Your private guide will meet you at 8:00 AM to commence a full day of discovery across Hanoi. The morning begins with a visit to the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's inaugural university established in 1070. Here, you'll wander through serene courtyards, observing ancient stone tablets that commemorate generations of scholars, offering a peaceful contrast to the city's usual pace.

Next, explore the distinctive One Pillar Pagoda, uniquely constructed on a single stone pillar. Continue to the nearby Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, where you will gain insights into Vietnam's revered leader. You'll also see his traditional stilt house and hear narratives about his modest life and enduring influence. (Note: The Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum and associated museums are closed on Mondays and Fridays, and from June to August). Lunch will be served at a local eatery, providing a chance to taste authentic Vietnamese cuisine.

The afternoon features a visit to the Vietnam Museum of Ethnology, a captivating institution showcasing the nation's diverse cultures. Delve into exhibits dedicated to Vietnam's 54 ethnic groups, including outdoor reconstructions of traditional dwellings and displays of vibrant attire and daily artifacts. Around 4:30 PM, you will return to your hotel in the Old Quarter, with the evening free for personal relaxation or further independent exploration.

Day 3Ninh Binh's "Halong Bay on Land" & Ancient Capital

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ninh Binh | Transport: Private air-conditioned vehicle

Between 7:30 and 8:00 AM, a pickup from your Hanoi Old Quarter hotel marks the start of your journey to Ninh Binh. The urban landscape gradually transitions into tranquil rural scenery, characterized by expansive rice fields, traditional villages, and the occasional water buffalo. This picturesque drive offers a glimpse into Vietnamese countryside life.

Your first destination is Tam Coc, often likened to "Halong Bay on land" due to its stunning karst formations. Here, you'll embark on a two-hour boat trip along the Ngo Dong River, paddled by local boat operators in traditional sampans. The journey takes you past dramatic limestone cliffs, verdant rice paddies, and through a series of natural caves, creating a serene and memorable experience. Afterward, a local restaurant will serve lunch, featuring regional Vietnamese dishes.

In the afternoon, delve into history at the ancient temples dedicated to King Dinh and King Le, renowned for their intricate wooden and stone artistry. As you walk the grounds, your guide will recount tales of Vietnam's early dynasties. By approximately 6:00 PM, you will arrive at your hotel in Ninh Binh, with the evening reserved for relaxation after a day of exploration.

Day 4Halong Bay Luxury Cruise & Cave ExplorationMeals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Halong Bay Cruise | Transport: Shuttle bus, luxury cruise*

Following breakfast, you will depart Ninh Binh by shuttle bus, heading towards the majestic Halong Bay. The drive through the Red River Delta showcases picturesque rural landscapes and daily life in northern Vietnam. Upon reaching the cruise port around midday, you will complete check-in procedures and board your luxurious cruise vessel.

The crew will extend a warm welcome with a refreshing beverage as you settle in. Lunch will be served in the dining room as the ship commences its journey into the bay. This initial sailing provides your first views of Halong Bay's iconic limestone formations emerging from the emerald waters, an impressive introduction to this natural wonder.

During the afternoon and evening, you will have the option to explore a magnificent cave, revealing dramatic rock formations and impressive stalactites, with vantage points offering expansive views of the bay. Back on board, you can participate in a Vietnamese cooking demonstration or simply relax on deck as the sun descends. Dinner, featuring fresh, locally sourced seafood and diverse dishes, will be served. Later, unwind with a drink, try squid fishing, or consider optional spa services available on the cruise. (Note: Cruise itineraries and activities may vary based on the selected vessel).

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Hotel in Hue | Transport: Private air-conditioned vehicle, boat

Between 8:00 and 8:15 AM, your private guide will greet you at your hotel to commence a full day exploring Hue's rich imperial heritage. The day starts with a scenic boat trip along the Perfume River, offering a serene introduction to the city's riverside charm. Your initial stop is the iconic Thien Mu Pagoda, recognized for its seven-story tower and tranquil setting.

Next, visit the impressive Hue Imperial Citadel, which once served as the political and cultural heart of Vietnam's final dynasty. Wander through its grand gates, courtyards, and gardens, areas once reserved exclusively for emperors and their royal families. Continue to Long An Palace, where a collection of royal artifacts provides insights into imperial life. Afterward, experience the lively atmosphere of Dong Ba Market, a bustling hub where locals procure everything from fresh produce to traditional goods. Lunch will be enjoyed at a local restaurant, featuring Hue's celebrated cuisine.

The afternoon and evening are dedicated to exploring two of Hue's most significant royal tombs located outside the city. The Tu Duc Tomb, nestled among peaceful lakes and pine trees, offers a calm and picturesque environment. In contrast, the Khai Dinh Tomb stands out with its distinctive fusion of Vietnamese and European architectural styles. Conclude your day with a memorable royal-style dinner, inspired by dishes once served to emperors, providing an authentic taste of Hue's elegant imperial past.

Day 8

Hoi An Cooking Class & Thu Bon River Cruise

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An | Transport: Minivan, boat

Your day commences around 8:00 AM at a designated meeting point, where you'll connect with your guide. From there, a minivan will transport you to Tra Que Vegetable Village, a serene farming community just beyond Hoi An. Stroll through the verdant gardens, observing local farmers cultivating herbs and vegetables using traditional methods. This offers a valuable insight into rural life and the origins of Vietnamese ingredients.

Next, visit a local home for a warm welcome and herbal tea. Continue to a nearby market to shop for fresh ingredients. Your guide will introduce you to various local produce and spices, with an opportunity to try bargaining. The highlight of the day is a hands-on cooking class at the Cooking School. Following an introduction, you'll join an experienced chef to prepare several classic Vietnamese dishes from scratch. Learn practical techniques as you chop, season, and cook, then savor the dishes you've created for lunch. At the class's conclusion, you'll receive a certificate as a memento.

In the afternoon, unwind with a relaxing boat ride along the Thu Bon River, returning towards central Hoi An. Afterward, you will be transferred back to your hotel, with the remainder of the day free for further exploration or relaxation.
