Duration	Difficulty	Tour Type	Starting From

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Luxury Mekong River Cruises | Transport: Local boat, Buggy, Cruise

Awaken to the tranquil beauty of the Mekong Delta, where local life along the riverbanks stirs with the dawn. Begin your day with a refreshing Tai Chi session on deck, followed by a sumptuous breakfast buffet. Your first excursion takes you by local boat to Cai Be, where you'll visit a traditional workshop. Here, observe the intricate processes involved in creating Mekong specialties such as rice paper, rice cookies, rice wine, and coconut candies, witnessing techniques preserved through generations.

Next, journey to Tan Phong Island, a peaceful haven amidst the expansive Mekong River. Visit a local family home and their fruit garden, where you can sample a variety of tropical fruits freshly picked. A buggy ride through the island offers a glimpse into daily village rhythms. You'll also stop at another local home to see how water hyacinth plants are skillfully transformed into handcrafted products. After a morning of discovery, return to the ship to relax as it leisurely sails upstream.

In the afternoon, the vessel arrives at Binh Thanh Island, known for its communities that cultivate and weave water hyacinths. Enjoy a peaceful walk through the village, observing the traditional mat-making process. You'll have the chance to meet an elderly local couple, eager to share stories of their lifelong experiences on the island. Before dinner, gather in the lounge for an insightful presentation on life in the Mekong Delta, as the ship continues towards Gieng Island, anchoring there for the night.

Day 5 Gieng Island Exploration & Cambodian Border Crossing

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Luxury Mekong River Cruises | Transport: Sampan, Cruise

Start your day with a serene Tai Chi session on the sundeck, observing the Mekong awaken with fishing boats and floating houses. After a hearty breakfast, embark on an exploration of Gieng Island, also known as Mango Island. Stroll through lush mango groves and visit a small incense workshop, where artisans meticulously handcraft fragrant sticks. Continue to a traditional boat-building yard, witnessing generations of families mastering the art of crafting wooden vessels essential for river life.

Before leaving the island, enjoy a relaxing moment at a century-old local home, sipping tea and tasting freshly picked mangoes. This experience captures the humble, joyful, and nature-connected spirit of river life. After lunch, a traditional sampan takes you to Evergreen Island, a fertile land known for its small-scale farms. Meet a local farming family and participate in their daily routine, perhaps helping with planting or harvesting, gaining a hands-on glimpse into real Mekong Delta life. Many ingredients grown here are used by your onboard chef, creating a direct farm-to-table connection.

As the day concludes, return to the ship and sail towards the Cambodian border. Enjoy a relaxing evening onboard as the vessel crosses into Cambodia, beginning its overnight journey to Phnom Penh, the vibrant capital city awaiting your discovery.

Day 11 Angkor Thom & Angkor Wat Temple Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: AC car/van

After breakfast at your hotel, embark on an unforgettable journey through the ancient wonders of the Angkor Archaeological Park. Begin with a visit to Angkor Thom, the magnificent "Great City" built in the 12th century. Enter through the impressive South Gate, flanked by rows of giant stone figures depicting the mythical Churning of the Ocean of Milk. Inside, explore the awe-inspiring Bayon Temple, famous for its 54 towers adorned with over 200 serene, smiling faces of Avalokitesvara. Continue to Phimeanakas, the Royal Enclosure, and stroll along the grand Terrace of the Elephants and the Terrace of the Leper King, both rich with intricate carvings narrating Cambodia's glorious past. Next, visit the enchanting Ta Prohm, one of Angkor's most atmospheric temples. Left largely as it was found, Ta Prohm is embraced by towering trees and winding roots, creating a mystical charm that makes it a favorite among visitors and photographers.
In the afternoon, prepare to be amazed by the iconic Angkor Wat, the largest and most famous temple complex in Cambodia. Spanning 81 hectares, its grandeur rivals Beijing's Imperial Palace. Its five distinctive towers, symbolizing Mount Meru, are proudly displayed on Cambodia's national flag. Built in the 12th century, Angkor Wat stands as a masterpiece of classical Khmer architecture and a testament to Cambodia's rich cultural heritage. Conclude your day inspired by these magnificent temples before returning to your hotel for a well-deserved rest.
