: Legacy Hotel | Transport: Private vehicle

Enjoy a leisurely morning in Hue, with free time to relax or explore any areas of the city you might wish to revisit. You could take a final stroll along the Perfume River, or simply enjoy a quiet breakfast at your hotel.
In the afternoon, you will embark on a scenic drive south towards the charming ancient town of Hoi An. The route takes you via Da Nang, offering breathtaking coastal views. A notable stop along the way is the wonderfully photogenic fishing village of Lang Co, known for its pristine beach and tranquil lagoon. This provides a perfect opportunity for some memorable photographs.
The journey continues with a spectacular climb over the Hai Van Pass, also known as the Pass of Ocean Clouds. This winding mountain road offers panoramic vistas of the coastline, the East Sea, and the surrounding mountains, making it one of Vietnam's most iconic drives. Upon arrival in Hoi An in the late afternoon, you will check into your hotel, ready to discover this enchanting town.

Activities: ,null,

Day 8 My Son Sanctuary & Hoi An Ancient Town

Meals: B,L | Stay: Legacy Hotel | Transport: Private vehicle

The morning begins with a drive to My Son Sanctuary, a UNESCO World Heritage site located approximately 40 kilometers southwest of Hoi An. This historical site was once the religious and political center of the Cham people, who ruled over Central Vietnam for centuries. You'll explore the remaining red brick towers and sanctuaries, which date from the 7th to the 13th centuries, marveling at their intricate carvings and architectural style.
My Son is considered a significant archaeological site in Southeast Asia, comparable to others like Angkor in Cambodia or Bagan in Myanmar, offering a deep dive into the ancient Cham civilization. After a fascinating exploration of the ruins, you will return to Hoi An for a delicious lunch at a local restaurant, sampling regional specialties.
The afternoon is dedicated to discovering the tranquility and charm of Hoi An Ancient Town. This beautifully preserved trading port is characterized by its low-tiled houses with Chinese influences, the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, and brightly painted temples and pagodas. A walking tour allows you to soak in the unique atmosphere, explore narrow alleys, and admire the fusion of architectural styles that make Hoi An such a delightful destination. You will spend the night in Hoi An, enjoying its evening ambiance.

Day 10 Flight to Ho Chi Minh City & Cu Chi Tunnels

Meals: B,L | Stay: Au Lac Charner Hotel | Transport: Private vehicle, Flight

After breakfast, you will be transferred to Da Nang airport for a short flight to Ho Chi Minh City, formerly known as Saigon. Upon arrival at Tan Son Nhat International Airport (SGN), you will be met and driven directly to the Cu Chi Tunnels, a significant historical site located outside the city.
The Cu Chi Tunnels are an intricate underground network built by the Viet Cong during the American War. This extensive system stretched from the Cambodian border all the way to the Saigon River, serving as living quarters, supply routes, hospitals, and command centers. During your visit, you will have the unique opportunity to crawl through a section of the tunnels, experiencing firsthand the challenging conditions in which the Viet Cong soldiers lived and fought. Informative displays and guides will provide context about the ingenuity and resilience of those who used them.
After exploring the tunnels, you will return to the city center of Ho Chi Minh City. The afternoon includes visits to several key landmarks, such as the Reunification Palace, the former residence of the President of South Vietnam. Nearby, you'll also see the historic Central Post Office, a beautiful example of French colonial architecture, and the Notre Dame Cathedral, a striking red-brick church. The day concludes with check-in at your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City.

Day 11 Mekong Delta River Life Excursion

Meals: B,L | Stay: Au Lac Charner Hotel | Transport: Private vehicle, Private boat

Today, you will leave the bustling Ho Chi Minh City for a full-day excursion to the lush landscapes of the Mekong Delta. Your destination is My Tho, a provincial capital known as the gateway to the delta. Upon arrival, you will board a private boat to cruise through the verdant canals, offering a glimpse into the daily life of the local communities who depend on the river.
The boat trip will take you to a local orchard, where you can enjoy fresh tropical fruits. A delicious lunch will be served at a local restaurant nestled in the heart of the Mekong, providing an authentic taste of regional cuisine. This experience allows you to connect with the local culture and appreciate the agricultural richness of the delta.
Before heading back to Ho Chi Minh City, you will visit the Dong Tam snake farm. This facility breeds various types of snakes, including those used for traditional snake wine. It offers an interesting, albeit unusual, insight into local practices and wildlife.
After a day of exploring the waterways and experiencing rural life, you will return to Ho Chi Minh City for your overnight stay.

Day 12 Ho Chi Minh City to Mui Ne Beach Resort

Meals: B | Stay: Seahorse Resort | Transport: Private vehicle

After enjoying breakfast at your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, you will embark on a transfer to the coastal town of Mui Ne. The journey typically takes about 2.5 hours via the highway, offering a comfortable ride as you head towards Vietnam's beautiful southern coast.

Upon arrival in Mui Ne, you will check into your chosen beach resort. The remainder of the day is dedicated to leisure, allowing you to settle in and immediately begin enjoying the resort's amenities and the tranquil beach environment. Mui Ne is famous for its long, sandy beaches and unique natural landscapes.

This is a perfect opportunity to relax by the pool, take a stroll along the shore, or simply unwind in the comfort of your resort. Mui Ne offers a refreshing change of pace after the bustling cities and cultural explorations, providing a chance for pure relaxation by the sea. If Mui Ne is not your preferred beach destination, alternative options like Phu Quoc, Nha Trang, or Quy Nhon can be arranged upon request.

Day 13 Mui Ne Beach Leisure

Meals: B | Stay: Seahorse Resort

Today is a full day dedicated to leisure at Mui Ne Beach. With no scheduled activities, you have complete freedom to enjoy the coastal environment and your resort's offerings at your own pace. Mui Ne is well-known for its consistent winds, making it a popular spot for kitesurfing and windsurfing, though participation in such activities is optional and at your own expense.

You might choose to spend your time relaxing on the sandy shores, swimming in the ocean, or simply soaking up the sun by the resort's pool. For those interested in local sights, the area is famous for its surreal red and white sand dunes, which can be explored independently or with local transport. The Fairy Stream, a gentle stream winding through colorful sand formations, also offers a pleasant walk.

The day provides a perfect opportunity to recharge and enjoy the laid-back atmosphere of a Vietnamese beach town. Indulge in fresh seafood, enjoy a spa treatment, or simply enjoy the tranquility before continuing your journey.

Day 18 Angkor Wat, Ta Prohm & Banteay Srei Sunset

Meals: B,L | Stay: Borei Angkor Resort & Spa | Transport: Private vehicle

Today is dedicated to exploring some of the most iconic temples of the Angkor Archaeological Park. The morning begins with a visit to Ta Prohm, famously known as the "Tomb Raider" temple, where giant tree roots intertwine with ancient stone structures, creating a mystical and atmospheric scene. This temple offers a captivating glimpse into nature's reclamation of ancient ruins.

Next, you will proceed to the magnificent Angkor Wat, the largest religious monument in the world and a UNESCO World Heritage site. A guided tour will take you through this immense structure, revealing its intricate bas-reliefs, towering spires, and historical significance as a symbol of the Khmer Kingdom's grandeur. You will learn about the Hindu mythology depicted in its carvings and the architectural genius behind its construction.

In the afternoon, the tour heads to Banteay Srei, often called the "Citadel of the Women" due to its remarkably intricate and delicate pink sandstone carvings. This smaller temple is renowned for its exceptional artistry. On your return journey to Siem Reap, you will stop at the pyramid-shaped temple of Pre Rup, where you can enjoy a breathtaking sunset view over the surrounding jungle and ancient structures, providing a perfect end to a day of historical discovery.
