DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1

Morning Cycle to Tra Que Village & Farming Experience

Meals: Lunch | Transport: Bicycle

Your morning begins at 8:00 AM with a convenient meeting with your guide at your hotel lobby in Hoi An. From there, you'll embark on a pleasant bicycle ride through the serene local landscapes, heading towards the charming Tra Que Vegetable Village. This gentle cycle allows you to take in the fresh air and observe the daily rhythm of the Vietnamese countryside as you approach the renowned agricultural community.

Upon arrival at Tra Que, you'll be welcomed into a local farm. The heart of the morning involves an immersive experience in traditional farming. You will join local farmers in various activities, beginning with the essential task of preparing the land. This includes fertilizing the soil with nutrient-rich seaweed collected from the nearby lake, followed by raking the ground to create an ideal bed for planting. You'll then participate in sowing seeds, carefully watering the young greens, and picking mature vegetables, gaining a hands-on understanding of the entire cultivation process.

After a rewarding morning of farm work, it's time to learn about local cuisine. You'll assist a local family in preparing a delicious traditional Vietnamese lunch. The meal will feature fresh ingredients, many of which you may have helped cultivate, including regional specialties such as the "tam huu" spring roll and "banh xeo," a savory local pancake. Following your meal and the morning's efforts, you'll have the chance to experience a traditional Vietnamese post-prandial nap, a common and cherished custom for rejuvenation.

The afternoon continues with further insights into vegetable handling, as you learn techniques for harvesting and wrapping the fresh produce. Around 1:00 PM, you'll bid farewell to your hospitable host family and begin your bicycle journey back to Hoi An. On the return route, a significant stop is made at the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, offering a chance to admire this historic landmark before the tour concludes at your hotel around 2:00 PM.
