DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Hanoi Arrival & Water Puppet Performance

Meals: NA | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi

Upon your arrival at Noi Bai International Airport in Hanoi, a local guide will extend a warm welcome and facilitate your transfer to your city center hotel. After checking in and taking some time to refresh, your family's Vietnamese adventure begins with a captivating cultural presentation. You will attend a traditional Vietnamese water puppet show, an ancient art form originating from the Red River Delta over a millennium ago. This unique theatrical experience brings traditional folklore and scenes of rural life to a water-filled stage, with skilled puppeteers orchestrating the wooden figures from behind a screen.
Accompanied by live folk music and rhythmic drumming, the performance offers an engaging spectacle for both adults and children. As evening descends over Hanoi's lakes and colonial architecture, the rest of the night is yours to enjoy at your leisure. You might choose to sample local delicacies, take a walk through the illuminated streets of the Old Quarter, or simply relax and absorb the city's lively atmosphere, setting the tone for the exciting days ahead.

Activities: Meet your local guide at Noi Bai International Airport.
Transfer to your Hanoi hotel and check in.
Attend a traditional Vietnamese water puppet show.
Enjoy free time to explore Hanoi's Old Quarter or dine.

Day 2 — Hanoi City Exploration & Cyclo Ride

Following breakfast, convene in the hotel lobby to meet your guide, who will introduce today's exploration of Hanoi's rich history and vibrant character. The day's itinerary combines cultural landmarks, architectural insights, and traditional experiences, paced comfortably for families. Your first visit is to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the revered final resting place of Vietnam's iconic leader. Located in Ba Dinh Square, this solemn monument embodies national pride and respect. Adjacent to the mausoleum, you will walk through the verdant grounds of the Presidential Palace and see the simple house-on-stilts where Ho Chi Minh resided, offering a poignant glimpse into his life.

Next, you will visit the distinctive One Pillar Pagoda, an elegant wooden temple built in 1049, rising from a single stone pillar. Its lotus-like shape symbolizes purity and enlightenment, with intricate carvings and a serene setting making it a memorable stop.

The tour continues to the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university, established in 1070. This tranquil complex of courtyards, gardens, and ancient stone stelae once hosted generations of scholars. You can wander beneath the archways, imagining the intellectual pursuits that once took place here, and capture photos amidst the traditional Vietnamese architecture.

To conclude the day, embark on a 45-minute cyclo ride through Hanoi's charming Old Quarter. This relaxed journey allows you to absorb the city's rhythm, passing narrow streets, French colonial buildings, and bustling vendors. It's an enjoyable way to experience Hanoi's energy before returning to your hotel for the evening.

Activities: Visit the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum.
Explore the Presidential Palace grounds and Ho Chi Minh's house-on-stilts.
See the One Pillar Pagoda.
Stroll through the Temple of Literature.
Enjoy a 45-minute cyclo ride through Hanoi's Old Quarter.

Day 3 Journey to Halong Bay & Overnight Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Halong Cruise

In the morning, your driver will collect you between 8:00 and 8:30 for a smooth transfer from Hanoi to Halong Bay, traversing the new Hanoi - Hai Phong Expressway. Halong Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is renowned for its emerald waters and thousands of towering limestone formations. Upon reaching the port, you will be welcomed aboard your luxury Halong Bay cruise with a refreshing beverage. After a brief orientation and safety briefing, settle into your cabin, preparing for an extraordinary voyage. As the cruise sets sail into the bay's captivating seascape, a gourmet lunch will be served in the onboard restaurant, offering views of limestone pillars, forested islets, and floating fishing communities.

The afternoon invites relaxation, with optional spa and massage treatments available as the vessel glides through the calm waters. Later, prepare for a climb of over 50 steps to the entrance of Surprise Cave (Sung Sot), one of Halong Bay’s most celebrated caverns. Inside, explore a vast network of chambers adorned with dramatic stalactites and stalagmites, illuminated to highlight nature's ancient artistry. The cave's sheer size and ethereal beauty leave a lasting impression. As dusk approaches, return to the boat for a traditional Vietnamese culinary demonstration, where you can learn fruit carving or observe the preparation of local dishes.

In the evening, savor a freshly prepared dinner under the soft glow of lanterns, with the gentle sway of the sea beneath you. Afterward, engage in night squid fishing, play cards or board games in the lounge, or simply enjoy a quiet drink on deck while

Day 4 Halong Bay Tai Chi, Titop Island & Flight to Hoi An

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An

Wake early between 6:30 and 7:00 to experience a peaceful Halong Bay morning, as the rising sun casts golden light upon the limestone formations and shimmering waters. Step onto the deck to witness the bay at its most serene and magical hour. A light breakfast, including fresh coffee and tea, will be served in the dining room. Afterward, participate in a rejuvenating Tai Chi class on the sundeck, a graceful way to awaken the body amidst the bay's tranquil beauty.

Today's highlight is a visit to Titop Island, a crescent-shaped haven known for its clear waters, white sands, and panoramic views. Spend time swimming in the calm sea or ascend the island’s staircase trail to a large observation platform. From this vantage point, enjoy sweeping 360-degree views of the bay's breathtaking expanse, providing a perfect conclusion to your Halong Bay journey. Return to the cruise ship for a brunch buffet, featuring a variety of Vietnamese and international dishes. You will have time to pack or relax on the sundeck as the cruise gently returns to port.

As the cruise approaches Tuan Chau Port, take a moment to absorb the final views of Halong Bay. Upon disembarking, your driver will meet you for a comfortable transfer to the airport. Board your flight to Da Nang, then continue by road to Hoi An, a charming ancient town celebrated for its lanterns and heritage. After checking into your hotel, the evening is yours to relax and prepare for the next part of your family's adventure in Vietnam.

Chinese, and Japanese influences. The day commences with an enjoyable hands-on lantern-making workshop, where local artisans will guide your family through the process of creating Hoi An's most recognizable symbol. From selecting vibrant silk fabrics to shaping bamboo frames, both children and adults will delight in crafting their own lantern, a perfect souvenir to cherish at home.

Following the workshop, embark on a walking tour through the enchanting lanes of Hoi An Ancient Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site situated along the Thu Bon River. Golden-yellow buildings, traditional wooden shopfronts, and colorful lanterns create a picturesque setting as you wander past riverside cafés and serene courtyards. A stop at the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, constructed in the 17th century by Japanese merchants, symbolizes peace and connection. Its curved wooden structure, adorned with a pagoda roof and stone guardian statues, reflects the rich cultural exchange that once defined this multicultural port.

Continue to the elegant Fujian Assembly Hall, a place of worship and community for Chinese immigrants from Fujian Province. This temple is a masterpiece of intricate woodwork, vibrant dragon sculptures, and the aroma of burning incense, offering a glimpse into Hoi An's diverse spiritual life. As evening approaches, explore the lively Hoi An wet market, where the town's energy truly comes alive. Observe vendors selling everything from exotic fruits to fresh seafood and fragrant herbs, providing a sensory experience and a vivid portrayal of local daily life. Before returning to your hotel, enjoy some time to shop for handcrafted souvenirs, including silk scarves, embroidered garments, and, of course, glowing lanterns.

Activities: Participate in a lantern-making workshop.
Take a walking tour of Hoi An Ancient Town.
Visit the Japanese Covered Bridge.

Wander through the Hoi An wet market.
Shop for local souvenirs.

Day 6 Hoi An Countryside Cycling & River Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An

Spend a relaxing day cycling through the picturesque Vietnamese countryside, away from the urban bustle. Departing around 08:30, you will explore peaceful villages and lush landscapes along quiet village paths, free from motorbikes and traffic. The journey includes crossing the Song Thu River delta using local ferries and floating bridges, offering an authentic glimpse into rural life. Along the way, you will discover traditional crafts such as the creation of wooden river boats and learn the age-old technique of weaving colorful Hoi An-style sleeping mats. You will also have the opportunity to try navigating the famous Vietnamese basket boats, adding a unique and immersive experience to your day.

This journey provides an intimate encounter with rural life, offering genuine, off-the-beaten-path experiences. At midday, you will be welcomed into the home of a local Vietnamese family, where you will enjoy a traditional lunch and have the chance to learn more about their customs and way of life. After a restful break under the shade of a mango tree, you will return to Hoi An by boat, a peaceful 35-minute journey that brings your memorable day to a close.

Activities: Cycle through the Hoi An countryside.

Day 9 Cu Chi Tunnels & Vietnamese Cooking Class

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh

Begin your day with a scenic drive from Ho Chi Minh City at 7:30, heading northwest into the serene countryside of Cu Chi District. This area, significant during the Vietnam War, also provides a beautiful glimpse into rural life, with rice fields swaying in the breeze and ponds reflecting the morning sun. Your first stop is the Ho Chi Minh Agricultural Villages, where you will stroll among vibrant vegetable gardens, fish ponds, and fruit orchards. This offers a refreshing immersion into Vietnam's agrarian heritage, providing an excellent opportunity for both children and adults to learn about traditional farming practices.

Following this hands-on introduction to the local ecosystem, join a lively cooking class led by passionate local chefs. Roll up your sleeves and learn to prepare three authentic Vietnamese dishes and a dessert, from fresh spring rolls to caramelized clay pot fish, all utilizing fresh ingredients harvested nearby. Continue your cultural exploration with a visit to a rice paper-making village, where you will observe the intricate process of crafting this essential ingredient by hand. Afterward, take a short walk through a nearby rubber tree forest, witnessing how latex is carefully tapped from tree bark, another aspect of Vietnam's rural economy.

The day’s highlight follows with an insightful visit to the famous Cu Chi Tunnels, an extensive underground labyrinth stretching over 250 kilometers. Start with an informative video providing historical context, then venture into the tunnels to experience the resilience and ingenuity of Vietnamese soldiers during wartime. Explore hidden chambers, camouflaged trapdoors, and Hoang Cam's smokeless kitchen. For those seeking an additional thrill, an optional AK-47 shooting experience with real bullets is available at a designated range (payment on-site). Before departing, sample boiled tapioca and hot tea, a simple meal that sustained soldiers. At 17:30, your driver will return you to your hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, leaving you with lasting memories of history, cuisine, and countryside life.

Activities:
Drive to Cu Chi District.
Visit Ho Chi Minh Agricultural Villages.
Participate in a Vietnamese cooking class.
Observe rice paper making.
Walk through a rubber tree forest.

lush and fertile southern heartland. Upon arrival at the Cai Be tourist pier, board a traditional wooden boat operated by Mekong Ecolodge, ready to cruise through a world shaped by rivers and canals. Your first stop is the vibrant Cai Be Floating Market, where local vendors navigate small boats laden with fruits, vegetables, and daily goods. Witness the lively exchanges as produce changes hands across the water, a floating bazaar that has thrived for generations.

From there, continue to the nearby Com Candy Craft Village, where you will learn how sweet puffed rice treats are made. Sample freshly baked candy nuggets, still warm from the fire, then proceed to a local bee farm to sip fragrant honey tea and observe the buzzing production process. Cruising deeper into the delta, your boat will arrive at Tan Phong Island, a peaceful oasis known for its abundant fruit orchards. Here, durian, rambutan, jackfruit, and longan trees flourish, creating a sensory delight for the entire family. At a traditional garden home, you will be treated to a folk music exchange, with melodic notes of southern Vietnamese instruments drifting on the breeze. Enjoy a cup of tea and a plate of fresh tropical fruit during the performance.

Next, board a smaller boat for a peaceful ride through the narrow, tree-shaded canals that crisscross Tan Phong Island. After disembarking, check in at the charming Mekong Ecolodge, where a delicious lunch awaits and a comfortable room provides a tranquil place to rest. In the afternoon, explore the ecolodge's lush grounds, wandering through colorful flower gardens, picking fruits directly from trees, and absorbing the rhythms of delta life. Then, around 16:00, join a local guide in the fun and muddy tradition of "slapping the ditch" to catch fish, mimicking local farmers. You will also gather herbs and vegetables from the garden, which will be used in your evening meal. As the sun sets over the coconut palms, gather to cook alongside the chef, utilizing the ingredients you helped collect. This immersive farm-to-table experience culminates in a cozy, shared family dinner filled with laughter, stories, and the rich flavors of the Mekong.

Activities: Travel from Ho Chi Minh City to Cai Be.
Cruise through Cai Be Floating Market.
Visit Com Candy Craft Village and a local bee farm.
Arrive at Tan Phong Island and enjoy folk music.
Take a small boat ride through island canals.
Check into Mekong Ecolodge and have lunch.
Explore the ecolodge grounds.
Participate in fish catching and vegetable gathering.
Cook and enjoy a family dinner.

Day 11 Tan Phong Island Crafts & Return to Ho Chi Minh City

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh

Begin your final morning in the Mekong Delta with a gentle bicycle ride around Tan Phong Island. Quiet village paths lead through tropical orchards, vibrant flower gardens, and rice fields dotted with traditional stilt houses. This immersive cycling experience provides a wonderful opportunity to connect with local residents and observe daily life along the riverbanks. Your first stop is a hands-on visit to a rice paper workshop, where skilled artisans demonstrate the traditional technique of crafting this essential ingredient in Vietnamese cuisine. Watch as rice batter is thinly spread on bamboo mats and steamed into translucent sheets.

Next, discover the unique and fascinating art of hammock weaving using banana rope, and even try weaving a section yourself under the guidance of a local expert. Continue to a welcoming village home, where you will explore the craft of water hyacinth weaving, a sustainable practice that transforms a common plant into beautiful, eco-friendly baskets, mats, and accessories. Under your host's careful instruction, create your own small souvenir to take home. Then, learn about the intricate art of crafting bamboo nail files, a clever example of how local communities creatively utilize available natural materials.
The morning concludes with a delightful cooking activity focused on jackfruit leaf cakes, a traditional Mekong treat known for its soft, chewy texture and subtly sweet flavor. As you prepare the cakes with your host, you will not only learn the recipe but also enjoy the fruits of your labor in a light, homemade tasting session. At 12:00, bid farewell to the gentle rhythms of Tan Phong Island and board the ferry to Hiep Duc, where your transfer awaits. Relax during the drive back to Ho Chi Minh City, returning to the energy of Vietnam's southern hub filled with unforgettable memories of the Mekong's warmth and hospitality.

Day 12 Flight to Siem Reap & Angkor Wat Sunset

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Depart from Ho Chi Minh City and board your international flight to Siem Reap, the cultural heart of Cambodia and the gateway to one of the world's most magnificent architectural wonders. Upon arrival, you will be warmly welcomed by your local guide and transferred to your hotel for check-in and a brief rest before the afternoon's adventure. In the afternoon, set out for a truly remarkable experience: witnessing the sunset over the majestic Angkor Wat, the crown jewel of Khmer architecture. This sprawling temple complex, constructed in the early 12th century by King Suryavarman II, stands as the largest religious monument globally and is a designated UNESCO World Heritage Site.
As you pass through the stone gates, explore the ornate galleries and intricate bas-reliefs that narrate epic tales from ancient Hindu mythology and royal history. The craftsmanship is awe-inspiring, with every detail meticulously etched into sandstone by Khmer artisans over 800 years ago. Wander through the serene courtyards and along reflective pools as the light begins to soften. As the sun dips behind the lotus-shaped towers, casting golden hues across the temple's iconic silhouette, find a quiet spot to pause and absorb the moment of stillness and wonder, perfect for the entire family. After sunset, return to your hotel in Siem Reap, filled with awe from your initial encounter with Cambodia's legendary temple complex, and ready for further cultural discoveries in the days to come.

Activities: Fly from Ho Chi Minh City to Siem Reap.
Transfer to your Siem Reap hotel and check in.

Day 13 Kompong Phluk Floating Village & Apsara Dinner Show

Meals: Breakfast, Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap

Depart from Siem Reap on a scenic drive to Kompong Phluk, a distinctive floating village situated approximately 22 kilometers southeast of the city. This remarkable community is built upon towering stilts, ranging from 8 to 10 meters high, rising dramatically above the floodwaters of Tonle Sap Lake. Tonle Sap is Southeast Asia's largest freshwater lake and one of the region's richest ecosystems. Upon arrival, you will board a traditional wooden boat and glide slowly through the labyrinth of stilted homes, where daily life unfolds above the water.
As you cruise deeper into the flooded mangrove forests, observe the tranquility of nature and listen for the calls of water birds that thrive in this lush habitat. The area supports over a hundred species of freshwater fish and countless birds, making it a vital sanctuary for both people and wildlife. After the cruise, return to Siem Reap for a brief rest at your hotel. In the evening, gather for a vibrant dinner show, where classical Apsara dancers, adorned in ornate silk costumes, perform graceful movements that recount ancient stories of love, legends, and Khmer heritage. Savor a flavorful meal of Cambodian delicacies as music and dance bring the culture of the kingdom to life, providing an unforgettable farewell to your Southeast Asia journey.
