Day 18 Angkor Thom & Angkor Wat Grand Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Car

After breakfast, embark on an incredible journey through the ancient wonders of the Angkor Archaeological Park. Your exploration begins with Angkor Thom, the last grand capital of the Khmer Empire, constructed in the 12th century. You will enter through the majestic South Gate, flanked by towering stone figures depicting gods and demons engaged in the legendary "Churning of the Ocean of Milk."

Inside this walled city, you will explore the enigmatic Bayon Temple, renowned for its 54 towers adorned with over 200 serene, smiling faces of Avalokitesvara. Continue your discovery at the Royal Enclosure, Phimeanakas Temple, the Elephant Terrace, and the Terrace of the Leper King, each offering fascinating insights into the empire's former grandeur and spiritual depth. You will pause midday for lunch at a local restaurant to refuel before continuing your adventure.

In the afternoon, visit the awe-inspiring Angkor Wat, Cambodia's most iconic and cherished monument. Spanning over 81 hectares, this magnificent 12th-century temple complex is considered the largest religious structure in the world. Marvel at its five lotus-shaped towers rising above the moat, symbolizing the sacred peaks of Mount Meru, and admire the intricate carvings that narrate tales from Hindu mythology. As the day concludes, return to your hotel, carrying the wonder of one of the world's most extraordinary archaeological sites.
