Day 10 Hanoi City Sightseeing by Vintage Jeep

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Hanoi | Transport: Jeep

Begin your day with breakfast at the hotel, preparing for a unique exploration of Hanoi by vintage Jeep. Your city tour will be scheduled for either the morning (8:00 AM-12:30 PM with lunch), afternoon (12:30 PM-5:00 PM with lunch), or sunset & night (5:00 PM-9:30 PM with dinner), depending on availability. After a safety briefing with your guide and driver, your exciting Jeep tour commences. The first stop is the solemn Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, where you'll observe the revered leader's resting place from outside. Nearby, visit Tran Vu Pagoda, a serene Buddhist temple offering a peaceful contrast to the city's energy. Next, step back in time at the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university.

Continue to admire the architectural grandeur of the Hanoi Opera House, a cultural jewel in the city's heart. Cross the historic Long Bien Bridge, an iconic structure, to enjoy panoramic views of the Red River. Venture to the tranquil outskirts around West Lake and Truc Bach Lake to witness the contrast between urban and suburban life in Vietnam. The tour concludes by savoring a variety of delicious Hanoi dishes at authentic local restaurants and food stalls. Please note that the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum is viewed from outside and is closed on Mondays, Fridays, and from June to August. Group sizes for this tour typically range from 1 to 6 people.
