After breakfast, meet your tour guide in the hotel lobby to begin a morning exploration of Hanoi's significant cultural and religious landmarks. Your first stop is the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university, established during the Ly Dynasty and dedicated to Confucius. Next, visit the iconic One Pillar Pagoda, situated near the Temple of Literature in Ba Dinh. Its unique lotus-inspired architecture holds deep Buddhist significance.
Continue your sightseeing to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum complex in Ba Dinh Square, a politically important area in Hanoi (viewed from outside, closed on Mondays, Fridays, and from June to August). Conclude the morning by admiring the ancient Buddhist architecture of Tran Quoc Pagoda, the oldest temple in Hanoi, gracefully positioned by the southeast shore of West Lake.
In the afternoon, depart from Hanoi for a comfortable bus journey to Sapa, a picturesque mountain town in northern Vietnam. This scenic ride spans approximately six hours, winding through rolling hills, verdant valleys, and remote ethnic villages. Upon arrival in Sapa, you'll be transferred to your hotel for check-in. After settling in, you can relax or take a leisurely walk to explore the charming streets and local markets of the town.

Activities: Visit the Temple of Literature

Day 3 Sapa Trekking: Y Linh Ho, Lao Chai & Ta Van Villages

Meals: Breakfast, Picnic Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Sapa

At 9:30 AM, begin a memorable trekking adventure through the secluded villages of Sapa's Muong Hoa Valley. Your journey starts in Y Linh Ho, a serene commune surrounded by untamed natural beauty. As you walk, you'll pass vast cornfields and picturesque terraced rice paddies, offering stunning photographic opportunities.
Proceed to Lao Chai village, home to various minority communities, including the Giay and Black H'Mong. This village is renowned for its tranquil environment and the warm hospitality of its residents, making it a perfect spot for those seeking a peaceful retreat amidst nature.
In the afternoon, explore Ta Van Village, nestled in a valley crisscrossed by a river and surrounded by rice paddies. The village's peaceful streams and the gentle sounds of birds create a calm and somewhat mystical atmosphere, popular with visitors. After concluding your trekking tour, return to your hotel in Sapa. The remainder of the day is yours to relax and unwind at your leisure.

Activities: Trek through Y Linh Ho village

Day 4 Cat Cat & Sin Chai Village Exploration, Return to Hanoi

Meals: Breakfast, Picnic Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ha Noi | Transport: Road transfer

After breakfast, check out from your Sapa hotel. Around 8:00 AM, begin your journey to Cat Cat Village, one of Sapa's most scenic and culturally rich communities, where the Mong ethnic group resides and works. This picturesque village offers insights into traditional life and crafts. Enjoy a picnic lunch by the river, taking a moment to relax amidst the natural surroundings before continuing your exploration.

In the afternoon, continue your trek to Sin Chai Village, a Red Dao community located at the base of the majestic Hoang Lien Son mountain range. Here, you'll gain further understanding of northern Vietnamese culture by observing locals adorned in distinctive silver jewelry and embroidered clothing. After your visit, the group will rejoin the main road, approximately 3 km away, to return to Sapa town.

Upon arriving back at your hotel, a driver will pick you up between 3:00 PM and 3:30 PM for your transfer back to Hanoi. You are expected to arrive in Hanoi between 9:30 PM and 10:00 PM. With no further plans for the day, you can spend the rest of the evening relaxing at your Hanoi hotel.

Day 8 Hoi An Ancient Town Walking Tour

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An

Your guided tour of Hoi An begins at the bustling Hoi An Market, a vibrant labyrinth of stalls. Here, you'll find fresh produce, intricate handcrafted goods, and experience the energetic rhythm of local daily life. The rich tapestry of colors, aromas, and sounds truly captures the essence of this ancient town.
A short walk leads you to the Phuc Kien Chinese Assembly Hall, admired for its striking architecture, symbolic dragon motifs, and ornate roofs. Explore the hall to gain a deeper understanding of ancestor worship, observing the altar and local residents offering prayers. From there, you'll visit some of Hoi An's historic old houses, such as Phung Hung or Tan Ky, both remarkably preserved for over two centuries despite the passage of time and conflicts.
Continue your journey to the Museum of Folk Culture, housed within a 150-year-old former Chinese merchant home. Its exhibits showcase traditional crafts and depict the daily lives of past generations. You'll also have the opportunity to enjoy cultural performances at the Hoi An Traditional Performing Arts House, a highlight for those interested in the town's artistic heritage. Conclude your exploration at the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, a 400-year-old structure that historically linked the Japanese and Chinese communities. Afterward, browse the town's renowned craft shops and art galleries, or wander into the quiet backstreets and residential areas to discover Hoi An's serene beauty.
