Day 13 Mekong Delta Luxury Speedboat Excursion

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Renaissance Riverside Hotel Saigon

At 08:15, a luxury speedboat will depart from downtown Saigon, taking you on a scenic journey to the lush green tributaries of the Mekong Delta. A light breakfast will be served on board as you enjoy the picturesque ride. After approximately 30 minutes, you'll make a brief stop at the ornate overwater Tuong Van Pagoda, where your guide will share insights into the profound influence of Buddhism in the region.
By 09:30, you'll visit a bustling, colorful riverside market, brimming with local specialties, fresh tropical fruits, and an incredible variety of seafood—a perfect spot for capturing vibrant photographs. An hour later, you'll reach the idyllic, watery expanses of the Delta itself, known as the Nine Dragons Delta for its numerous tributaries. At 10:45, the boat will turn off the main delta into the small, winding canals of the Thu Thua area. As you drift along, shaded by a canopy of foliage, you might encounter a traditional riverside house with pet Burmese pythons, explore a quaint Mekong village surrounded by rice paddies, or stop at a local farmhouse to sample coconuts and Mekong whisky.
Alternatively, you might visit a local merchant, try regional produce, and walk along the riverbank to a traditional rural Vietnamese house inhabited by three generations. This experience provides an intimate look into daily life in the Delta. Please note that the guide may customize the itinerary by combining elements from both routes to ensure the best experience. At 12:30, you'll enjoy a typical Mekong Delta lunch at a local house, followed by a visit to a Buddhist-run orphanage to learn about the monks' community support efforts. Then, at 13:30, you'll travel to Cao Dai Temple, a unique site of worship for one of Vietnam’s distinctive religions. You will board the speedboat for your return journey to Ho Chi Minh City at 14:30, arriving back in Saigon by 16:00, where staff will transfer you to your hotel.
