DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Perfume River Cruise, Pagodas & Imperial Tomb Exploration

Meals: Dinner

Your afternoon adventure begins with a convenient pickup directly from your hotel in Hue at 13:00. A short transfer will take you to the boat port, where your traditional Dragon boat awaits. Board this charming vessel and commence your serene journey along the tranquil Huong River, also known as the Perfume River, renowned for its picturesque scenery and historical significance.

As you glide along the water, your first stop will be the unique Hon Chen Temple, a sacred site nestled by the riverbanks. Following this, the boat continues to the iconic Thien Mu Pagoda, an ancient seven-story pagoda that stands as a symbol of Hue. You will have ample time to explore its beautiful grounds and learn about its rich history. The cruise then proceeds to the majestic Minh Mang Tomb, an impressive royal tomb featuring intricate architecture and serene landscapes, offering a glimpse into Vietnam's imperial past.

The return journey along the Perfume River is timed to coincide with the setting sun, providing breathtaking views of the landscape bathed in golden light. As dusk settles, you will be treated to a delightful dinner served on board your private boat, allowing you to savor local flavors amidst the peaceful river ambiance. The evening culminates with a captivating performance of traditional Vietnamese folk songs, adding a cultural highlight to your experience. The tour concludes around 20:00, with your return transfer to your hotel.
