Day 2 Journey to Sapa & Ethnic Village Trekking

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Sapa | Transport: Road transfer by air-conditioned vehicle

Today, depart from the energetic pace of Hanoi and embark on a picturesque road trip towards Sapa, a charming mountain town nestled amidst the misty highlands of northern Vietnam. Known for its refreshing climate, intricate terraced rice fields, and diverse ethnic cultures, Sapa offers a dramatic shift in scenery and atmosphere.

Upon reaching Sapa, you will check into your hotel and have a brief period to refresh yourself before your afternoon adventure commences. Prepare for an invigorating trek through the undulating hills and verdant valleys of Cat Cat Village and Sin Chai Village, both home to the H'mong ethnic minority. Your path will wind along scenic trails and past emerald rice terraces, providing opportunities to interact with local families and observe traditional handicraft production. The peaceful rhythm of village life and the stunning mountain vistas offer a memorable introduction to Sapa's natural and cultural richness.

Return to your Sapa hotel for the night, where the crisp mountain air and tranquil surroundings create a perfect setting for the

Day 3 Sapa Valley Trek & Return to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ha Noi | Transport: Limousine transfer by air-conditioned vehicle

Awaken to the invigorating mountain air of Sapa, preparing for a day filled with cultural discovery and natural beauty. Today's trek will lead you through some of the region's most breathtaking and culturally rich valleys, connecting you with the vibrant heritage of the ethnic communities inhabiting this land. Your journey begins with a 6-kilometer hike to Y Linh Ho Village, a serene settlement situated along the mountainside. Surrounded by terraced fields and majestic hills, this peaceful location provides an intimate glimpse into H'mong customs, traditional attire, and rural mountain living. Allow the local folklore and the scent of cultivated land to guide you deeper into the valley.

Continue your walk through the captivating countryside to reach Lao Chai Village, where more of the Black H'mong community will greet you with friendly smiles and dramatic landscapes. Here, you will pause for a substantial local lunch, shared with a village family. This offers a unique and meaningful chance to engage with daily life while dining amidst panoramic views of the rice terraces.

Your adventure proceeds to Ta Van Village, home to the Giay ethnic minority, known for their tranquil way of life and harmonious relationship with nature. As you traverse the village paths, observe the blend of ethnic cultures, stilt houses, and lush fields, all set against a stunning backdrop of misty peaks and the gentle flow of the Muong Hoa River. After soaking in the final sweeping views from Ta Van, you will return to your hotel. In the evening, enjoy a well-deserved rest before boarding a comfortable limousine for your journey back to Hanoi, carrying vivid memories of the mountains, the warmth of village life, and the quiet enchantment of northern Vietnam.

Day 5 Full Day Cultural & Nature Exploration in Pu Luong

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Pu Luong | Transport: Buffalo-drawn cart, bamboo raft, local transfers by air-conditioned vehicle

Immerse yourself in the heart of northern Vietnam's countryside with a full-day tour in Pu Luong, where stunning natural landscapes and rich cultural traditions await. Your day begins around 8:30 AM with a visit to a 120-year-old traditional house, offering a step back in time to experience authentic local life. Here, you can try your hand at various traditional activities, including weaving fabric on a loom, pounding rice and grinding grains, and brewing rice wine using age-old methods. You'll also have the chance to feed buffalo and interact with farm life, gaining insight into daily rural routines. Join locals in folk games such as Nem Con (throwing sacred balls), walking on stilts, crossbow shooting, and spinning wooden tops, providing fun for all ages.

Next, you will gently drift along the crystal-clear Cham Stream on a bamboo raft, enveloped by the majestic mountains of Pu Luong. This serene experience allows you to immerse yourself in the untouched natural paradise. A unique 'survival-style' cooking experience on the raft follows, where you'll prepare a rustic meal over an open fire, testing your wilderness skills. Afterward, hop onto a buffalo-drawn cart for a leisurely ride through charming villages, breathing in the fresh mountain air and observing the peaceful rhythm of rural life amidst rice paddies and towering limestone peaks. If weather permits, take a refreshing dip in the cool waters of Cham Stream, letting nature rejuvenate you in this hidden gem of Pu Luong.

Continue your journey to Surprising Cave (Hang Sung Sot), a spectacular 20-kilometer-long cave adorned with majestic stalactites and stalagmites. Still largely untouched by mass tourism, this cave offers an adventurous, off-the-beaten-path experience. Marvel at the massive wooden water wheels, symbols of the region's traditional wet rice farming culture, and learn how locals harness water power for irrigation using ancient engineering techniques. The day concludes with a visit to Lan Ngoai Village, where you can observe the intricate process of weaving brocade fabrics. Watch skilled artisans transform thread into vibrant patterns, preserving the rich textile heritage of the region. Around 3:30 PM, after a day filled with culture, nature, and hands-on experiences, you will return with lasting memories of authentic Pu Luong.

Day 6 Pu Luong to Ninh Binh Scenic Transfer

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Ninh Binh | Transport: Road transfer by air-conditioned vehicle

After enjoying breakfast, you will bid farewell to the peaceful landscapes of Pu Luong and begin your journey towards the picturesque province of Ninh Binh. The scenic drive will lead you through charming rural villages, lush valleys, and dramatic limestone mountains, providing numerous opportunities for photography along the way. As you travel, you will notice the gradual transition in scenery, anticipating the unique beauty of your next destination.

Upon your arrival in Ninh Binh, you will check into your accommodation. The remainder of the day is free for you to spend at your leisure. You might choose to relax at your hotel, taking time to unwind, or venture out to independently explore the immediate surroundings. This downtime allows you to prepare for the adventures that await you in this region, often celebrated as “the Halong Bay on land” for its stunning karst formations and waterways. You will spend the night in Ninh Binh.

Day 7 Ninh Binh: Ancient Capital & Tam Coc Boat Ride

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ninh Binh | Transport: Limousine bus, sampan boat, bicycle

Your day begins between 7:30 and 8:00 AM, as you depart from the urban environment and journey 120 kilometers south from Hanoi to the serene countryside of Ninh Binh, often referred to as “Ha Long Bay on land.” As your limousine bus navigates through emerald fields and rustic villages, the landscape transforms into a breathtaking panorama of towering limestone karsts, shimmering rivers, and ancient relics. A brief rest stop along the route offers a refreshing pause before your cultural immersion truly begins.

Your first destination is the sacred Hoa Lu Ancient Capital, a former imperial seat gracefully nestled between dramatic mountains and expansive rice paddies. Once the political and cultural heart of Vietnam during the 10th and 11th centuries, this historic citadel resonates with stories of bravery, national unification, and dynastic power. You will step into Dinh King Temple, a 17th-century sanctuary that harmoniously blends natural surroundings with elegant wooden architecture, intricate stone carvings, and an atmosphere of quiet reverence. Feel the spirit of Vietnam’s early nation-builders as you explore the temple grounds, framed by mossy hills and tranquil lotus ponds. After exploring this cultural treasure, you will savor a flavorful local lunch featuring rustic Vietnamese dishes in a garden-view restaurant, where fresh ingredients and simple preparation highlight the essence of the region.

The afternoon reveals the stunning aquatic charm of Tam Coc, where a local rower awaits to guide your sampan boat through the tranquil waters of the Ngo Dong River. You will glide between towering limestone cliffs and golden rice fields that beautifully mirror the sky, entering the enchanting caves of Hang Ca, Hang Hai, and Hang Ba. These ancient river tunnels, formed over millennia, captivate with hanging stalactites shaped like dragons, lotus petals, and mythical creatures. Conclude your day with a leisurely bicycle ride through the countryside, pedaling along narrow lanes that wind past peaceful village homes. The air is fragrant with wildflowers, and the gentle rhythm of rural life provides a soothing end to your Ninh Binh adventure.

Day 8 Ninh Binh to Halong Bay Cruise & Cave Exploration

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Halong Bay Cruise | Transport: Road transfer by air-conditioned vehicle, cruise boat

Today, you will transition from the tranquil landscapes of Ninh Binh to the legendary seascape of Halong Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site celebrated for its emerald waters and thousands of towering limestone islets. Following a scenic road transfer, you will arrive at the cruise port, where your next adventure is set to begin. Upon boarding your elegant Halong Bay cruise, you will be welcomed with a refreshing drink and a brief orientation covering cruise amenities and safety procedures. As the vessel gently glides into the bay, you can indulge in a delectable lunch served at the onboard restaurant. Outside, a surreal panorama of limestone karsts and lush green peaks unfolds – each rock formation rising like a mystical sculpture from the water, inviting you into Vietnam's natural treasure.

Allow your senses to relax further with rejuvenating massage or spa treatments offered onboard (reservation with cruise manager recommended). Your next stop is the magnificent Surprise Cave (Sung Sot), hidden within Bo Hon Island. Ascend over 50 stone steps to the cave entrance, where you will be greeted by an awe-inspiring display of stalactites and stalagmites illuminated in dreamlike hues. As you wander through its vast chambers, the cool air and surreal rock formations evoke a sense of stepping into another realm, one carved by nature over millennia. As the sun begins to dip behind the karsts, you can join a unique Vietnamese cooking demonstration or learn the intricate art of fruit and vegetable carving on the sundeck. Observe the sky transform into shades of gold and lavender while the crew shares the secrets behind local dishes.

Evening arrives with a sumptuous dinner on board, featuring fresh seafood and regional flavors prepared with flair. Later, choose your preferred style of relaxation – try your luck at night squid fishing, join fellow travelers for board games or cards, sip cocktails at the bar, or simply stargaze from the deck in total serenity. Drift off to sleep cradled by the gentle waves, with the silhouettes of limestone cliffs guarding your peaceful night on Halong Bay. Please note that the itinerary may be adjusted depending on the specific cruise chosen.

Day 9 Halong Bay Sunrise, Titop Island & Flight to Siem Reap

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Cruise boat, road transfer by air-conditioned vehicle, flight

Greet your final morning in Halong Bay with serenity and awe. Wake early between 6:30 and 7:00 AM to witness the sunrise casting golden hues over the misty limestone karsts – an ethereal view best appreciated from the cruise's deck as the bay slowly stirs to life. Savor a light breakfast with tea and coffee in the dining room before recharging your body and mind in a graceful Tai Chi session under the open sky. The slow, flowing movements establish a calm rhythm for your day and leave you energized for the journey ahead.

Your cruise continues to Titop Island, a crescent-shaped gem known for its peaceful beach and breathtaking panoramic views. Hike up to the summit where a 360-degree lookout unveils a sweeping vista of Halong Bay's jade waters dotted with towering karsts. Afterward, you can dip your feet or take a refreshing swim in the crystal-clear sea, or simply unwind on the white sand shore. Back aboard the cruise, enjoy a flavorful brunch as the boat gently glides back toward the harbor. This is a perfect moment to relax on the sundeck, soak up the final views, or begin packing your belongings.

Upon disembarking at the cruise port, you will have some time to unwind before being comfortably transferred back to Hanoi. At the airport, you will catch your flight to your next destination: Siem Reap, Cambodia, the gateway to the ancient wonders of Angkor. Arrive in Siem Reap and transfer to your hotel, where you will check in and relax. After the day's transitions, enjoy a well-earned rest as you prepare for the mystical temples and vibrant culture awaiting you in the coming days.

Day 10 Angkor Wat & Angkor Thom Temple Trekking Tour

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Air-conditioned vehicle, walking

Around 8:00 AM, your day begins with a pickup by your expert guide and driver at your hotel. From here, you will be transferred to the starting point of your temple trekking experience. Walking from temple to temple provides a unique and immersive way to explore Angkor, with jungle paths, hidden sanctuaries, and sudden views of towering temples emerging from the forest. Your journey commences at Angkor Wat, recognized as the world's largest religious monument. Constructed in the early 12th century by King Suryavarman II, it symbolizes Mount Meru, the mythical abode of the gods. Marvel at the grand towers, extensive galleries, and intricate bas-reliefs that depict epic tales from Hindu mythology. You will pause for a relaxing lunch at a nearby local restaurant, offering Cambodian dishes to refuel you for the afternoon adventure.

After lunch, continue trekking through the jungle to the ancient city of Angkor Thom, the last grand capital of the Khmer Empire under King Jayavarman VII. Enclosed by an 8-meter-high wall forming a perfect square, Angkor Thom houses some of the most iconic structures in the region. At its heart stands Bayon Temple, celebrated for its 54 towers adorned with over 200 enigmatic smiling faces – a stunning representation of the empire's spiritual and political power. Explore the Terrace of the Elephants, once used for royal audiences and public ceremonies, and the Terrace of the Leper King, famous for its beautifully detailed carvings and mysterious history. As your trek proceeds, you will pass over the ancient causeway to Angkor Thom's South Gate, a towering stone entrance flanked by 54 stone figures depicting gods and demons pulling the sacred Naga serpent – a dramatic sight during the golden hour. Conclude your day at Prasat Chrung, a peaceful temple situated near the city walls, offering breathtaking sunset views over the moat. Take time to absorb the serene surroundings and capture memorable photos. After sunset, walk back to the South Gate where your driver will be waiting to transfer you back to your hotel, concluding your unforgettable day of exploration.

Day 11 Ta Prak Village Immersion & Kampong Phluk Floating Village

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Siem Reap | Transport: Air-conditioned vehicle, ox cart, local wooden boat, walking

After breakfast at your hotel, you will be picked up at 8:00 AM by your local guide and driven to Ta Prak Village, located approximately 25 minutes outside of Siem Reap. Remember to bring a packed breakfast from your hotel; upon arrival, you will share this meal with a welcoming local family, providing a rare glimpse into early morning village life when the community is most active. Next, enjoy a 30-minute ox cart ride through the village lanes to reach a bustling local market. Here, you will explore a colorful variety of Cambodian vegetables, herbs, fruits, and traditional produce, gaining firsthand insight into everyday food culture.

Continue your journey with a 1-kilometer countryside walk through scenic rice paddies and rural homes. Along the way, you will stop to interact with villagers and observe seasonal farming and craft activities such as rice planting, thatch weaving, vegetable harvesting, or fish trap making. Each visit is unique, reflecting the natural rhythm of rural Cambodian life. Conclude your countryside exploration at a serene local pagoda, where you will receive a traditional water blessing by Buddhist monks – a peaceful and meaningful cultural experience. Before departing, refresh yourself with fresh coconut juice under the shade of palm trees.

In the afternoon, after your countryside immersion, head further out to the tranquil and less-visited Kampong Phluk, a stilted fishing village nestled in the flooded mangrove forest. Far from the typical tourist crowds, this is one of the best places to witness authentic life on the Tonlé Sap Lake. Board a local wooden boat and cruise through the waterways, passing by
