DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1

Hanoi Hotel Pickup, Market Tour & Cooking Class

Meals: Lunch | Transport: Private Car Transfer

Your culinary journey begins with a convenient pickup directly from your Hanoi hotel at approximately 8:00 AM. A private car will transfer you to the Hoa Sua School, a renowned vocational training center located in Linh Nam, Hoang Mai district. This school is situated about 6 kilometers from its main training restaurant and approximately 5 kilometers south of the iconic Hoan Kiem Lake, offering a glimpse into a quieter part of the city.

Upon arrival, you will embark on a guided tour of a vibrant local market. Your instructor will lead the way, demonstrating how to identify and select the freshest ingredients essential for Vietnamese cooking. This immersive experience allows you to observe daily life and understand the key components that make Vietnamese cuisine so distinctive. You'll learn about various herbs, spices, vegetables, and proteins, preparing you for the hands-on session ahead.

Following the market visit, you will return to the Hoa Sua School to commence your cooking lesson. The school's experienced chefs, many of whom have international experience and excellent English proficiency, will guide you through the preparation of a traditional Vietnamese menu. Typically, this includes crafting fresh spring rolls with shrimp and pork, crispy fried spring rolls, a refreshing vermicelli salad with dried beef, and a sweet black sticky rice porridge. Each step will be clearly demonstrated, and you'll receive personalized assistance as you recreate these authentic dishes.

After your diligent work in the kitchen, the most rewarding part of the day awaits: enjoying the delicious meal you've just prepared. This self-cooked lunch, served with local beer or wine, offers a true taste of Vietnam and the satisfaction of having created it yourself. Following your meal, a private transfer will take you back to your hotel, concluding your enriching half-day culinary experience with free time for the remainder of the day.
