Day 2 Hanoi Cultural Landmarks & Market Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Air-conditioned vehicle

Your day in Hanoi begins with an exploration of the city's significant cultural and historical sites, where Vietnam's rich religious heritage, colonial past, and daily life converge. The first stop is Tran Quoc Pagoda, an ancient Buddhist temple nestled on an islet in West Lake, renowned for its serene setting and traditional architecture. Following this, you will visit the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum complex, a pivotal historical site dedicated to the revered leader, offering insights into modern Vietnamese identity. Nearby, marvel at the distinctive lotus-shaped architecture of the One Pillar Pagoda, another important Buddhist structure.
The tour continues to the Temple of Literature, recognized as Vietnam's first national university. Here, you can wander through its tranquil courtyards and admire the stone stelae that chronicle the country's long-standing academic traditions. After enjoying lunch at a local restaurant, take a refreshing stroll around Hoan Kiem Lake, a central landmark popular with locals for relaxation and social gatherings.
The day concludes with a visit to Dong Xuan Market, Hanoi's largest indoor market. This bustling marketplace provides a vibrant glimpse into everyday urban life, with countless stalls offering everything from local produce and textiles to crafts and street food. After experiencing the lively atmosphere, you will be transferred back to your hotel.

Day 3 Ninh Binh Karst Landscapes & Ancient Capital

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Air-conditioned vehicle, traditional sampan boat, bicycle

After breakfast at your Hanoi hotel, depart for Ninh Binh province, a region celebrated for its dramatic karst scenery and profound cultural heritage. The journey offers scenic views of rural Vietnamese landscapes, characterized by towering limestone formations and fertile agricultural fields. Your first historical stop is Hoa Lu, Vietnam's former capital in the 10th century. Here, you'll explore the restored temples dedicated to the Dinh and Le dynasties, set against a backdrop of majestic mountains and showcasing early Vietnamese craftsmanship and architectural styles.
In the afternoon, experience the tranquility of the Ngo Dong River with a traditional sampan boat trip. This serene journey glides past lush rice fields and towering limestone mountains, providing an intimate perspective of the natural beauty. The boat will navigate through Tam Coc, passing through three natural grottoes carved into the limestone, alternating between dimly lit cave sections and open river stretches.
Following the boat excursion, embrace the peaceful countryside on a cycling route. Pedal through local villages, past working farmlands, and across open fields at a relaxed pace. Conclude your day with a visit to Bich Dong Pagoda, a historic temple complex built directly into a mountainside. Ascend the stone steps to explore its multiple levels and enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding valley before returning to your hotel in Hanoi.

Day 4 — Lan Ha Bay Cruise & Cave Discovery

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Lan Ha Bay Cruise | Transport: Air-conditioned vehicle, cruise boat, kayak/bamboo boat

Your day begins with a transfer from Hanoi to the coastal gateway of Lan Ha Bay, a scenic journey along a modern highway that takes approximately 2.5 hours. Upon arrival at the port, you'll be welcomed aboard your luxurious Lan Ha Bay cruise with a refreshing drink and a cold towel. After a safety briefing and check-in to your private cabin, the ship will gently set sail, offering panoramic views of the bay's majestic seascape. A sumptuous lunch featuring fresh seafood and a fusion of Vietnamese and Western cuisine will be served as you glide past captivating sights like Da Chong Islet, home to a century-old French lighthouse, and the untouched beauty of Gia Luan, Coc Ngoi Islet, and Thoi Quyt.

In the afternoon, prepare to explore the enigmatic Dark & Bright Cave. You have the choice to paddle through these serene grottoes by kayak or enjoy a ride on a rustic bamboo boat guided by locals. The caves open into peaceful lagoons, encircled by jungle-covered cliffs, creating an ethereal and intimate atmosphere. Depending on the cruise itinerary, you might also visit the Tung Sau Pearl Farm, where you can learn about the intricate process of pearl cultivation, combining traditional Vietnamese methods with advanced Japanese techniques.

As the day progresses, the cruise will anchor in the tranquil Tra Bau area, away from the more crowded tourist spots. Witness a breathtaking sunset during a lively onboard party with complimentary drinks. You can also participate in an engaging cooking demonstration, learning the secrets of Vietnamese cuisine from local chefs. As night falls, a refined dinner is served in the ambient dining room. Later, try your hand at squid fishing under the stars, enjoy a quiet movie, or simply retreat to your cabin for a restful sleep, serenaded by the gentle rhythm of the waves.

Activities: Transfer from Hanoi to Lan Ha Bay port
Board luxury cruise with welcome drink and safety briefing
Enjoy lunch onboard while cruising past islets
Explore Dark & Bright Cave by kayak or bamboo boat
Optional visit to Tung Sau Pearl Farm
Participate in a sunset party and cooking demonstration
Dine onboard and enjoy evening activities like squid fishing

Day 5 — Cat Ba National Park & Return to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Cruise boat, air-conditioned vehicle

Awaken at 06:00 to the serene sounds of nature as your cruise gently rocks in the calm waters of Lan Ha Bay. Head to the top deck at dawn to witness a breathtaking sunrise, painting the limestone peaks and the mirror-like sea with golden and coral hues. Begin your day with an invigorating Tai Chi session, a graceful practice to rejuvenate your body and mind amidst one of Vietnam's most stunning natural backdrops. Afterward, enjoy a light breakfast with warm coffee or tea, allowing the tranquil surroundings to set a peaceful tone for your morning.

The cruise then proceeds towards Cat Ba Island, where you will venture into Trung Trang Valley, a hidden gem nestled within the heart of Cat Ba National Park. Surrounded by the ancient Kim Giao Forest, this lush valley reveals a mystical world of rich biodiversity, intricate cave systems, and towering karst formations, offering an immersive experience in one of Vietnam's pristine natural reserves.

Upon returning to the cruise, it's time to pack your belongings and check out while savoring a relaxing brunch as the boat glides back towards the pier. Before disembarking, join the crew for a peaceful Vietnamese Tea Ceremony, a cultural ritual that invites you to appreciate the subtle elegance of Vietnamese traditions and hospitality. The cruise docks at the harbor, and after a final glance at the emerald waters, you will begin your return journey to Hanoi, arriving in the capital around 16:00, concluding your memorable coastal retreat.

Activities: Wake up for sunrise and Tai Chi session on deck
Enjoy a light breakfast onboard
