DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Mekong Delta Exploration: Cai Be Market & Vinh Long's Green Pearl

Meals: 1 Lunch | Transport: Private car/van, motorized boat

Your day begins with an early morning pickup from your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, setting off on a scenic drive towards the Mekong Delta. The journey offers glimpses of Vietnam's rural beauty, including a brief stop in Tan An town for a photo opportunity amidst the expansive, flat rice fields that characterize the region's agricultural heartland.

Upon arrival in Cai Be, you will board a motorized boat to embark on an immersive visit to the famous Cai Be Floating Market. Here, you'll witness the vibrant daily commerce as hundreds of boats laden with fresh produce, fruits, and other commodities gather to trade. This bustling aquatic marketplace provides a fascinating insight into the local economy and the unique lifestyle of river communities.

Continuing your river journey, the boat will navigate through smaller canals, allowing you to explore the charm of the Upper Mekong Delta. You'll have the opportunity to disembark and visit various small villages, discovering local orchards and fruit plantations. The cruise then proceeds towards Vinh Long, with stops at family-run businesses where you can observe and learn about traditional handmade products, such as the crafting of coconut candy and crispy rice popcorn.

The excursion culminates in Binh Hoa Phuoc village, often referred to as the "green pearl" of Vinh Long town, a tranquil haven where you can fully appreciate the natural surroundings. A delicious lunch featuring fresh river specialties will be served in a picturesque garden setting. During this relaxing break, you'll be treated to traditional Southern Vietnamese folk music.

Afterwards, enjoy a leisurely stroll through a beautiful bonsai garden before meeting your private car or van in Vinh Long for the return journey to Ho Chi Minh City, concluding your enriching day trip around 18:00 at your hotel.
