Journey Through Ninh Binh

Your adventure begins with a comfortable transfer from Hanoi's Old Quarter, whisking you away from the city bustle towards the scenic province of Ninh Binh. The day unfolds with a deep dive into Vietnam's imperial past at Hoa Lu, followed by an invigorating climb for spectacular views. The afternoon offers a serene boat journey through Trang An's natural wonders and a visit to a historic pagoda, concluding with a relaxing return to Hanoi.

Who Will Love This Tour?

This tour is ideal for travelers seeking a blend of historical insights, natural beauty, and moderate physical activity. History enthusiasts will appreciate Hoa Lu's ancient significance, while nature lovers will be captivated by Trang An's waterways and Mua Cave's vistas. Those who enjoy active exploration will find the Mua Cave climb rewarding, and the optional cycling offers a gentle immersion into local life, all within the comfort of a small group setting and luxury transport.

Practical Information

The tour departs from Hanoi around 7:15 AM, with pick-up available from hotels in the Old Quarter. The return to Hanoi is typically between 7:00 PM and 7:30 PM, depending on traffic conditions. Comfortable walking shoes are highly recommended, especially for the Mua Cave climb. Remember to bring sun protection, a water bottle, and wear respectful attire for temple visits. The itinerary order may be adjusted based on weather conditions to ensure the best experience.

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Hanoi Departure, Hoa Lu History & Mua Cave Views

Meals: Lunch | Transport: Luxury Limousine Dcar, Sampan boat, Bicycle (optional)

Your day begins with a convenient pick-up from your hotel in Hanoi's Old Quarter between 7:10 AM and 7:15 AM. You'll travel in comfort aboard a brand-new luxury Limousine Dcar, designed for small groups of up to nine passengers, featuring massage seats for a relaxing journey. The drive to Ninh Binh Province takes approximately 2.5 hours, including a brief 15-minute rest stop along the way, allowing you to enjoy the scenic countryside views of rice fields as you head south.

Upon arrival, your first destination is Hoa Lu Ancient Capital, the historic heart of Vietnam from the 10th century. Here, you'll embark on a leisurely walk through the expansive grounds, exploring the majestic Dinh King Temple and the serene Le King Temple, both dedicated to Vietnam's revered founding heroes. This site offers a peaceful blend of profound history and open landscapes.

Next, prepare for an adventurous ascent to Mua Cave, often called the 'Muse of Ninh Binh.' This involves climbing 500 stone steps to the peak of Ngoa Long Mountain. The effort is richly rewarded with a breathtaking 360-degree panoramic vista over the entire Tam Coc valley, its winding rivers, and lush paddy fields. At the summit, you can admire the iconic Dragon Statue before descending to a charming heart-shaped lotus pond (seasonal).

After your climb, a traditional Vietnamese set menu lunch awaits at a quiet, carefully selected local restaurant. This culinary experience focuses on authentic Ninh Binh delicacies, providing a premium meal to re-energize you for the afternoon's adventures. Following lunch, you have the option to enjoy a 30-minute bicycle ride through peaceful village paths, offering a refreshing connection with the tranquil Vietnamese countryside. Alternatively, the luxury Dcar will transport you directly to the next destination if you prefer not to cycle.

The afternoon continues with a visit to Bich Dong Pagoda, a spiritual masterpiece built into a majestic mountainside. You will explore three ancient temples—Lower, Middle, and Upper Pagodas—each stepped upward through mystical mountain caves, offering a unique journey toward inner peace. Finally, you will embark on a 2.5-hour traditional sampan boat trip through Trang An, a UNESCO Dual World Heritage site. This immersive journey glides through serene waterways, mystical caves, and past ancient, sacred temples, providing a deeply relaxing experience amidst stunning natural beauty. Around 5:00 PM, you'll board
