DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 Hanoi Departure & Overnight Lan Ha Bay Cruise

Meals: Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Deluxe cruise | Transport: Limousine bus, tender boat, cruise ship

Your journey begins with an early morning pick-up from your hotel in Hanoi's Old Quarter, if you've arranged transfer services. You'll travel by comfortable vehicle towards Tuan Chau Harbor, the gateway to the stunning Halong Bay and its quieter extension, Lan Ha Bay. Upon arrival, you'll be transferred by tender boat to your luxurious cruise ship, where a warm welcome awaits. After a brief safety introduction and check-in to your private cabin, a delectable lunch will be served as the vessel gracefully glides through the emerald waters.

The cruise navigates past iconic limestone formations, including Finger Islet and Candle Islet, offering breathtaking views of the unique karst landscape. In the afternoon, the adventure continues with an exploration of the picturesque Tra Bau Area. Here, you'll have the opportunity to kayak through calm waters or swim, discovering the pristine beauty of a location famously featured in the movie "Kong Skull Island."

As evening approaches, return to the cruise for a relaxing "Sunset Party" and "Happy Hour" on the sundeck, enjoying the magical colors of the sunset over Lan Ha Bay. This is followed by an engaging cooking class. The day culminates with a lavish Gala Dinner served on the sundeck, featuring a fusion of fresh local ingredients and sophisticated culinary styles. After dinner, unwind on deck, partake in a complimentary herbal foot bath, or try your hand at squid fishing under the starry sky. Optional activities like a bamboo dance or ethnic fashion show may also be available.

Activities:
Transfer from Hanoi to Tuan Chau Harbor.
Boarding the cruise and cabin check-in.
Enjoying lunch while cruising through Halong Bay and Lan Ha Bay.
Kayaking and swimming in Tra Bau Area.
Participating in a sunset party and happy hour.
Attending a cooking class.
Having a gala dinner on the sundeck.
Engaging in evening activities like herbal foot bath or squid fishing.

Day 2 Lan Ha Bay Caves & Journey to Sapa by Overnight Train

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Overnight train from Hanoi to Sapa | Transport: Cruise ship, bamboo boat, limousine bus, overnight deluxe sleeper train

Begin your second day with a revitalizing Tai Chi session on the sundeck, greeting the sunrise over Lan Ha Bay. A light breakfast of tea, coffee, and pastries will be served as the cruise continues its scenic journey past more stunning karst towers. The morning's highlight is a visit to the Bright and Dark Cave area. Here, you'll transfer to a traditional bamboo boat to gently explore the serene grottoes, admiring the untouched natural beauty and capturing memorable photographs of the tranquil seascape.

After returning to the main boat, it's time for check-out. A well-prepared brunch will be served as the cruise slowly makes its way back towards Tuan Chau Harbor, offering final views of the spectacular landscape. Upon disembarkation, you'll be transferred back to Hanoi. If time and arrangements permit, some guests might opt for cycling around Tuan Chau island before

Day 3 Sapa Arrival & Cultural Trek to Cat Cat and Sin Chai

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: 3-star hotel in Sapa | Transport: Car/Bus transfer

Your overnight train arrives at Lao Cai Train Station early in the morning. Our local representative will be waiting to greet you with a pick-up sign. You will then be transferred by vehicle to Sapa town. Upon arrival at your hotel, an early check-in will be arranged if rooms are available; otherwise, a basic room will be provided for refreshment before breakfast. After a hearty breakfast, your Sapa exploration begins.
The morning features a scenic walk to Cat Cat village, a traditional settlement of the Black H'mong ethnic group, nestled in a deep valley at the base of Fansipan Peak. Your local guide will lead you through the village, offering insights into the daily lives and customs of the residents. You'll trek down to a beautiful waterfall, site of a former French-built hydraulic power station, and capture memorable photos of the picturesque bridge and cascading water.
The trek continues uphill, revealing stunning natural scenery, as you make your way to Sin Chai village, also situated on the slopes of Fansipan. This provides further opportunities to observe local life and enjoy the serene mountainous environment. By early afternoon, you'll return to Sapa town, where you can admire the vibrant traditional costumes of the H'mong, Dzao, and Tay ethnic people. A delicious lunch featuring local Vietnamese dishes will be served, followed by hotel check-in. The remainder of the afternoon is free for you to explore Sapa town at your leisure, perhaps browsing the local market. Dinner will be served at your hotel, followed by an overnight stay in Sapa.

Activities: Arrival at Lao Cai Train Station and transfer to Sapa.
Early check-in or refreshment at hotel.
Breakfast at hotel.
Guided walk to Cat Cat village, observing local life.
Visiting the waterfall and hydraulic power station.

Day 4 Fansipan Summit Ascent & Overnight Journey to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Overnight train from Sapa to Hanoi | Transport: Car/Bus transfer, cable car, overnight deluxe sleeper train

After breakfast at your hotel, you will be transferred with your guide to the Fansipan Cable Car Station. Prepare for a spectacular 20-minute cable car ride, offering breathtaking panoramic views as you ascend towards the "Roof of Indochina." At an altitude of 2800 meters, you'll have ample time to admire the majestic scenery, capture stunning photographs, and visit the spiritual pagodas. For those seeking to reach the absolute summit, a hike of approximately 600 steps leads to the peak of Fansipan, standing proudly as the highest mountain in Indochina.

You'll spend about 1.5 hours at the summit area, soaking in the views and exploring. Afterwards, you'll descend by cable car and return to Sapa town for lunch. Following lunch, you'll have some free time for check-out procedures and an opportunity to visit and shop at Sapa market, perhaps picking up some local handicrafts or souvenirs. The late afternoon offers a chance to freshen up, relax, or enjoy an early dinner on your own.

In the evening, you will be picked up and transferred downhill to Lao Cai station. Your guide will assist you with tickets before you board the overnight deluxe sleeper train back to Hanoi. Similar to your journey to Sapa, this train features air-conditioned cabins with four soft berths, ensuring a comfortable night's rest as you travel back to the capital.

Activities:
Breakfast at the hotel.
Transfer to Fansipan Cable Car Station.
Cable car ride to Fansipan (2800m altitude).
Visiting pagodas and hiking 600 steps to Fansipan peak.

Transfer to Lao Cai station.
Boarding an overnight deluxe sleeper train to Hanoi.

Day 5 Ninh Binh: Sacred Pagoda & Grottoes Exploration

Meals: Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Homestay in Ninh Binh | Transport: Car/Bus transfer, rowing boat

Early this morning, your guide and driver will pick you up from your hotel in Hanoi's Old Quarter for the transfer to Ninh Binh province. A short break of 15-20 minutes will be made en route for you to stretch your legs and refresh. Your first destination in Ninh Binh is the impressive Bai Dinh Pagoda, renowned as one of Vietnam's largest and most famous pagodas, holding several Asian and Vietnamese records. You'll explore its vast complex, marveling at the 500 stone statues of Arhats, the massive 27-ton and 36-ton bronze bells, and the magnificent Golden statue of the Goddess of Mercy.

After your spiritual exploration, you'll enjoy a delicious lunch featuring Ninh Binh specialties in a private dining area, with vegetarian options available. In the afternoon, the journey continues to the breathtaking Trang An Grottoes. This UNESCO World Heritage site is characterized by majestic limestone cliffs, mysterious caves, and serene green fields. You'll embark on a captivating 2.5-hour boat trip, gliding through the waterways to visit a complex of caves including Sang Cave, Toi Cave, Ba Giot Cave, and Nau Ruou Cave, experiencing the tranquil beauty of this "Ha Long Bay on land."

Following the immersive boat trip, you will check into your bungalow or hotel accommodation in Ninh Binh. The evening is yours to relax, perhaps take a swim, and enjoy the peaceful surroundings. Dinner will be served at your accommodation,

Day 6 Ancient Capital, Tam Coc Boat Ride & Mua Cave Panorama

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Transport: Car/Bus transfer, rowing boat

Start your final day with breakfast at your homestay or hotel in Ninh Binh, followed by some free time to explore the local neighborhood at your leisure. Around late morning, you'll begin your historical exploration at Hoa Lu, the ancient capital of Vietnam during the Dinh and Le dynasties. Here, you'll have the opportunity to visit the temples dedicated to these revered kings, gaining insight into the rich history and cultural heritage of the region.

A delightful lunch featuring local cuisine will be served at a restaurant. In the early afternoon, you'll depart for Tam Coc, famously known as "Ha Long Bay on land" due to its spectacular limestone karst formations and intricate waterways. You'll embark on a traditional rowing boat trip, navigating through the serene Ngo Dong River. During this picturesque ride, you'll admire the stunning natural scenery and observe the unique local way of life along the riverbanks.

The final highlight of your Ninh Binh adventure is a hike up Mua Cave (meaning "Dance Cave"). This involves ascending over 500 steps to the top of Ngoa Long Mountain. The effort is richly rewarded with a breathtaking panoramic view of Ninh Binh City, the meandering Ngo Dong River, and the surrounding rice paddies and limestone karsts. After soaking in the magnificent vista, you'll descend and board the bus for your return journey to Hanoi. The tour concludes upon your arrival back at your hotel in Hanoi in the early evening.
