DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Day 1 — Hanoi Arrival & Evening Exploration

Upon your arrival at Noi Bai International Airport in Hanoi, a dedicated tour guide will greet you at Pole No. 10 outside the terminal. You will then be transferred directly to your hotel for check-in. Standard check-in time is typically 2:00 PM. The remainder of your first day is free for personal leisure, allowing you to settle in and begin to soak up the atmosphere of Vietnam's capital city.

For those eager to start exploring, Hanoi offers a wealth of opportunities. Consider wandering through the charming streets of the Old Quarter, famous for its narrow lanes, traditional architecture, and vibrant street vendors. This area is perfect for an initial glimpse into local life and perhaps a taste of authentic Vietnamese street food.

Alternatively, optional city tours are available to enhance your experience. You might choose a guided Hanoi Street Food Walking Tour to sample local delicacies or a Hanoi Foodie Tour by Motorbike at Night for a more adventurous culinary journey. These optional activities provide a deeper dive into Hanoi's culture and flavors.

Activities: Arrive at Noi Bai International Airport
Transfer to hotel in Hanoi
Check into accommodation
Explore Hanoi Old Quarter independently (optional)
Join a Hanoi Street Food Walking Tour (optional)
Experience a Hanoi Foodie Tour by Motorbike at Night (optional)

Day 2 — Hanoi Historical & Cultural Highlights

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Begin your day with a half-day exploration of Hanoi's most significant landmarks. Your guide will meet you at the hotel between 8:00 AM and 8:30 AM to commence the tour. The first stop is the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first national university. Here, you can wander through its diverse buildings and serene gardens, gaining insight into the country's educational and cultural heritage.

Next, visit the One Pillar Pagoda, a distinctive Buddhist temple known for its unique architecture resembling a lotus blossom rising from the water. This spiritual site offers a peaceful atmosphere for reflection. Following this, pay respects at the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, an important national monument where Vietnamese citizens honor their revered leader. Please note that photography is only permitted from the outside, and the mausoleum has specific closing days.
The tour continues to Tran Quoc Pagoda, the oldest Buddhist temple in Hanoi, beautifully situated by West Lake. Its elegant architecture and historical significance make it a captivating stop. The morning concludes with lunch at a local restaurant, providing a taste of regional cuisine. Afterwards, your guide will return you to your hotel, leaving your afternoon free for personal pursuits.
For those seeking further adventure, consider an optional Hanoi Sunset Biking & Food Tour or a Decoding the Imperial Citadel of Thang Long Night Tour. Alternatively, a relaxing massage retreat can be arranged for a tranquil afternoon.

Day 3 Ha Long Bay Overnight Cruise Adventure

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner | Stay: Overnight on Cruise | Transport: Shuttle Bus, Cruise

Following breakfast at your Hanoi hotel, a driver will pick you up at 8:00 AM for the scenic journey to Ha Long Bay's cruise port. Upon arrival, the friendly cruise staff will assist with your check-in procedures. As you board your elegant vessel, you'll be welcomed with a refreshing drink and a brief orientation on the cruise and safety guidelines.
A delicious lunch will be served onboard as the cruise gracefully sails into the more secluded and breathtaking areas of the bay. The afternoon is dedicated to an array of exciting activities. You'll have the opportunity to swim in the emerald waters, explore mysterious caves by kayak, or simply relax and take in the stunning limestone karsts that punctuate the seascape. Later, return to the cruise ship for a Vietnamese cooking class, where you can learn to prepare traditional spring rolls. As evening approaches, take advantage of the Happy Hour on the sundeck, sipping cocktails while enjoying the panoramic views. A tasty dinner will be served in the cruise's restaurant, followed by various onboard entertainment options such as board games, squid fishing, night movies, or karaoke.

Activities:
Transfer from Hanoi to Ha Long Bay cruise port
Check-in and welcome drink on cruise
Enjoy lunch onboard while cruising

Day 6 Hoi An Ancient Town Walking Tour

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hoi An

Prepare for a captivating half-day walking tour through Hoi An Ancient Town, a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site. Your exploration begins at the vibrant Hoi An Market, a sensory delight filled with sights, sounds, and aromas, offering a fantastic opportunity for souvenir shopping and observing local commerce.

Next, visit the Phuc Kien Chinese Assembly Hall, an impressive structure featuring colorful gates, intricate dragon statues, and ornate rooftops. Here, you'll learn about ancestor worship and witness locals making traditional offerings. Continue your journey through Hoi An's remarkably preserved old houses, such as the Phung Hung Ancient House and Tan Ky Ancient House, both standing strong for over two centuries, showcasing traditional Vietnamese architecture and merchant life.

Delve deeper into local culture at the Museum of Folk Culture, housed within a 150-year-old Chinese merchant home, displaying artifacts that depict daily life in ancient Hoi An. Don't miss the Hoi An Traditional Performing Arts House, where you can enjoy local artistic performances. The tour culminates at the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, a 400-year-old landmark connecting the Japanese and Chinese communities.

Conclude your exploration by strolling through Hoi An's handicraft shops, art galleries, and charming laneways, allowing you to fully appreciate the town's timeless appeal and local neighborhoods.

Day 8 Hue Imperial City Exploration

Meals: Breakfast | Stay: Hotel in Hue | Transport: Car

Your day begins with a pick-up from your hotel between 8:00 AM and 8:30 AM for a half-day city tour, designed to showcase the best of Hue, from its ancient royal architecture to the vibrant rhythm of local life. The first significant attraction you will visit is the Thien Mu Pagoda, a renowned Buddhist site and an unofficial symbol of the city, gracefully situated on the banks of the Perfume River.

The journey continues with an exploration of the Imperial Citadel, a magnificent complex that served as the former capital during the Nguyễn Dynasty. Recognized as a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage site since 1993, the Citadel offers a profound glimpse into Vietnam's imperial past with its intricate palaces, temples, and gates. Wander through its historic grounds and imagine life within its walls.

To experience local commerce and perhaps test your bargaining skills, the tour includes a visit to Dong Ba Market. This bustling market is an excellent place to observe daily life, find unique souvenirs, and interact with local vendors. At the conclusion of your expedition, the driver will bring you back to your hotel, leaving your afternoon free for personal activities.

For culinary enthusiasts, an optional Hue Night Culinary Tour is available, starting at 6:00 PM. This tour offers an interesting itinerary to sample Hue specialties and includes a cyclo ride, providing a delightful evening experience.

Day 10 Cu Chi Tunnels & Ho Chi Minh City Landmarks

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Car

After breakfast at your hotel, embark on an adventure to the Cu Chi Tunnels, a significant historical site located about 1.5 hours from the city. Here, you'll delve into a part of the incredibly complex underground tunnel system, famously constructed and utilized during the Vietnam-American War. Upon arrival, travelers will watch a documentary film providing an introduction to the tunnels' construction and their historical usage.
Next, you'll have the opportunity to navigate through a section of the intricate 136-mile underground network used by Viet Cong soldiers, gaining a firsthand understanding of the challenging conditions. Witness displays of living quarters, meeting rooms, weapon storage areas, and various dangerous traps. For those interested, a shooting range offers the chance to fire real bullets with a selection of guns (additional fee applies). A light lunch will be served at a local restaurant with your group before returning to Ho Chi Minh City.
The afternoon is dedicated to exploring the top must-visit sights of Ho Chi Minh City. Your first stop is the Independence Palace, where the Vietnamese Revolutionary Army achieved victory in 1975. This significant national monument houses many historical displays and the former living residences of South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu. After approximately 1.5 hours of exploration, proceed to the Saigon Notre Dame Cathedral and Central Post Office, both iconic landmarks showcasing excellent examples of French colonial architecture. (Note: Notre Dame Cathedral is under renovation until 2027, with visits limited to its surroundings).
Continue your historical journey at the War Remnants Museum, which offers a poignant look at the First Indochina War and the Vietnam War through powerful exhibits illustrating the futility and harsh impacts of conflict, including an American F5A jet fighter. The sightseeing trip concludes with a drop-off at your hotel, leaving your evening free to discover the city's nightlife at your leisure.

Day 11 Mekong Delta Riverine Adventure

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch | Stay: Hotel in Ho Chi Minh City | Transport: Car, Boat

At 8:00 AM, depart from Ho Chi Minh City for Ben Tre Province, where your fascinating excursion into the Mekong Delta begins. Your adventure seekers will first board a boat for a cruise along the Ham Luong River. This offers an incredible experience, allowing you to take in the beautiful scenery and observe the rustic daily life along the riverside landscapes. You'll also have the opportunity to visit local workshops, witnessing the traditional process of creating coconut products and the intricate art of mat weaving. Following this, enjoy a leisurely stroll through a local village, providing a deeper insight into the local culture and community up close. A unique highlight is a ride on a 'Xe Loi,' a motorized rickshaw, offering a fun and memorable way to traverse the countryside.

A delicious lunch featuring local dishes will be served at noon. Food lovers will particularly enjoy the opportunity to taste the deep-fried elephant earfish, a culinary specialty and a memorable highlight of the trip. The afternoon continues with a serene sampan trip along the narrow canals, offering a peaceful and enjoyable journey through the Mekong Delta's waterways, surrounded by the sights and sounds of rural life.

After this immersive experience, you will travel back to Ho Chi Minh City, where you can relax for the remainder of the day, reflecting on the tranquil beauty and local charm of the Mekong Delta.
