Day 3Khao Yai National Park Hike & Bangkok Evening Food Tour

Meals: B,L,D | Stay: Anantara Riverside Bangkok Resort | Transport: Private AC vehicle, Tuk-Tuk

This morning, embark on a two-hour drive to Khao Yai National Park, a haven for nature enthusiasts renowned for its abundant flora and fauna. The park is home to a diverse array of wildlife, including elephants, monkeys, deer, and over 400 species of birds. It is advisable to wear long-sleeved clothing due to the presence of various insects and reptiles.

Upon arrival, you will trek along one of the park's scenic trails, allowing you to fully appreciate the beautiful mountainous landscape. The national park features several stunning waterfalls, providing excellent photo opportunities; among them, Haew Suwat is particularly famous as a filming location for 'The Beach'. In the afternoon, return to Bangkok for a brief rest before your evening activities.

As night falls, experience Bangkok's vibrant street food culture on an exciting tuk-tuk food tour. Your driver will take you through bustling areas like Chinatown, the Flower Market, and Khao San Road, stopping at various street food stalls and local eateries. Sample a wide range of traditional Thai delicacies, such as Pad Thai, green curry, and mango sticky rice, with adventurous options like fried insects available. The tour also includes a visit to Khlong Toei Market, known for its fresh produce, meat, and seafood, open daily until late. This market was recognized by CNN in 2010 for its authenticity. Conclude your day with an overnight stay in Bangkok.

Day 4Thai Countryside Markets & River LifeMeals: B,L | Stay: Anantara Riverside Bangkok Resort | Transport: Private AC vehicle, paddle boat, long-tail boat*

After breakfast at your hotel, take a short drive from Bangkok's urban landscape to the verdant rural scenery of Samut Songkhram Province, approximately an hour away. This full-day excursion offers a glimpse into the traditional charm of the Thai countryside. Your day begins at a local railway station, home to a unique country market situated directly along the tracks. Witness vendors swiftly clearing their stalls as a train approaches, only to re-establish them moments after it passes.

From the railway market, your journey continues to the renowned Damnoen Saduak Floating Market. While now a popular tourist attraction, it still provides an excellent representation of a traditional floating market from decades past. Enjoy a relaxing paddle boat ride through the intricate network of canals, observing the older sections of the market and the local way of life along the waterways. After disembarking, you'll have time to stroll through the colorful marketplace, bustling with boats and vendors selling tropical fruits and other local delights.

The tour proceeds with a long-tail boat ride to a local Buddhist temple and the King Rama II Memorial Park, which features an exquisite collection of Thai-style pavilions. If your visit falls on a Friday, Saturday, or Sunday, the day will conclude with an exploration of the weekend floating market at Amphawa, offering a lively evening atmosphere. Spend the night back in Bangkok.

Activities: Drive to Samut Songkhram Province

Day 6Golden Triangle Exploration & Mae Salong TeaMeals: B | Stay: The Riverie by Katathani Hotel | Transport: Private AC vehicle, river boat*

After breakfast at your hotel, your morning begins with a scenic drive uphill to Mae Salong. This area is famous for its tea production, offering opportunities for tea-tasting and purchasing local blends. While formal plantation tours are not typically offered, you are welcome to walk into the plantations to capture photographs of the beautiful landscape. Doi Mae Salong is also home to Santi Khiri Village, a unique community established by the former Chinese 93rd Division who settled in Thailand in 1961, known for its enchanting scenery and peaceful ambiance.

Continue your journey to the Opium House Museum, where you can learn about the history and impact of opium in the region. Following this, you will proceed to the iconic Golden Triangle area, a historically significant point where the borders of Thailand, Laos, and Myanmar converge. Here, you'll have the chance to embark on a river boat ride along the mighty Mae Khong River. This cruise offers stunning views of the landscapes that delineate the three countries, providing a unique perspective of the border region before you return to the mainland of Chiang Rai. Conclude your day with an overnight stay in Chiang Rai.

Day 7White Temple & Journey to Chiang MaiMeals: B,L | Stay: Na Nirand Romantic Boutique Resort | Transport: Private AC vehicle*

Begin your day with breakfast and bid farewell to Chiang Rai as you embark on a scenic three-hour drive, covering approximately 200 kilometers, towards Chiang Mai. Along the way, your first stop will be at the visually striking Wat Rong Khun, famously known as the White Temple. This contemporary, privately owned art exhibit in the style of a Buddhist temple offers a unique and intricate architectural experience.

Continue your journey with a coffee break at Chivit Thamma Da, a delightful coffee house nestled in an English garden setting by the Mae Ping River, providing a tranquil spot to relax. You will also make a brief stop at Mae Khachan Hot Springs, where you can observe the natural thermal activity. Arrive in Chiang Mai just in time for a delicious lunch, featuring a bowl of Khao Soy at Monsoon Tea House Restaurant. Khao Soy, Chiang Mai's signature dish, is a rich coconut curry noodle soup that promises to tantalize your taste buds.

After lunch, take the opportunity to learn more about sustainable and organic Monsoon tea from the founder of the restaurant, gaining insights into its production and philosophy. The remainder of the afternoon allows for some relaxation before your overnight stay in Chiang Mai, ready for further exploration of this cultural city.

Day 8Doi Suthep Alms & Chiang Mai Night Culture

Meals: B,L,D | Stay: Na Nirand Romantic Boutique Resort | Transport: Private AC vehicle

Your day begins with an early departure from the hotel at 6:00 AM, heading to the foothills of Doi Suthep Mountain. Here, you'll have the opportunity to purchase offerings and join local residents for the daily alms-giving ceremony. Witness the serene procession of dozens of Buddhist monks walking barefoot, collecting food and everyday necessities (a takeaway breakfast box will be provided by your hotel).

Continue your ascent up the mountain to Wat Doi Suthep. Climb the 309 steps of the Golden Naga staircase to reach the temple's golden pagodas, offering panoramic views of Chiang Mai. Next, proceed to Wat Umong, a 14th-century temple set within a heavily forested area, covered in moss and lush plants. After exploring its mysterious tunnels, you will arrive at the Viharn (sermon hall) for a private blessing ceremony. Your morning concludes with a visit to Wat Suan Dok, a temple renowned for its whitewashed Lanna stupas, followed by a delicious bowl of khao soi, a famous Northern Thai dish combining coconut cream, crispy noodles, and spices.

The afternoon is reserved for leisure. As evening approaches, embark on a Chiang Mai night discovery tour to see the city transform after dark. The tour commences at a local temple, where you can join monks in their nightly chanting prayers, lighting incense or a candle to partake in this spiritual event. Following this, enjoy dinner at the beautiful Rachamankha Hotel. The evening concludes with a drive to the lively Waroros Market, a hub of local life brimming with fresh flowers and street food stalls. Explore the market and sample some local Thai sweets before returning to your hotel for the night.
