Day 1 Traditional Incense Craft Exploration at Quang Phu Cau

Transport: Private car

Your cultural half-day journey begins with a morning pick-up directly from your hotel in Hanoi at 8:00 AM. A comfortable private car will transport you to the historic Quang Phu Cau Incense Village, located in Ung Hoa District. The drive offers a glimpse of the rural landscapes surrounding the bustling capital as you head towards this renowned craft hub.

Upon arrival at Quang Phu Cau Village, approximately between 9:15 AM and 9:30 AM, you will commence a guided walking tour. This immersive experience allows you to observe the intricate, multi-stage process of traditional incense making. Witness local artisans skillfully chopping bamboo, expertly dipping incense sticks into vibrant dyes, and meticulously crafting the aromatic incense paste. The village atmosphere is filled with the scent of wood and spices, providing a sensory insight into this age-old craft.

A significant part of the visit involves seeing the colorful incense bundles laid out to dry under the sun, often arranged in visually striking patterns resembling flowers or stars. This provides exceptional opportunities for photography, capturing the unique beauty and cultural essence of the village. You will have ample free time to wander, take pictures, and engage with the friendly locals to learn about the village's more than 100-year history of incense production.

Around 11:00 AM, the tour concludes, and you will begin the return journey to Hanoi. Expect to arrive back at your hotel by approximately 12:15 PM, concluding a fascinating morning excursion into Vietnam's traditional craftsmanship.
