Day 5 — Ha Long Bay Sunrise & Flight to Imperial Hue

Meals: Breakfast, Brunch | Stay: Hotel in Hue

Begin your day by waking early to witness the breathtaking sunrise over Ha Long Bay, a view even more spectacular from the cruise deck. A light breakfast, including coffee and tea, will be served to start your morning. Following breakfast, participate in a gentle Tai Chi session on the sundeck, a perfect way to stretch and rejuvenate amidst the serene surroundings.

Next, the cruise makes a stop at Titop Island, a small, crescent-shaped island renowned for its calm waters and natural beauty. You'll have approximately 1–2 hours to ascend to the island's viewpoint, offering a magnificent 360-degree panorama of Ha Long Bay, or to simply relax and swim on the beach. A hearty brunch is served back on board as the cruise slowly navigates its return to the harbor. Use this time to pack your belongings or simply unwind on the sundeck, soaking in the final views of this iconic landscape.

Upon disembarkation at the cruise port, you will be transferred for your afternoon flight to Hue. This journey takes you from the northern coast to Vietnam's former imperial capital. Hue's rich royal heritage becomes evident upon arrival, with ancient citadel walls and traditional architecture emerging into view during your transfer to the hotel, preparing you for the historical discoveries ahead.

Activities:
- Witness sunrise over Ha Long Bay
- Participate in Tai Chi session

tranquil Perfume River. Your first destination is Thien Mu Pagoda, one of Vietnam's most recognizable religious landmarks. Its distinctive seven-tiered tower and peaceful setting make it a symbol of Hue, often celebrated in local folk songs. Continue your exploration to the Imperial Citadel, the magnificent heart of Hue's royal legacy. This expansive UNESCO World Heritage Site, covering 520 hectares, once served as the residence for emperors and their courts, featuring an array of palaces, temples, and grand gates.

Conclude your morning with a visit to Dong Ba Market, the city's oldest and largest marketplace. This vibrant hub is where locals procure fresh produce, traditional handicrafts, and Hue's beloved culinary delights. Your half-day tour concludes around 12:30, leaving you free to enjoy lunch or relax at your leisure.

In the evening, embark on the Hue Heritage Dinner Cruise from Nghinh Luong Dinh. As the boat gently glides upstream along the Perfume River, bathed in the golden hues of sunset, you'll pass by significant cultural landmarks such as Kim Long Village, Thuy Bieu Village, Ho Quyen Arena, Thien Mu Pagoda, and Van Thanh Temple. Indulge in a refined dinner featuring a fusion of contemporary and traditional Hue flavors, reflecting the city's royal culinary heritage. The experience culminates with a captivating Ca Hue performance on the river, immersing you in the elegant melodies of Hue's court music amidst the serene evening waters, creating a truly authentic and memorable cultural journey.
