The morning commences with a hotel pickup in Saigon between 7:00 AM and 7:30 AM, setting off towards Ben Tre Province. The journey offers scenic views of verdant landscapes and insights into the daily routines of Mekong Delta residents. Upon arrival, board a boat for a tranquil cruise along the Ham Luong River, one of the delta's major waterways, providing a peaceful introduction to the region's natural charm.

During the cruise, make a stop at a local coconut workshop to observe the traditional methods of crafting various coconut-based products and engage with the friendly artisans. Continue your cultural immersion with a visit to a mat-weaving house, where skilled individuals demonstrate the intricate process of creating mats, which hold deep cultural significance. Here, you'll also have the opportunity to sample fresh tropical fruits and enjoy a refreshing cup of tea.

The afternoon includes a ride on a Xe Loi, a motorized rickshaw, or a bicycle tour through local orchards and serene villages, offering an authentic perspective on rural life. After a delightful riverside lunch, embark on a serene sampan boat ride through the narrow, lush canals of Ben Tre, surrounded by diverse plant life. The day concludes with your return to Saigon, carrying cherished memories of the Mekong Delta's unique beauty and traditions.

Activities:
- Travel from Saigon to Ben Tre Province
- Cruise along the Ham Luong River
- Visit a local coconut workshop
