DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1

Ho Chi Minh Arrival & Night Jeep Food Tour

Meals: Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Vintage jeep, private vehicle

Upon arrival in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam's largest urban center, travelers will feel the dynamic energy where French colonial architecture, bustling street life, and modern skyscrapers coexist. After checking into the hotel, the evening transforms into a unique culinary and cultural journey. Guests will board a vintage jeep for an exciting night tour, beginning with a scenic drive across the Saigon River, offering views of the city skyline illuminated against the twilight.

The jeep then navigates to District 4, a neighborhood renowned for its vibrant street food. Here, participants will indulge in a variety of fresh and flavorful seafood dishes. A highlight of the evening is a visit to a local spot to savor "banh xeo," a crispy Vietnamese rice flour crepe generously filled with shrimp, pork, and fresh herbs. The guide will explain its origins and demonstrate the traditional way to enjoy it, wrapped in lettuce and dipped in homemade fish sauce.

As the tour continues, the jeep winds through narrow alleyways and backstreets, providing authentic glimpses into local life, with children playing and family-run shops bustling late into the night. A refreshing scoop of Saigon's signature coconut ice cream offers a sweet interlude. The night culminates on Saigon's lively Beer Street, with a stop at a rooftop bar. Guests can enjoy a local craft beer while admiring the glittering city lights, soaking in the electric atmosphere of this unstoppable metropolis. This immersive jeep tour offers a genuine taste of Saigon's vibrant character, setting an exciting tone for the adventure ahead.

Day 2Can Gio Mangrove Biosphere Reserve Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Private vehicle, Stand Up Paddleboard (SUP)

The morning begins with a transfer from Ho Chi Minh City to the UNESCO-listed Can Gio Mangrove Biosphere Reserve. This day promises an immersive experience in nature, wildlife, and riverine landscapes. Upon arrival, guests will embark on a guided hike through the verdant mangrove trails, enjoying the fresh air and the distinct sounds of the forest ecosystem. Deep within the reserve, travelers will participate in local life by learning to harvest "oc len" (mud creepers) and catch small crabs in the soft, silty mud, an engaging activity often shared with local fishermen. Following this, the group will transfer to a tranquil riverfront area, where they can enjoy stand-up paddleboarding (SUP) amidst the stilt houses and dense mangrove roots. Depending on tidal conditions and group size, there may be an opportunity to try traditional fishing net casting, a practice passed down through generations.

Around midday, a delicious lunch awaits at a local restaurant, featuring fresh seafood and regional specialties, enjoyed with a gentle breeze from the water. The afternoon continues with a deeper exploration of the ecosystem at the Can Gio Mangrove Biosphere Reserve Museum. Exhibits detail the rich biodiversity, from rare saltwater crocodiles to migratory birds and medicinal plants. The adventure concludes with a climb up the 36-meter-high observation tower, offering breathtaking panoramic views of the expansive green canopy stretching towards the sea, a powerful reminder of Vietnam's natural wonders. The return journey to Ho Chi Minh City commences in the late afternoon, leaving guests with a profound connection to Vietnam's wild side.

Activities: Travel to the UNESCO-listed Can Gio Mangrove Biosphere Reserve.
Hike through lush mangrove trails.
Participate in harvesting "oc len" (mud creepers) and catching crabs.
Enjoy stand-up paddleboarding (SUP) among mangroves and stilt houses.
Experience traditional fishing net casting (optional, tide/group dependent).
Dine on fresh seafood and local specialties for lunch.
Explore the Can Gio Mangrove Biosphere Reserve Museum.
Ascend the observation tower for panoramic forest views.

Day 3Saigon's Traditional Medicine & Rice Art Workshop

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Private vehicle

This half-day cultural immersion in Ho Chi Minh City offers a journey into ancient healing traditions, artistic expression, and mindful living, designed to nourish both body and spirit. The morning begins with a warm welcome and a hearty bowl of pho at the renowned Pho Hung restaurant. Guests will savor the aromatic broth, rice noodles, and tender beef, experiencing one of Vietnam's most iconic dishes in a bustling local setting.

Next, the exploration shifts to holistic wellness at Tan Hung Long Tu, a revered herbal medicine temple tucked away in a quiet city corner. Here, visitors will step into a traditional medicine clinic, explore a tranquil herbal garden, and may even receive a pulse diagnosis and personalized health advice from a local practitioner, gaining an intimate insight into Eastern medical wisdom. The historical journey continues at the Museum of Traditional Vietnamese Medicine, where over 3,000 artifacts illustrate the evolution of herbal healing from prehistoric times to the present. Guests can engage with the past by grinding herbs with ancient tools or dressing in a traditional "ao dai" for a photo opportunity as a historical healer. An optional herbal foot bath is available for further relaxation (at own expense).

Creativity and tranquility converge at Quynh Vy Rice Painting Studio. Under the patient guidance of local artisans, participants will learn the meditative process of crafting unique artwork using grains of rice, creating a personalized keepsake that blends Vietnamese culture with individual artistic expression. The experience concludes at Ba Xa Vegetarian Restaurant, a hidden gem known for its elegant ambiance and plant-based cuisine. In this serene setting, guests will enjoy a thoughtfully prepared vegetarian lunch, learning about the benefits of a plant-based diet for health, balance, and environmental harmony. After lunch, a guide and driver will provide transfer back to the original pick-up point, concluding a day rich in Saigon's ancient roots and creative spirit.

Activities: Enjoy a traditional pho breakfast at Pho Hung restaurant.
Visit Tan Hung Long Tu herbal medicine temple and clinic.
Explore a herbal garden and receive optional pulse diagnosis/health advice.
