DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Bangkok Arrival & Chao Phraya River Cruise

Meals: NA | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car, Long-tail boat

Upon your arrival at Bangkok Airport, a local guide will extend a warm welcome and facilitate your transfer to the hotel for check-in. The standard check-in time is 2:00 PM. The afternoon offers a captivating introduction to Bangkok's waterways. You will meet your guide again to embark on a traditional long-tail boat journey along the historic Chao Phraya River.
This river cruise takes you through the intricate canal network of Thonburi, providing glimpses into the vibrant daily life of local communities residing along the banks. As the boat makes its return, a stop is made at Wat Arun, famously known as the Temple of Dawn. Here, you can admire its distinctive Buddhist architecture, particularly enchanting as the sun begins to set, casting a golden glow over the temple spires. After this picturesque experience, you will return to your hotel, with the evening free to explore Bangkok's lively nightlife at your leisure.

Activities: Arrive at Bangkok Airport and transfer to hotel.
Embark on a long-tail boat excursion along the Chao Phraya River.
Explore the Thonburi canal maze.
Visit Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn) at sunset.
Enjoy leisure time to discover Bangkok's evening atmosphere.

Day 2 — Bangkok Royal Grandeur & Silk Heritage

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car

Begin your day with breakfast before heading to the Grand Royal Palace, a significant landmark and former residence of the Thai Royal family. Within this expansive complex, you will encounter the breathtaking Wat Phra Kaew, home to the revered Emerald Buddha. The intricate designs and spiritual significance of this temple offer profound insights into Thai culture and artistry.
Following your visit to the Grand Palace, the journey continues to Wat Pho, where the colossal reclining Buddha statue awaits.

This impressive monument is a highlight, showcasing remarkable craftsmanship. After some personal time for lunch, the afternoon takes you to the Jim Thompson House. This traditional Thai teak house museum tells the story of an American businessman who significantly influenced the global Thai silk industry.
Discover the unique architecture and fascinating history of Jim Thompson's life in Thailand, including his contributions to Thai silk. Conclude your day with a transfer back to your hotel, leaving the remainder of the evening open for your own exploration.

Activities: Visit the Grand Royal Palace and Wat Phra Kaew.
Contemplate the Emerald Buddha statue.
See the giant reclining Buddha at Wat Pho.
Explore the Jim Thompson House museum.
Observe traditional Thai teak houses and silk heritage.

Day 3 Ancient Ayutthaya Exploration

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Car

After breakfast at your hotel, embark on a journey back in time to the ancient city of Ayutthaya. Your first stop outside the old city walls is Wat Phu Khao Thong, known as the 'Monastery of the Golden Mount.' This site offers a glimpse into the region's historical and religious landscape.
Proceed into the heart of Ayutthaya to explore the remnants of a once-mighty dynasty. A key site is Wat Phra Si Sanphet, featuring three Sri Lankan-style chedis that once housed the ashes of three Ayutthayan kings: Ramathibodi II, Borom Trailokkanat, and Borom Rachathirat III. Next, visit Viharn Phra Mongkol Bopit, which shelters a large, gilded Buddha image, one of the few to survive the Burmese invasion in the late 18th century. Enjoy lunch at your leisure to refuel.
The afternoon highlights include the colossal reclining Buddha at Wat Lokaya Sutha, where locals traditionally place gold leaf for blessings. Conclude your Ayutthaya exploration at the Bang Pa-In Summer Palace, a favored royal retreat renowned for its eclectic mix of European, Khmer, Thai, and Chinese architectural styles. As the day ends, return to your Bangkok hotel for relaxation.

Day 5 Angkor Wat & Angkor Thom Grand Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Car

After a refreshing breakfast, prepare for a full day of exploration into the heart of the glorious Khmer Empire, beginning at 8:00 AM. Your guide will lead you first to Angkor Thom, the last great capital city, entering through its impressive South Gate. Here, you will marvel at the intricate sandstone constructions, including statues of deities and demons clutching nagas.
Within Angkor Thom, discover the iconic Bayon Temple, distinguished by its 54 towers adorned with over 200 serene smiling faces of Avalokiteshvara. The tour continues to other significant structures such as Phimeanakas, the Royal Enclosure, the Elephants Terrace, and the Terrace of the Leper King. A highlight of the morning is the mysterious Ta Prohm Temple, famously known as the 'Tomb Raider' temple, where ancient stone structures are intertwined with giant fig trees and sprawling vines, creating a truly unique photographic opportunity. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant, offering a taste of Cambodian cuisine.
The afternoon is reserved for the magnificent Angkor Wat, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the most celebrated temple in the Angkor Plain. Your guide will illuminate the authentic ancient Khmer architecture, explaining how its five towers symbolize the peaks of Mount Meru, the surrounding wall represents the mountains at the world's edge, and the moat signifies the distant ocean. As the sun begins its descent and your day of exploration concludes, you will return to town.

Day 9 Cu Chi Tunnels & Ho Chi Minh City Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh | Transport: Car

After breakfast around 8:00 AM, depart from the urban bustle of Ho Chi Minh City for a two-hour drive to the historic Cu Chi Tunnels. Upon arrival, you will find yourself in serene surroundings, ready to delve into this significant historical site. The visit begins with an informative film detailing the tunnels' history and their crucial role during the war.

Explore the jungle environment to discover cleverly hidden traps, secret entrances, bunkers, and underground hideouts. You will have the opportunity to venture into a section of the extensive tunnel network, experiencing the cramped conditions where soldiers lived and worked. For those interested, there is a chance to try a shooting rifle at an optional range. Conclude your Cu Chi experience with a taste of specialty cassava and local green tea. Return to the city center for lunch, sampling regional cuisine.

The afternoon continues with a tour of Ho Chi Minh City's most prominent landmarks. Visit the Reunification Palace, a site rich in modern Vietnamese history. Capture photos in its airy square and admire the French colonial architecture. Next, see the Old Post Office and Notre Dame Cathedral (currently under renovation, viewable from outside), appreciating their architectural grandeur. The War Remnants Museum offers a poignant look at the Vietnam War through realistic artifacts. Conclude your day with a stroll through Ben Thanh Market, observing local commerce and perhaps practicing your bargaining skills for souvenirs. The tour ends back at your hotel.
