DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Imperial Hue: Market, Pagoda, Citadel & Royal Tombs

Meals: Lunch | Transport: Private car transfer, Dragon boat trip, Cyclo ride

Your guided exploration of Hue begins promptly at 8:00 AM with a convenient pickup from your hotel by your tour guide and driver. The first stop is the lively Dong Ba Market, a bustling hub where you can observe the daily routines of local residents and witness a vibrant array of goods, from fresh produce to traditional crafts. This provides an authentic glimpse into the city's everyday rhythm before delving into its imperial past.

Following your market visit, embark on a serene dragon boat journey along the picturesque Huong River, also known as the Perfume River. This relaxing cruise offers beautiful views of the riverbanks as you make your way to Thien Mu Pagoda. Upon arrival, you'll explore this iconic seven-story pagoda, which stands as the oldest and most revered spiritual site in Hue, learning about its historical significance and tranquil surroundings.

The morning's final major attraction is the magnificent Hue Imperial Citadel. As the former home of Vietnam's last royal dynasty, the Nguyen Dynasty, this vast complex offers an immersive experience into imperial life. You'll spend time exploring its grand palaces, temples, and the Forbidden Purple City, understanding the historical importance of this UNESCO World Heritage site.

Around 12:00 PM, a delicious Vietnamese lunch awaits you at a local restaurant, providing a taste of regional cuisine. The afternoon itinerary focuses on the splendid royal tombs. First, visit Khai Dinh King's Tomb, renowned for its intricate design that masterfully blends traditional Vietnamese elements with European architectural influences. Next, proceed to Minh Mang King's Tomb, an impressive complex celebrated for its majestic scale, harmonious layout, and exceptional symmetry. The day concludes with a charming cyclo ride through the streets of Hue, offering a unique perspective of the city before you are transferred back to your hotel around 5:00 PM.
