Day 3 Ninh Binh Ancient Capital & Tam Coc Boat Ride

Meals: B, L | Stay: Hidden Charm Hotel & Resort Ninh Binh | Transport: Private vehicle, bicycle (optional), boat

Today, you'll depart Hanoi by private vehicle for a two-hour drive south to Ninh Binh province. Your first stop is Hoa Lu, the ancient capital of Vietnam from 968 AD to 1010 AD. Here, you'll explore the Dinh Temple and Le Temple, 17th-century structures dedicated to the revered Dinh and Le Kings, offering a glimpse into Vietnam's early dynastic history amidst a scenic backdrop.

Next, you'll have the option to embark on an 18-kilometer bicycle ride to Tam Coc, enjoying the tranquil rural scenery and stopping for photographs along the way. Alternatively, a bus transfer is available if you prefer not to cycle. Upon arrival in Tam Coc, you'll check into your hotel before enjoying lunch at a local restaurant.

The highlight of the afternoon is a two-hour boat trip through Tam Coc, often referred to as the 'Inland Halong Bay'. This serene journey takes you along a river winding through peaceful rice fields, flanked by dramatic limestone formations, and into several grottoes. After returning to the harbor, you'll have free time to visit Hang Mua (Dragon Mountain) independently or stroll through the village to observe local life.

Day 5 Halong Bay Tai Chi & Return to Hanoi

Meals: B, L | Stay: Palago Boutique Hotel Hanoi | Transport: Cruise ship, tender boat, private vehicle

Begin your day on board with an invigorating Tai Chi session on the sundeck, combining deep breathing with gentle movements as the sun rises over Ha Long Bay. Afterward, a light breakfast of coffee, tea, and pastries will be served in the dining room, offering splendid morning views of the bay's landscape.
Later, a tender boat will transfer you to Sung Sot Cave (Surprise Cave), one of the largest and most impressive caves in Ha Long Bay. You'll ascend approximately 100 steps to the entrance and spend about 45 minutes exploring its magnificent stalactites and stalagmites. Comfortable shoes are highly recommended for this excursion. After your cave visit, you'll return to the cruise ship by tender.
Back on board, you'll check out from your cabin and settle any outstanding bills. A buffet brunch will be served as the cruise makes its way back to Tuan Chau Wharf. Enjoy the scenic views from the sundeck or dining room during the return journey.
Upon disembarking at Tuan Chau Wharf, you'll bid farewell to the crew before a private transfer takes you back to your hotel in Hanoi, arriving around 3:00 PM.

Day 6 Flight to Hue & Rural Lagoon Discovery

Meals: B, L | Stay: Eldora Hotel Hue | Transport: Private transfer, domestic flight, bus, motorized sampan

Following breakfast at your Hanoi hotel, you will be transferred to the airport for a morning flight to Hue. Upon arrival in Hue, your tour guide will meet you and facilitate your transfer to the hotel for check-in. The morning is then free for you to relax or explore at your leisure.

In the afternoon, a bus transfer will take you to Thanh Toan village. Here, you'll visit the ancient, roof-tiled Thanh Toan bridge, a historic 18th-century structure, and have the opportunity to interact with the friendly local community. After a short break to explore the village surroundings, the journey continues to Chuon Lagoon, a historic village with over 600 years of heritage.

At Chuon Lagoon, you'll visit the village temple, recognized as a national relic, which showcases the distinctive architectural style of the Nguyen Dynasty. The experience culminates with boarding a small motorized sampan for a cruise around the tranquil waters of the lagoon. During this serene boat trip, you'll have the chance to observe and even practice traditional fishing techniques, gaining insight into the daily lives of local fishermen, before returning to your hotel in the early evening.

Activities:
- Transfer to Hanoi airport
- Fly to Hue
- Transfer to Hue hotel and check-in
- Visit Thanh Toan village and its ancient bridge
- Explore Chuon Lagoon village and its temple
- Cruise Chuon Lagoon on a sampan
- Learn traditional fishing skills

Day 7 Hue Imperial City & Royal Tombs Tour

Meals: B, L | Stay: Eldora Hotel Hue | Transport: Private vehicle, Dragon boat, Cyclo

Your day in Hue begins with a visit to Dong Ba Market, where you can observe the vibrant daily commerce and local life. Following this, you'll embark on a serene Dragon boat trip along the Perfume River, leading you to the Thien Mu Pagoda, the oldest pagoda in Hue and a significant spiritual landmark. The morning concludes with an exploration of the Hue Imperial Citadel, the former home of Vietnam’s last royal dynasty, the Nguyen Dynasty, offering a deep dive into imperial history and architecture.

After lunch at a local restaurant, the afternoon is dedicated to visiting the magnificent royal tombs. First, you'll discover Khai Dinh King’s Tomb, an architectural marvel that blends Western and Eastern design elements, showcasing intricate details and grandeur. Next, you'll visit Minh Mang King’s Tomb, admired for its majestic scale and harmonious symmetry, set within a beautifully landscaped complex.

The day's sightseeing concludes with a leisurely cyclo ride around Hue City, providing a charming perspective of the urban landscape before you are transferred back to your hotel in the late afternoon.

Activities:
- Visit Dong Ba Market
- Take a Dragon boat trip on Huong River
- Explore Thien Mu Pagoda

Day 9 My Son Sanctuary & Coconut Forest Basket Boat

Meals: B, L | Stay: Lasenta Boutique Hotel Hoi An | Transport: Private vehicle, basket boat

Your day begins with a morning drive southwest of Hoi An to My Son Sanctuary, a UNESCO World Heritage site located approximately 40 kilometers away. Set within a lush valley, My Son was once a significant capital and religious center for the Cham people. Here, you'll explore the impressive remains of red brick towers and sanctuaries, which date from the 7th to the 13th centuries, offering a profound insight into the ancient Cham civilization. My Son is recognized as one of Southeast Asia's most important archaeological sites.
After your exploration of My Son, you'll return to Hoi An for lunch. The afternoon features a visit to Cam Thanh village. Upon arrival, you'll visit a local family known for their traditional fish sauce production, learning about this age-old craft. You'll also admire the unique architecture of countryside houses, often constructed from coconut characteristics, and witness artisans creating furniture from water coconut and bamboo.
The journey continues to a fishing village, where you'll explore the Bay Mau Water Coconut Forest. A highlight of this visit is an unforgettable experience on a unique basket boat, navigating through the waterways of the coconut forest. This immersive activity provides a glimpse into the local way of life and the natural beauty of the area. Afterward, you'll return to your hotel, with the evening free for leisure.

Day 10 Flight to Ho Chi Minh City & City Landmarks

Meals: B, L | Stay: Silverland Ben Thanh Hotel | Transport: Private transfer, domestic flight, private vehicle

In the morning, you will be transferred to the airport for a flight to Ho Chi Minh City. Upon arrival, a private vehicle will take you to the city center to begin your city tour. Your first stop is the Reunification Palace, the former residence of the President of South Vietnam before April 30, 1975. Nearby, you'll visit the iconic Notre Dame Cathedral and the historic Saigon Central Post Office, both showcasing French colonial architecture. A stop at a lacquerware workshop will provide insight into this traditional Vietnamese craft.

After lunch at a local restaurant, the tour continues with a visit to the War Remnants Museum. This museum offers a poignant display of both the Indochina wars, featuring massive military vehicles in the courtyard and recreations of 'tiger cages' to convey the experience of wartime prisoners. Inside, each floor presents a different theme related to the war and its impact on the Vietnamese people.

Next, you'll visit the Museum of Vietnam History to delve deeper into the rich historical narrative of the country. The tour concludes at Ben Thanh Market, a bustling hub where you can find a wide array of goods and sample various local foods. You have the option to return to your hotel with the tour guide or enjoy free time to explore the market and surrounding area independently before making your own way back.

Day 12 Mekong Delta Excursion to My Tho & Can Tho

Meals: B, L | Stay: Wink Hotel Can Tho | Transport: Private vehicle, boat

Today, your journey takes you to the serene water world of the Mekong Delta. After being picked up from your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, you'll embark on an excursion to My Tho, one of the quieter cities in the region. The drive offers picturesque views of fertile paddy fields and water buffalo, setting the scene for your delta adventure.

Upon reaching My Tho, you'll take a boat trip along narrow waterways, providing an intimate look at local life. The trip includes visits to lush orchards and local houses where traditional rice paper is made. You'll have the opportunity to taste tropical fruits and enjoy a performance of southern traditional 'Tai Tu music,' a unique cultural experience. Lunch will be a special affair, featuring the local delicacy 'Elephant's Ear Fish,' served at a restaurant on one of the islands.

After the boat trip, you'll transfer by private vehicle to Can Tho. En route, a stop will be made to visit the ancient Vinh Trang Pagoda, known for its beautiful architecture. You'll arrive in Can Tho around 5:00 PM, check into your hotel, and have free time before enjoying dinner at a charming restaurant situated along a branch of the Hau River. The rest of the evening is at your leisure.
