Duration	Difficulty	Tour Type	Starting From

Day 1 Hoi An Culinary Exploration & Tra Que Village Visit

Meals: White Rose dumplings, Beef Noodles Soup, Vietnames | Transport: Motorbike

Your culinary and cultural journey through Hoi An commences at 3:00 PM with a convenient hotel pickup. After a brief introduction to safe motorbike riding practices, you'll begin your gastronomic adventure. The first stop is a renowned establishment famous for its delicate White Rose dumplings, a unique Hoi An specialty. Following this, your guide will navigate through a quaint alleyway, leading you to an authentic local residence, offering a rare glimpse into everyday Vietnamese life away from the tourist crowds. Here, you'll also savor a bowl of Hoi An Beef Noodles Soup (Bun Bo), a beloved dish among the local population.

Continuing your exploration, pause for a cup of traditional Vietnamese coffee, known for its robust flavor, providing a local caffeine boost. The journey then proceeds to the tranquil Tra Que Vegetable Village. This vibrant agricultural area showcases over 50 varieties of fresh vegetables and herbs. You'll have the opportunity to engage directly with the farming process, perhaps even trying your hand at planting vegetables, offering a hands-on experience of rural life.

Next, the tour takes you to Banh My Madam Queen, celebrated for crafting one of Vietnam's finest sandwiches. A brief stop amidst picturesque rice fields allows for a moment to appreciate the serene landscape before moving on to try Banh Khot, a delightful round pancake made with rice flour, turmeric, coconut milk, and quail egg, served with fresh vegetables from a popular street vendor near Hoai Square.

The day culminates with a special dinner at a riverside restaurant, where you'll experience a "Nhau" style meal, a traditional Vietnamese communal dining experience accompanied by cold beer and delicious food. This provides a perfect opportunity to unwind and reflect on the day's discoveries. At 8:00 PM, your tour guide will either return you to your hotel or drop you off at any desired location within the Old Town, allowing you to continue enjoying Hoi An at your leisure.
