DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Ho Chi Minh City Arrival & Leisure Time

Meals: NA | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City

Upon your arrival at Tan Son Nhat International Airport in Ho Chi Minh City, a dedicated guide will meet you and facilitate your transfer to the chosen hotel. After checking in, the remainder of the day is free for you to unwind and adjust to the local time. You might prefer to relax at your accommodation after your journey, or if you're eager to begin exploring, consider a gentle stroll around the city to absorb its lively atmosphere.
For those interested in immediate cultural engagement, optional tours such as the A O Show Saigon or a Saigon nightlife tour by motorbike are available. Please inform your travel consultant if you wish to arrange these experiences. Standard hotel check-in typically begins at 14:00; early check-in may be arranged for an additional fee.

Activities: Arrive at Tan Son Nhat International Airport.
Receive a personal transfer to your hotel.
Check into your accommodation.
Enjoy free time to relax or explore independently.

Day 2 — Mekong Delta Speedboat Adventure & Cao Dai Temple

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City

Your morning begins around 08:00 with a transfer from your hotel to the pier, where a luxury speedboat awaits. Depart at 08:15, leaving the urban landscape behind as you cruise towards the verdant waterways of the Mekong Delta. A light breakfast is served on board, offering picturesque views as the scenery transitions from cityscapes to tranquil river life.
The first stop is Tuong Van Pagoda, providing insight into the role of Buddhism in southern Vietnamese daily life. Continue to a vibrant riverside market, an excellent opportunity to observe local commerce, sample tropical fruits, and browse regional goods. The journey proceeds past fruit orchards, rice paddies, and serene canals, offering a glimpse into the Delta's slower pace in the Thu Thua area.

Depending on the route, you'll experience authentic village life through one of two options: either visit a traditional riverside house to see pet Burmese pythons, then sample fresh coconuts and Mekong whisky at a farmhouse; or visit a local merchant for various products, followed by a walk along riverbanks to a rural home and village exploration. A traditional Mekong-flavored lunch is served around 12:30.
In the afternoon, visit a Buddhist-run orphanage to understand local community efforts. Conclude with a visit to the Cao Dai Temple, an architecturally unique religious site blending diverse symbols and saints, viewable from outside. Around 14:30, board the speedboat for the return journey, arriving back at the Ho Chi Minh City pier around 16:00, followed by a transfer to your hotel.

Activities:
Transfer to the pier for a luxury speedboat.
Cruise towards the Mekong Delta, enjoying breakfast on board.
Visit Tuong Van Pagoda to learn about Buddhism.
Explore a lively riverside market.
Observe fruit orchards, rice paddies, and quiet canals.
Choose between two options for an authentic village experience: visiting a traditional house with pythons and a farmhouse for local treats, or visiting a merchant and exploring a rural home.
Enjoy a traditional Mekong lunch.
Visit a Buddhist-run orphanage.
View the exterior of the Cao Dai Temple.
Return to Ho Chi Minh City by speedboat and transfer to your hotel.

Day 3 — Ho Chi Minh City Exploration by Vintage Jeep & Flight to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi

Following breakfast, embark on a city tour of Ho Chi Minh City aboard a vintage Jeep, offering a stylish and comfortable way to discover its key attractions. Your first destination is the Reunification Palace, a pivotal site in Vietnam's modern history. Continue to the Central Post Office, a remarkable example of colonial architecture, and the nearby Notre-Dame Cathedral, an iconic city landmark.
Next, visit the War Remnants Museum, where powerful exhibits provide insight into Vietnam's wartime past. The tour then proceeds to the Emperor Jade Pagoda, a serene and atmospheric temple renowned for its intricate design and spiritual ambiance. As you continue, you'll pass significant city landmarks including the former U.S. Embassy site, the Saigon Opera House, Dong Khoi Street, and Nguyen Hue Walking Street.
The final major stop is Ben Thanh Market, a bustling local hub where you can find a wide array of goods, from fresh produce and snacks to souvenirs and handicrafts. After the tour, return to your hotel to prepare for your transfer to the airport for a flight to Hanoi. Upon arrival in Hanoi, you will be met and transferred to your hotel, allowing you to settle in for the next phase of your journey.

Day 4 Hanoi Private City Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi

Your private city tour of Hanoi commences around 08:00 with a pick-up from your Old Quarter hotel. The first stop is the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's inaugural university and a site of immense historical importance. Originally established for royal scholars, it evolved into a renowned center for learning, attracting exceptional students from across the nation.
Next, you'll visit the One Pillar Pagoda, an iconic symbol of Hanoi. Its distinctive architectural design and tranquil surroundings contribute to its status as one of the city's most recognizable cultural landmarks. Following this, pay respects at the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the final resting place of Vietnam's revered leader, celebrated for his pivotal role in the country's fight for independence.
Please note that the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum and its associated museums are closed on Mondays, Fridays, and from June to August. During these closure periods, only external viewing and photography may be possible. After the morning's visits, enjoy a traditional Vietnamese lunch at a local restaurant.
In the afternoon, the tour continues to the Museum of Ethnology, one of Vietnam's most engaging museums. This institution provides an in-depth look at the country's 54 recognized ethnic groups, showcasing their traditional lifestyles, attire, customs, tools, and diverse architectural styles from various regions. Following the museum visit, you will return to your hotel in the Old Quarter.

Activities:
Begin a private city tour of Hanoi.
