Day 3 Lan Ha Bay Cruise and Village Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Lan Ha Bay Cruise | Transport: Private transfer, cruise, bicycle/e-cart

Today, depart Hanoi for one of Vietnam's most stunning natural landscapes, Lan Ha Bay, a serene extension of the renowned Halong Bay. After breakfast, journey to the Lan Ha Bay Marina. Here, you will board the luxurious Heritage Line 'Ginger', an elegant vessel designed with Indochine aesthetics and contemporary comforts. Settle into your suite and enjoy a leisurely lunch as the ship begins its tranquil journey through a breathtaking seascape of misty islets and quiet coves.

In the afternoon, your first excursion takes you to Viet Hai Village, nestled within a lush valley on Cat Ba Island. Surrounded by jungle-covered mountains and bamboo groves, explore the village by bicycle or e-cart, passing traditional thatched houses and vibrant gardens. This visit provides a unique insight into rural life, where self-sufficiency and tradition are deeply connected to nature.

As evening approaches, return to the Ginger for a hands-on Vietnamese cooking class, where you will learn about fragrant herbs and traditional culinary techniques. Later, gather in the elegant dining room for a delightful multi-course Vietnamese dinner, celebrating regional flavors. The evening unfolds amidst lantern-lit waters, surrounded by the gentle sounds of the bay.

Day 4 Kayaking in Lan Ha Bay and Flight to Siem Reap

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Cruise, private transfer, flight

Start your day with the serene beauty of Lan Ha Bay by participating in a peaceful Tai Chi session on the sun-drenched deck. Breathe in the fresh sea air as limestone islets drift by. Later, take a kayak to explore the bay's tranquil corners, paddling past floating villages, hidden lagoons, and towering karsts reflected in the emerald waters. After returning to the ship, a hearty breakfast awaits as the vessel makes its way back to shore.

Following check-out, you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Siem Reap (flight ticket included), with a snack box provided for your journey. Upon arrival in Siem Reap, you will be welcomed and transferred to the elegant Park Hyatt Siem Reap, a luxurious retreat combining colonial charm with modern amenities in the city center. The evening is yours to relax and explore.

You might choose to stroll through the vibrant town center, browse local artisan boutiques, or simply unwind by the hotel's tranquil pool or spa. For an optional cultural experience, consider attending the Phare Circus, a captivating performance of acrobatics, theater, and live music rooted in Cambodian tradition, often performed by talented young artists from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Day 5 Angkor's Ancient Wonders: Temples and Royal Baths

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Private vehicle, walking

Begin your morning at the captivating Ta Prohm Temple, where massive fig tree roots intertwine with crumbling stone walls, creating a surreal blend of nature and ancient architecture. Its moss-covered corridors and quiet atmosphere evoke a sense of a forgotten city, untouched for centuries. Continue to the peaceful Srah Srang, known as the "Royal Bath," a vast reservoir that once served as a ritual bathing site for Angkorian kings.

Nearby, explore the expansive Banteay Kdei, a lesser-visited yet striking temple featuring towering trees and layered galleries, with weathered stone guardians standing resilient. After lunch (at your own expense), your exploration deepens as you enter Angkor Thom, the grand walled capital of the Khmer Empire. Pass through the imposing South Gate, guarded by stone deities, to reach the enigmatic Bayon Temple, where over 200 serene stone faces gaze in every direction.

Stroll along the Terrace of the Elephants, a former royal viewing platform, and the Terrace of the Leper King, adorned with intricate carvings. Experience a moment of spiritual reflection with a traditional blessing at Wat Tang Tock, connecting with Cambodia's living Buddhist traditions. Wander through the ruins of Preah Palilay and the towering Phimeanakas. Optionally, witness the golden sunset over Angkor Wat, a breathtaking conclusion to a day steeped in ancient wonder.

Day 6 Mekong Cruise Embarkation and Kampong Cham Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong River Cruise | Transport: Private transfer, cruise, bus

Today, bid farewell to Siem Reap and prepare for a new chapter of your journey along the storied Mekong River. After a scenic transfer to the meeting point, you will board your luxurious river cruise vessel. Settle into your beautifully appointed cabin and enjoy lunch served on board as the ship begins its leisurely journey downstream, offering timeless river views and warm hospitality.

In the afternoon, embark on your first onshore excursion by bus to Kampong Cham, a historic riverside town known for its bustling commerce and cultural life. This lively town blends old-world charm with a strong community spirit. Continue to Cheung Krok Village, where locals welcome you to observe traditional Cambodian craftsmanship. Watch artisans skillfully weave, carve, and shape natural materials into handmade goods, connecting you to the country's rich cultural heritage. Explore ancient temples, stroll through lush fruit plantations, and savor an authentic Cambodian snack. As the sun begins to set, return to the ship, which is now sailing towards Angkor Ban. Join fellow guests for a special welcome reception on deck, complete with prosecco and canapés, as the river scenery unfolds in soft twilight hues. After a refined dinner on board, relax in the lounge with an optional movie screening, concluding your first evening on the Mekong.

Day 7 River Life and Khmer Silk Weaving Traditions

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong Cruise | Transport: Cruise, walking

Begin your morning with a tranquil Tai Chi session on the open deck, letting the fresh breeze and gentle rhythm of the Mekong River awaken your senses. As the sun rises, the ship docks at the serene village of Angkor Ban, offering a rare glimpse into Cambodia's rustic daily life, seemingly untouched by modern developments. Wander along quiet dirt paths to a local monastery, where the peaceful sound of chanting fills the air. You will have the opportunity to observe monks during their morning class, an intimate and spiritual moment reflecting Buddhist tradition.

Later, return to the ship and continue sailing downstream to the confluence of the Tonle and Mekong Rivers, stopping at the fascinating village of Prek Bangkong, renowned for its intricate silk-weaving craftsmanship. Here, you will witness the entire silk-making process, from reeling delicate threads from silkworm cocoons to hand-dyeing and weaving them into exquisite textiles. Engage with the artisans, whose skills have been passed down through generations. A highlight includes a visit to the heritage house of H.E. Sam-El, a celebrated royal architect, offering insight into Cambodia's architectural heritage.

As the ship resumes its voyage, passing Phnom Penh and gliding into the Tonle River, indulge in a multi-course dinner showcasing local flavors. End the evening with a curated cinema experience onboard, anchored midstream under a starry sky, concluding another rich day along Cambodia's lifeline.

Day 8 Pottery Villages, Ox-Cart Rides, and Phnom Penh Approach

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong River Cruise | Transport: Cruise, ox-cart

The day commences in the tranquil Kampong Laeang region, a mosaic of rice fields and floodplains. This area is known for its enduring pottery-making traditions and a charming pre-Angkorian temple, where weathered sandstone ruins recount tales of Cambodia's early spiritual heritage. From the temple's vantage point, enjoy sweeping views of the vast green plains stretching to the horizon. Return to the ship for a relaxing afternoon tea as you continue sailing along the Tonle Sap's winding course.

Later, arrive at Kampong Tralach, where an authentic journey awaits. Board a traditional ox-cart and slowly traverse picturesque riverside paths, flanked by golden rice paddies and swaying palms. This gentle pace allows you to absorb the rural beauty and connect with the land in a unique way. Your journey leads to a local NGO school and a serene 300-year-old temple, its weathered pillars adorned with saffron offerings and incense smoke. A Buddha shrine within the grounds offers a peaceful space for reflection, providing a culturally rich conclusion to the afternoon.

As dusk descends, the ship begins its final approach to the capital. Glide gently towards Phnom Penh, where the glittering skyline emerges against the twilight. Enjoy the view from the deck as the city's lights shimmer across the water, an enchanting preview of the energy and elegance awaiting exploration tomorrow.

Day 9 Phnom Penh's Royal Grandeur and Poignant History

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong River Cruise | Transport: Cruise, cyclo, private vehicle, walking

Welcome to Phnom Penh, once celebrated as the "Paris of the East," a city where royal grandeur intertwines with poignant historical memories and the pulse of modern life. Begin your day with a leisurely cyclo ride, allowing you to absorb the city's rhythm, its bustling markets, saffron-robed monks, and the scent of incense drifting from hidden temples. Your first stop is the Royal Palace, a resplendent complex showcasing traditional Khmer architecture in shimmering golds and whites. Wander its manicured grounds and marvel at the adjacent Silver Pagoda, whose floor is inlaid with over 5,000 solid silver tiles and whose interior gleams with emerald and crystal Buddha statues.

From regal beauty, transition to reflection at Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum (S21), a former high school transformed into a haunting prison under the Khmer Rouge regime. The exhibits and personal stories offer a powerful and sobering insight into Cambodia's turbulent recent history. After a thoughtful morning, enjoy a traditional lunch at a local restaurant, sampling authentic Khmer cuisine. Continue to the Sosoro Museum, a modern and interactive space that delves deeper into Cambodia's economic and political evolution through the centuries.

As the afternoon light softens, stroll through the French Quarter, where crumbling colonial mansions stand beside lively cafés and art galleries, creating a fascinating juxtaposition of old and new. Conclude your city tour with a visit to Wat Phnom, perched on a gentle hill and considered the spiritual heart of the capital. Surrounded by shady trees and curious monkeys, the temple is a peaceful place to reflect on the layers of culture and history that shape this city. In the evening, unwind aboard the ship before an engaging expert lecture. As night falls, gather on the open deck for an open-air barbecue gala dinner under the stars, accompanied by ethereal Apsara dance performances. For those energized, explore Phnom Penh's vibrant nightlife.

Day 10 Cruising into Vietnam and Tan Chau Arrival

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong River Cruise | Transport: Cruise

Ease into the day with a leisurely morning aboard your river ship, gently gliding downstream towards the Vietnam border. Allow the rhythm of the Mekong to guide your morning, whether you choose to relax with a soothing spa session, stretch out on the sun deck with a book and fresh juice, or energize yourself in the onboard gym. For those with a taste for culinary adventure, join an interactive cooking workshop, where expert chefs will guide you through the art of preparing traditional Vietnamese and Cambodian dishes.

As the afternoon unfolds, the ship makes its graceful arrival in Tan Chau, a tranquil Vietnamese border town embraced by the Mekong's waters. With its laid-back atmosphere and rich cultural diversity, Tan Chau offers a gentle introduction to Vietnam's rhythm of life. This peaceful yet vibrant town invites you to witness scenes of authentic river life and meet locals whose warmth and hospitality reflect the true soul of the Mekong Delta.

Day 11 Mekong Delta Discoveries: Tan Chau to My An Hung

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong Cruise | Transport: Cruise, xe loi, walking

Your day begins in Tan Chau, a peaceful town renowned for its aquaculture and authentic Mekong life. Embrace the local rhythm by climbing into a traditional "xe loi" – a Vietnamese rickshaw – where your personal driver leisurely pedals you through the streets. As you pass bustling workshops, fragrant street food stalls, and colorful shops, you'll be immersed in the hum of everyday life. Pause at a vibrant local market, where you can wander among locals doing their morning shopping, admiring mounds of tropical fruits, woven baskets, and fragrant herbs.

Next, step into the spiritual heart of the region with a visit to a Cao Dai Temple, its colorful architecture and eclectic symbols reflecting the harmony of this syncretic faith. Nearby, gain a firsthand look into the thriving world of aquaculture at a family-run fish farm, learning about the techniques and ingenuity that sustain this important trade. Back on board, a mid-day rest allows you to unwind with the river breeze before joining an enriching presentation on life along the Mekong Delta by expert guides. The journey continues to My An Hung, a tranquil village known for its warm hospitality and lush countryside. Here, you'll visit local homes, sample seasonal fruits, and gain insight into traditional rural life in Vietnam. Enjoy a relaxing stroll through seasonal vegetable fields, then step into a local family's home to share stories and experience their daily lifestyle. As you sip Vietnamese tea and snack on fresh fruit, be captivated by a vibrant traditional dragon dance performance. As the day winds down, unwind during a cocktail hour by the pool, with live music and the sunset casting golden hues across the river, providing a perfect ending before dinner.

Day 12 Binh Thanh Island Crafts and Cai Be Workshops

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Mekong River Cruise | Transport: Cruise, local boat, walking, buggy

Greet your final full day on the Mekong with a peaceful Tai Chi session on deck as the first golden light reflects off the river's surface. After a refreshing breakfast, step aboard a local boat and cruise towards Binh Thanh, a lush island where water hyacinths flourish and village life remains deeply rooted in tradition. As you wander down shaded footpaths, you'll observe villagers weaving colorful mats from hyacinths, a craft passed down through generations. The rhythmic swoosh of weaving and the warm smiles of locals, particularly an endearing elderly couple who have spent a lifetime on this island, bring touching authenticity to the experience.

In the afternoon, journey to the dynamic riverside town of Cai Be, a thriving hub of Mekong craftsmanship. Join a hands-on workshop where artisans skillfully produce the region's iconic treats: crackling pop rice, paper-thin rice wrappers, chewy coconut candy, and rice schnapps. Each station invites you to touch, taste, and try your hand at these traditional techniques, connecting you more intimately with the culture. The adventure continues as you explore one of the many idyllic Mekong River islands, where local life unfolds in quiet harmony with the seasons.

Savor freshly picked tropical fruits – sweet, juicy, and bursting with sunshine – from village gardens, then hop into a buggy for a breezy ride through the settlement. Along the way, stop by a local artisan's home, where intricately woven baskets and mats crafted from water hyacinth reflect the care and creativity of the community. As the ship begins its final sailing journey, the day culminates in a joyful farewell celebration. With the tranquil river flowing and the glow of sunset painting the sky, raise a glass to unforgettable moments, rich connections, and the timeless beauty of the Mekong Delta.

Day 13 Saigon Arrival and City Introduction

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Cruise, private transfer

This morning, savor your final breakfast on board, taking in the peaceful rhythm of the river one last time before disembarking. A comfortable transfer then whisks you away to the elegant Park Hyatt Saigon, nestled in the heart of Ho Chi Minh City. Upon check-in, the remainder of the afternoon is yours to enjoy at your own pace. The dynamic pulse of Saigon awaits your curiosity. Whether you choose to wander the vibrant streets, sip coffee at a French-style café, or simply unwind in the hotel's tranquil surroundings, you'll find plenty to intrigue you. This free afternoon provides an excellent opportunity to begin your personal discovery of the city, absorbing its unique energy and charm.

Day 14 Ho Chi Minh City's Hidden Gems and Historical Insights

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Walking, private vehicle, Vespa (optional evening food tour not included)

Awaken early for an authentic taste of Saigon as it stirs to life. This immersive morning tour delves deep into the soul of the city, where scooters buzz down crowded alleyways, vendors call out at vibrant street markets, and the aroma of freshly brewed coffee fills the air. Begin your culinary journey at what is believed to be Saigon's very first bread stall – a humble cart tucked in a quiet lane. Enjoy this iconic Vietnamese Banh Mi in the way locals do: perched on a small stool in a narrow alley, surrounded by the rhythm of morning chatter.

Continue weaving through the backstreets to visit Saigon's oldest café, a charming time capsule that has been brewing coffee for over 78 years. Here, sip on a hot cup of "stocking coffee," prepared the old-fashioned way with a fabric filter, clay pots, and a charcoal stove – a ritual passed through generations. Your stroll then leads you into Saigon's bustling markets, where vibrant stalls overflow with fresh produce, seafood, and steaming street food. In the colorful maze of the "flower alleys" – the city's largest flower market – breathe in the sweet perfume of orchids, roses, and marigolds while chatting with cheerful florists arranging their morning displays.

As the day unfolds, explore Saigon's architectural and historical treasures that reveal its complex past. Marvel at the elegant Saigon Notre Dame Cathedral, a French colonial masterpiece built with imported red bricks and flanked by twin spires (note: currently under renovation). Just opposite stands the Central Post Office, designed by Gustave Eiffel, with its vaulted ceilings, antique maps, and nostalgic charm. Nearby, visit the Presidential Palace – a stark reminder of Vietnam's war-era leadership – and continue to the deeply moving War Remnants Museum, where exhibits offer a powerful Vietnamese perspective on the conflict that shaped a nation. To wrap up the day, experience Vietnamese street coffee culture, soaking in the laid-back rhythm of life in Saigon. Your guide will share useful Vietnamese phrases and insights into local etiquette, making you feel even more connected to the vibrant culture pulsing through every corner of this extraordinary city.

Activities:
- Experience an authentic morning street food tour
- Taste Banh Mi at Saigon's oldest bread stall
- Visit Saigon's oldest traditional coffee shop
- Explore bustling local markets and flower alleys
- Admire Saigon Notre Dame Cathedral (exterior viewing)
- Visit the Central Post Office
