Day 2 Hanoi Scooter Food Tour & West Lake Views

Meals: Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi

Your evening culinary journey commences at 6:00 PM, as a knowledgeable guide meets you at your hotel. Following a brief safety briefing and discussion of your dietary preferences, you'll embark on a thrilling scooter ride through Hanoi's illuminated streets. The first stop introduces you to a local family preparing authentic Banh Cuon, delicate steamed rice cakes with savory fillings, offering a subtle yet delightful flavor.

The adventure continues through the historic Old Quarter, where a 45-year-old establishment serves traditional Banh Goi and Bun Cha under the soft glow of lanterns. Next, the tour takes you to the banks of the Red River, providing picturesque night views of Hanoi's skyline. Later, you will sample various Pho dishes at a small restaurant in Ngu Xa town, experiencing one of Vietnam's most iconic soups.

Your guide then leads you to West Lake, a perfect spot for capturing beautiful night photographs. You might also observe the solemn flag-lowering ceremony at the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, accompanied by ceremonial guards and traditional music. The final stop features the unique Vietnamese Egg Coffee, a rich beverage with origins dating back to 1946. Alternatively, you can relax at a live acoustic music bar, enjoying cocktails and local performances. At 9:00 PM, your driver will return you to your hotel, concluding a memorable exploration of Hanoi's nocturnal culinary scene.

Activities:

Day 3 Halong Bay Overnight Cruise & Cooking Class

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Overnight on Cruise

This morning, transition from Hanoi's urban energy to the serene landscapes of Halong Bay. After breakfast, a driver will collect you from your hotel at 8:00 AM for the transfer to the cruise port. Upon arrival, you'll complete check-in procedures, anticipating the natural wonders ahead. Around midday, step aboard your chosen cruise vessel and receive a warm welcome drink. The crew will provide essential safety instructions and a briefing on your itinerary as you settle into your cabin.

As the ship gracefully navigates into the bay's secluded areas, a delicious lunch is served on deck, offering breathtaking views of towering limestone karsts. The gentle motion of the boat creates a peaceful ambiance, drawing you deeper into this UNESCO World Heritage site. The afternoon is filled with opportunities for exploration. You might choose to swim in the clear emerald waters surrounding the dramatic rock formations or kayak through hidden grottoes and lagoons.

Later, return to the comfort of your cruise ship for a hands-on cooking lesson led by professional chefs. Here, you'll learn the art of preparing authentic Vietnamese spring rolls, a popular and engaging cultural experience for many visitors. As evening approaches, a sumptuous dinner featuring fresh seafood and local specialties awaits in the cruise restaurant. The night offers

Day 4 Halong Bay Tai Chi & Flight to Hue

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hue

Start your day with a rejuvenating Tai Chi session on the sundeck, as the morning sun casts a golden glow over Halong Bay's iconic limestone formations. The slow, deliberate movements and mindful breathing offer a perfect way to harmonize with the tranquil surroundings. Guests preferring a more relaxed morning can choose to sleep in and enjoy a later breakfast with panoramic bay vistas. Following your meal, the cruise will navigate towards another captivating Halong Bay attraction for a final morning exploration.

By 10:00 AM, you will return to the ship to pack your belongings and complete the check-out process. As the vessel sails back to port, indulge in a final delectable brunch, featuring a selection of Vietnamese and international dishes, marking a delightful conclusion to your Halong Bay experience. Around noon, a driver will meet you at the port for your transfer back to Hanoi. After a brief stop at your Old Quarter hotel to retrieve any stored luggage, you will continue to the airport for your flight to Hue City. Upon arrival in this historic imperial capital, a welcoming driver will greet you and provide transportation to your accommodation. The evening is then free for you to relax and prepare for the cultural explorations of Hue scheduled for the following day.

Your exploration of Hue's imperial heritage begins at 8:00 AM, as your guide collects you from the hotel for a short drive to the boat station. You'll embark on a scenic cruise along the Perfume River, renowned for the fragrant flowers that historically drifted along its waters. The gentle current carries you past picturesque landscapes towards ancient landmarks that narrate Vietnam's royal past. Your first stop is Thien Mu Pagoda, Vietnam's tallest pagoda, with its distinctive seven-story tower overlooking the river. This sacred Buddhist site is a prominent symbol of Hue, frequently depicted in art and photography.

Next, your guide will lead you to the vast Imperial Citadel, a 520-hectare complex encompassing palaces, temples, and serene gardens. Before concluding the morning's tour, you'll browse through Dong Ba Market, where local vendors offer everything from traditional handicrafts to regional culinary delights. The vibrant displays of fresh produce, aromatic spices, and handmade goods provide excellent photo opportunities. Around noon, your driver will return you to the hotel for an afternoon of relaxation before the evening's culinary adventure.

At 6:00 PM, a traditional cyclo will arrive at your hotel to commence a gastronomic journey through Hue's streets. Your first destination, "Hang Me" restaurant, is famous for authentic small rice cakes such as Banh Beo and Banh Nam. Later, you might taste delicious baby clam dishes at "Hen Island," followed by sweet soups showcasing Hue's renowned desserts. The evening continues with Banh Khoai (crispy pancakes) and Nem Lui (lemongrass-skewered pork) as you pass illuminated landmarks like the Imperial Citadel and Truong Tien Bridge. By 10:00 PM, your cyclo will return you to the hotel, concluding a day rich in historical sights and the unforgettable flavors of central Vietnamese cuisine.

Day 7 Hoi An Market, Cooking Class & Village Cycling

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An

Your day begins with a guided visit to Hoi An Market, a vibrant hub where stalls are laden with colorful tropical fruits, aromatic herbs, and freshly caught seafood. You'll have the chance to interact with local vendors and gain insights into the exotic ingredients that form the basis of Vietnamese cuisine, learning about their traditional uses and health benefits. Next, embark on a tranquil 40-minute boat ride along the Thu Bon River, observing scenes of daily river life and the lush delta landscapes. You'll arrive at a charming riverside village, where your outdoor cooking class is set under the cooling canopy of coconut trees. Before the culinary session, you'll receive hands-on instruction in traditional rice processing using ancient tools, a time-honored ritual still practiced in the countryside. Guided by local chefs, you'll prepare four delicious Vietnamese dishes, including marinated pork skewers, crispy Banh Xeo, refreshing green papaya salad, and Vietnamese-style fish. You'll also master the fascinating art of making your own rice paper from scratch.

After enjoying your freshly prepared meal, set off on a gentle cycling tour through Hoi An's rural villages and verdant rice paddies. Pedal past water buffalo, waving farmers, and expansive green fields. Along the route, you'll make stops for small bites and friendly conversations with locals, deepening your connection to the land and its people before returning to your hotel.

Activities:
Visit Hoi An Market with a guide
Enjoy a peaceful boat ride on the Thu Bon River
Learn traditional rice processing
Participate in an outdoor cooking class
Prepare Vietnamese dishes: pork skewers, Banh Xeo, green papaya salad, Vietnamese fish
Make rice paper from scratch

Day 13 Cu Chi Tunnels & Ho Chi Minh City Landmarks

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City

At 8:00 AM, your guide and driver will collect you from your hotel for a two-hour scenic drive to the historic Cu Chi Tunnels, passing through tranquil countryside and rubber plantations. Upon arrival, your visit begins with a short documentary film detailing the tunnels' history and their crucial role during the Vietnam War. You'll then explore this remarkable underground network, which served as a "secret city" for the Vietnamese army, providing shelter, supply routes, and strategic bases. You can crawl through narrow passages, discover hidden trapdoors, and gain insight into how life was sustained underground. Before returning to the city, enjoy a light lunch featuring local specialties, offering an authentic taste of the region.
After lunch, return to Ho Chi Minh City for an afternoon dedicated to cultural highlights. Begin with two iconic examples of French colonial architecture: the Notre Dame Cathedral (currently undergoing renovation, an alternative visit will be provided) and the stately Old Post Office, admired for its arched ceilings and historical charm. Next, visit the Reunification Palace, the former presidential residence and the significant site of Vietnam’s reunification in 1975. Its unique blend of modernist and Asian design makes it a compelling stop.
Then, step into the War Remnants Museum, a poignant but important site that illustrates the impact of the Vietnam War through powerful photography and exhibits. Conclude your city adventure at the lively Ben Thanh Market, a Saigon landmark brimming with colorful stalls and local goods. It's an ideal place to find souvenirs, sample street food, or simply absorb the vibrant local atmosphere. You'll return to your hotel in the late afternoon, enriched with deeper insights into Vietnam’s past and present.

Activities:
Drive to Cu Chi Tunnels
Watch a documentary film about the tunnels
Explore the underground tunnel network
Crawl through narrow passages and view trapdoors

Day 14 Mekong Delta River Life & Local Crafts

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City

Your guide will pick you up at the hotel between 7:00 AM and 7:30 AM for a journey to Ben Tre Province in the Mekong Delta. The scenery transforms as urban areas give way to lush vegetation and winding rivers, characteristic of this fertile agricultural region. Upon arrival, a picturesque cruise along the Ham Luong River introduces you to daily life along the waterway. Local residents navigate by boat, fish from wooden platforms, and tend to riverside gardens as you pass. You might observe traditional stilt houses and children waving from the shorelines during your relaxing journey through this intricate network of natural canals.

Your boat will dock at a coconut processing workshop, where skilled artisans demonstrate the sustainable creation of various coconut products. Next, a visit to a mat-weaving house showcases traditional handicraft techniques passed down through generations. Fresh tropical fruits provide a refreshing break before you continue your exploration by bicycle through verdant orchards.

A delicious lunch featuring regional specialties awaits at a charming riverside restaurant. The afternoon brings further water exploration as you board a smaller sampan boat to navigate narrower canals, enveloped by dense tropical vegetation. By 5:00 PM, your driver will return you to Ho Chi Minh City, concluding your immersive cultural experience in the Mekong Delta's distinctive way of life.

Activities:
