DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Hanoi Arrival & City Exploration

Meals: B,L,D | Stay: Golden Silk Boutique Hotel | Transport: Private transfer, Cyclo

Upon your early morning arrival at Hanoi International Airport, you will be met and transferred directly to your hotel in the city center. After an early check-in and breakfast, your guided exploration of Hanoi begins. The morning focuses on the Ho Chi Minh Complex, a significant historical site where you'll visit Ho Chi Minh's Mausoleum, his traditional Stilt House, the Presidential Palace grounds, and the unique One Pillar Pagoda.

Continue your cultural journey with a visit to Tran Quoc Pagoda, beautifully situated on the serene West Lake. Afterwards, delve into the rich tapestry of Vietnam's diverse ethnic groups at the Vietnam Museum of Ethnology, gaining insight into the traditions and customs of its 54 communities.

Following a midday lunch, the afternoon features more of Hanoi's iconic landmarks. You will explore the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university, followed by a visit to the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake and the Ngoc Son Temple. Conclude your daytime sightseeing with a charming one-hour cyclo ride through the labyrinthine streets of the Hanoi Old Quarter, offering a unique perspective of local life. The evening culminates in a traditional Water Puppet Show, a classic Vietnamese art form. Dinner will be served in the evening, after which you have free time to experience Hanoi's nightlife. Options include browsing the night market, strolling along the walking street, or enjoying a drink at the lively Ta Hien beer street.

Day 2 Incense Village & Ninh Binh's Natural Wonders

Meals: B,L,D | Stay: Golden Silk Boutique Hotel | Transport: Bus transfer

Your day begins with a morning pickup from your Hanoi hotel, embarking on a full-day excursion to the Quang Phu Cau incense village and the stunning landscapes of Ninh Binh. Upon arrival at Quang Phu Cau, you'll embark on a walking tour, observing the intricate process of traditional incense making. Witness local artisans chopping bamboo, dipping sticks in vibrant dyes, crafting incense paste, and drying the finished products under the sun. This offers a unique opportunity to interact with villagers and learn about the historical significance of their craft.

After immersing yourself in the village's unique atmosphere and capturing memorable photographs of the colorful incense bundles, the journey continues to Tam Coc in Ninh Binh. A delicious lunch awaits your arrival, preparing you for the highlight of the afternoon: a captivating 2.5-hour boat trip. Glide along serene waterways, exploring a complex of mystical caves including Sang Cave, Toi Cave, Ba Giot Cave, and Nau Ruou, all set amidst the dramatic limestone karsts often referred to as "Ha Long on land."

Following your tranquil boat adventure, prepare for a moderate climb to Mua Cave. The ascent to the peak of Ngoa Long Mountain rewards you with an awe-inspiring panoramic vista of the Tam Coc region and the sprawling city of Ninh Binh. This elevated perspective offers a breathtaking view of the rice paddies, winding rivers, and towering limestone formations.

In the late afternoon, a comfortable bus transfer will take you back to Hanoi. Upon your evening arrival, enjoy dinner before returning to your hotel for some well-deserved leisure time.
