Day 6 Mai Chau Exploration & Scenic Drive to Ninh Binh

Meals: B,L | Stay: Emeralda Resort | Transport: Private car, Bicycle

Your morning in Mai Chau remains flexible, though staying within the vicinity is recommended before your early afternoon departure. Consider a bicycle ride through the surrounding rice paddies and along the valley sides. While some climbs can be steep, you can return to flatter paths at your leisure, enjoying the verdant scenery at your own pace.
In the early afternoon, you will depart east towards Ninh Binh, Vietnam’s former capital, once known as Hoa Lu. The journey takes approximately four hours, but the time passes quickly as you begin to witness the towering limestone karsts that define this region, earning it the nickname 'Halong on Land'. Upon arrival, you will check into your accommodation for an overnight stay in Ninh Binh.

Activities:
Optional bike ride through Mai Chau's rice paddies
Depart for Ninh Binh in the early afternoon
Enjoy the scenic drive through limestone karsts
