DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Bangkok Arrival & Evening Street Food Tuk-Tuk Adventure

Meals: Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Tuk-tuk

Upon your arrival in Bangkok, you will be transferred to your hotel to settle in. As evening descends, prepare for an exciting culinary journey through the city's lively streets. At 7:00 PM, meet your local guide at Phetchaburi Soi 10, a hub of enticing aromas and colorful food stalls. Your adventure begins with tasting some of Bangkok's long-standing favorite dishes, offering a delicious introduction to Thai cuisine.

The tuk-tuk then transports you to Saphan Khao Market, a bustling wholesale market where you can discover a wide array of fresh fruits directly from local farms. Next, explore Phra Athit Road, a renowned spot for food enthusiasts, where you will have the chance to sample Bangkok’s famous Roti and various curries. A highlight of the evening is indulging in Pad Thai at a legendary establishment, a quintessential Thai experience.

As night deepens, the tour takes a cultural turn with a visit to Wat Pho. This temple, home to the majestic Reclining Buddha, glows beautifully under the night sky, offering a serene contrast to the earlier culinary excitement. The final stop is Pak Khlong Talat, Bangkok’s largest flower market, which buzzes with activity and vibrant blooms late into the night. The tour concludes around 11:00 PM, with a convenient tuk-tuk drop-off at Siam BTS Station.

Activities: Meet local guide for evening food tour

Day 2 Grand Palace, Temples & Thonburi Canal Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Private vehicle, long-tail boat

Your day begins after breakfast with a comprehensive exploration of Bangkok's most significant cultural landmarks. The first stop is the Grand Palace, an architectural marvel and the historical heart of the Thai monarchy, revered as one of the nation's most sacred sites. Within its expansive grounds, you will visit Wat Phra Kaew, which enshrines the Emerald Buddha, a profoundly spiritual icon for the Thai people.

Following this, you will proceed to Wat Pho, one of Bangkok’s oldest and most important Buddhist temples, situated along the Chao Phraya River. This temple is famed for its colossal 45-meter-long Reclining Buddha statue, adorned with intricate mother-of-pearl inlay on its soles, symbolizing the Buddha’s final moments. A local restaurant lunch, payable on site, will provide a midday break.

In the early afternoon, take a leisurely walk through Chinatown, experiencing its diverse culinary and cultural offerings. A transfer then takes you to Wat Traimit, home to the impressive Golden Buddha statue. Later, board a long-tail boat for a scenic cruise along the Chao Phraya River and the narrower canals of Thonburi. This boat ride reveals a different perspective of the city, showcasing traditional wooden houses, local markets, and riverside temples. Conclude your day with a stop at Wat Arun, the Temple of Dawn, to appreciate its distinct design as the sun sets, before returning to your hotel for relaxation.

Walk through Chinatown
See the Golden Buddha statue at Wat Traimit
Cruise the Chao Phraya River and Thonburi canals by long-tail boat
Stop at Wat Arun (Temple of Dawn) for sunset views

Day 3 Maeklong Railway & Damnoen Saduak Floating Markets

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Bangkok | Transport: Private vehicle, motorboat

After breakfast, journey southwest from Bangkok to witness the extraordinary Maeklong Railway Market. This unique market is set directly on an active train track, where vendors expertly arrange their stalls. Moments before a train approaches, they swiftly retract their awnings and goods in a coordinated dance, creating a memorable spectacle. Take time to observe this fascinating scene, capture photographs, and sample some local snacks.

Your trip continues into the rural landscape to explore the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market. Here, you will board a motorboat, gliding past traditional wooden houses and numerous vendors selling their wares from boats. This is an ideal opportunity to

Day 4 Fly to Phuket & Island Leisure Time

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Katathani Phuket Beach Resort | Transport: Flight, private vehicle

Following breakfast, you will be transferred to Bangkok's airport for a short domestic flight to Phuket, Thailand's largest and most popular island destination. This brief journey transitions you from the urban vibrancy of Bangkok to the serene tropical landscapes of the south. Upon landing at Phuket International Airport, a local guide will extend a warm welcome and provide a comfortable transfer to your chosen hotel, conveniently situated either along the picturesque coastline or near the lively town center.

The remainder of your day is entirely at your disposal to relax and acclimate to the tropical environment. You might choose to unwind at your resort, take a refreshing dip in the turquoise waters of the Andaman Sea, or enjoy a leisurely stroll along the vibrant beachside streets, soaking in the initial impressions of island life. Allow Phuket's serene atmosphere and abundant sunshine to set the tone for your island escape, offering a perfect start to your beach holiday.

Activities: Transfer to Bangkok airport
Fly from Bangkok to Phuket
Transfer to Phuket hotel
Enjoy free time at leisure (e.g., relax at resort, swim, walk on beach)

Day 5 Phang Nga Bay Catamaran Cruise & Elephant Trekking

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Katathani Phuket Beach Resort | Transport: Private vehicle, speed catamaran, canoe, elephant

Your exciting day of island exploration begins with a hotel pick-up around 8:00 AM for a join-in group tour. The first stop is Suwankhuha Temple, also known as the Monkey Cave, a tranquil Buddhist temple nestled within a limestone cave, where playful monkeys often greet visitors near the entrance. Next, you will board a speed catamaran to cruise into the stunning emerald waters of Phang Nga Bay National Park.

Glide through lush mangrove forests, marveling at the towering limestone cliffs that dramatically rise from the sea. Arrive at the iconic James Bond Island (Khao Phing Kan & Khao Tapu), famously featured in "The Man with the Golden Gun," where you will have approximately 30 minutes to explore and capture memorable photos. The adventure continues with a guided canoeing trip through Lot Cave, paddling through unique sea caves and hidden lagoons.

A cultural and culinary interlude awaits at Koh Panyee, a fascinating floating Muslim fishing village built entirely on stilts.

Day 6 Phuket Leisure & Siam Niramit Cultural Show

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Katathani Phuket Beach Resort | Transport: Private vehicle (for show transfer, implied)

Enjoy a leisurely morning and afternoon in Phuket, allowing you to fully absorb the island's relaxed ambiance before the evening's entertainment. This free time is perfect for independent exploration, unwinding by the pool, or simply enjoying the beach at your own pace.

As evening approaches, prepare for an enchanting cultural experience at the Siam Niramit Phuket show. Before the main performance, you will be treated to a generous buffet dinner, featuring a wide array of both Thai and Western dishes. You will also have time to explore the pre-show attractions, which include a traditional village setup ideal for photographs, a Victory Parade showcasing elephants and warriors, and various souvenir shops offering handcrafted Thai art.

Once the show begins, you will be transported through centuries of Thai history and mythology. With over 150 performers, elaborate costumes, and cutting-edge special effects, the production vividly brings to life the legends, traditions, and spiritual beliefs of ancient Siam. Presented in three captivating acts, Siam Niramit celebrates Thailand’s rich cultural diversity and festive spirit, providing an educational and memorable evening.

Day 9 Cu Chi Tunnels History & Saigon City Landmarks

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Renaissance Riverside Hotel Saigon | Transport: Private vehicle

Your day begins at 8:00 AM with a pick-up for a journey to the Cu Chi Tunnels, located approximately two hours outside Ho Chi Minh City. As you travel, observe the peaceful countryside scenery, a stark contrast to the historical significance of your destination. Upon arrival, you will watch a short documentary that explains the construction and strategic importance of this extensive underground network, which served as a hiding place, supply route, and living quarters for Vietnamese soldiers during the war.

You will then have the opportunity to navigate a section of the tunnels yourself, gaining a firsthand appreciation for the ingenious engineering involved. Before returning to the city, a light lunch featuring local specialties will be provided. In the afternoon, your city tour commences with visits to two prominent French colonial landmarks: the Notre Dame Cathedral and the Saigon Central Post Office, both showcasing exquisite 19th-century European architectural styles.

Next, you will proceed to the Reunification Palace, formerly the residence of South Vietnam’s president and now a powerful symbol of the country’s reunification, featuring a harmonious blend of modernist and Asian design. The tour continues to the War Remnants Museum, offering a compelling perspective on the realities of the Vietnam War through its collection of photographs and exhibits. Conclude your day by experiencing the lively atmosphere of Ben Thanh Market, where you can

Day 11 Vinh Hy Bay Coral Snorkeling & Grape Garden Visit

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ninh Thuan | Transport: Private vehicle, glass-bottom boat

Your day begins early with a private guide and driver departing from your hotel at 7:30 AM for Vinh Hy Bay, renowned as one of Vietnam's most pristine coastal areas. The scenic drive passes through Cam Ranh and along the Binh Tien - Vinh Hy route, offering breathtaking views of rolling hills meeting the turquoise sea before you reach the bay itself.

Upon arrival, you will board a glass-bottom boat, allowing you to marvel at the vibrant coral reefs and diverse marine life directly beneath your feet. The boat will then transport you to Ba Dien (Mad Lady) Beach, where you can choose to snorkel and swim using provided private equipment, or simply relax on the soft sands. This idyllic spot also presents an excellent chance to savor fresh seafood while enjoying the serene ocean setting.

After a satisfying lunch included in the tour, your journey continues with a stop at a local grape garden, a specialty of the region. Here, you can take photos and purchase unique grape-based souvenirs for loved ones. Following the tour, you will return to your hotel in Ninh Thuan for a well-deserved rest and some leisure time after a day of coastal exploration.
